

MAD DOG TERRORIZES RIVER FRONT DISTRICT

It Killed Dogs and Attacked Human Beings, Giving Them a Most Desperate Struggle.

THE VICIOUS BRUTE FINALLY SLAUGHTERED

Running amuck, biting at everybody within its range, a dog known to hundreds of local people by the name of Rex, undoubtedly possessed of rabies, spread the wildest terror along the river beach, between Union street and Broadway, for more than an hour this morning. The frenzied animal was finally killed but not until it had caused destruction to several of the canine family, torn the clothes from one person and thrown others almost into hysterics.

Thomas Beaver, who resides in a shanty boat at the foot of Union street, was the first intended victim of the mad brute. Mr. Beaver was sitting in his boat shortly after 9 o'clock when he was surprised to see Rex, owned by his brother, Charles, who lives only a short distance farther up the beach, rush onto his boat and make a dash at another dog lying near the door.

Mr. Beaver did not realize at first that the dog was mad and dashing ran over to it with the intention of kicking it off on to the shore. He did land a blow with his foot on the dog's shoulder, which came dangerously near costing him his life. The animal, already suffering with the terrible and deadly disease, turned on Mr. Beaver and before he could escape grabbed him viciously by the trousers. Tomaciously the brute kept its hold and did not break away until it had wrenched the garment almost completely off.

While Mr. Beaver was engaged in this terrific battle other members of the family rushed to his assistance and all centering an attack on the dog finally succeeded in casting it on to the beach. Leaving this boat the animal started on another mad rush, heading for the boat of Charles Beaver. Arriving on this boat it made an attack on two little dogs, probably two months old. In a moment's time it had killed them both, grabbing them by their mouths and breaking their heads practically off. Another dog on the boat was next attacked and it was also bitten in several places, but not killed. Charles Beaver then rushed in and interfered sufficiently to get the attention of the dog turned toward other quarters.

Meantime scores of people in the vicinity were running to and fro, all at the highest pitch of excitement and all trying to provide a manner by which the animal could be dispatched. They were afraid, however, to get within its range and some one ran hastily to a telephone and summoned the police. Officers McDermott and Auferheide answered the call but before their arrival Thomas Beaver had nerved himself to the extent of approaching the dog and with a revolver killed it.

The police learned this afternoon that the total number of dogs bitten by the mad brute is not less than nine and before evening all will be killed. It is said that every other dog in the neighborhood will be dispatched also, the belief being that all are infected with the disease.

BRIGHT YOUNG LIFE WAS CRUSHED OUT

Carr Young Dies as the Result of Being Run Over by a Street Car.

TRIED TO GET ON IN FRONT

Carr, a bright little 12-year-old lad, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of First avenue, was run over by street car No. 22, Conductor Welling, and Motorman Stanley, of the East Liverpool line, and died two hours later. The terrible accident occurred at 7 o'clock last evening near the intersection of First and Pennsylvania avenue, within 100 yards of the lad's home.

Car No. 22 was bound east and had just left the Mulberry street switch. From that point to where the accident occurred is but a short distance, and it is not likely that a full speed had been attained. Following the dangerous and foolhardy habit of hundreds of lads, the little fellow attempted to jump aboard the car at the front vestibule. He stood on the south side of the car, which, east bound, placed the closed vestibule towards him.

The lad caught the handle bar, but in trying to swing his body onto the step must have stumbled, for instead of reaching there he was thrown under the wheels. Not until he felt the bar of the wheels passing over the boy's legs did Motorman Stanley, according to his own statement, know that anything was amiss. Even then he did not suspect the true state of affairs, though he turned off the power and stopped the car. By the time the car was brought to a stop several people, who saw the boy drop from the car, were at his side and could see that he was cruelly hurt. One of the bystanders hastened to the home of Dr. W. E. Mowen, a short distance away. Dr. Mowen reached the spot before the body had been moved. The lad was conscious and realized that he was dangerously hurt. It was so dark at the spot that Dr. Mowen lighted a match to look at the wounds. The

SOCIALIST PARTY NAMES A TICKET

COUNTY NOMINATIONS MADE AT A MEETING IN THIS CITY.

The Convention Attended By About 20 Members—List of Nominees.

Members of the Socialist party to the number of about 20 held a convention last night in their hall on West Market street and placed a county ticket in the field. A full ticket was nominated, most of the candidates being residents of this city. The number present did not represent the strength of the party locally and there was no opposition to any of the candidates.

The meeting was called to order by J. G. Boring, who is the presiding secretary of the party here. A motion to have the committee appointed to name the county ticket prevailed. The committee presented the following names after a few minutes' deliberations:

For Representative—E. J. Smith, of East Liverpool.

For Treasurer—F. W. Pennington, of East Liverpool.

For Sheriff—Joseph Davidson, of Wellsville.

For Commissioner—A. J. Powell, of East Liverpool.

The convention reaffirmed its allegiance to the platform of the party. An active campaign in behalf of the candidates and the party will be made. Several campaign speeches will be arranged.

MANGLED REMAINS FOUND ON RAILWAY

Albert Martin, Former Well Known Newspaper Man, Run Over by Train.

A MAN OF GREAT ABILITY

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—Another fatality occurred here, presumably last evening, Albert W. H. Martin, of Lisbon, being cut to pieces by a Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western railroad train.

The mangled remains were found scattered along the railroad track near the lower tile works, a mile or two east of Lisbon. Thomas Crawford, who was on his way to work about 7 o'clock this morning made the discovery. Probably two trains had passed over the body before it was found.

Mr. Martin was last seen about 5 p. m., when he was starting for Kimble's dam, east of town, to spend the night fishing. He is supposed to have been run over by the incoming passenger train about an hour later, or the local freight still later. The dense fog this morning prevented the crew of the early east bound passenger train seeing evidence of the accident.

The remains were scattered along the track for 40 or 50 yards in front of the office of the sewer pipe plant. They were scarcely recognizable. They were taken to Eells' undertaking establishment after being viewed by Coroner D. J. Jones. An inquest will be held this evening.

Martin was 57 years old and a native of West Virginia. A few years ago he was a well known newspaper man in this county, coming from East Liverpool to Lisbon in 1890 as the first correspondent of the county dailies. He reported the famous Marlatt murder trial. Later he succeeded Ed A. King as editor of the Buckeye State, holding the position several years. Afterward he represented the county papers at different times, but retired from newspaper work several years ago. Before locating in East Liverpool he worked on Pittsburg dailies. He was a capable man, having graduated from a Pennsylvania college, in which he was afterward an instructor for several years.

At the outbreak of the civil war he was living in West Virginia. Although too young to enlist he saw service in the union army as a camp attaché in the regiment to which his father belonged. He was captain of J. B. Morgan camp No. 76, Sons of Veterans, of Lisbon, and the camp will attend his funeral in a body.

Mr. Martin leaves a wife and four children, Harry, Carl, Emma and Amy, all of Lisbon.

SALOON MEN ARRAIGNED

A Few Are Fined And a Number Placed Under Bond for Hearing. Stock Exchange Case—Crusade Against Cigarette Selling.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—A large number of criminal cases were disposed of at a session of court yesterday afternoon.

John Allmon, of East Liverpool, who has been in jail charged with the non-support of his five minor children, was permitted to change his former plea to that of guilty. Evidence before the grand jury showed that Allmon has not contributed materially to the support of his family since he and his wife separated five years ago, after having lived together 10 years, although he is temperate and industrious and earns good wages. Allmon promised to do better in consideration of which Judge Hole passed the case to give Allmon an opportunity to get a bond of $1,000, which will secure a suspension of the severe penalty attaching to such offenses. It was stated in Allmon's behalf that his offense was largely due to ignorance of the law, the prisoner being extremely illiterate and unable to either read or write.

Frank A. Tremaine, of East Liverpool, pleaded not guilty to a charge of conducting a bucket shop and is held to court in $500 bond.

William Haesley, of Hanoverton, pleaded not guilty to the two counts of an indictment for forging and uttering or putting in circulation a note for $300. The note was dated Hanoverton April 1, 1893, and was drawn up in favor of J. B. Speidel and was signed by William, Joseph and Abraham Haesley. The accused is held to court under $500 bond.

Cyrus, John and George Newhouse, father and two sons of Elkhart township, waived arraignment on a charge of assault and battery, pleaded not guilty and are held to court under bond of $100 each.

James Sharp, an East Liverpool habitual drunkard, got several saloonists in that city into trouble for furnishing liquor to him. For this offense Ben Schar got $30 and costs; Jacob Seitz $25 and costs; Charles Hayden $40 and costs, and John Kountz $30 and costs.

In the case of Mrs. Cornelius Smith, of East Liverpool, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, the defendant's attorney moved the indictment be quashed on the ground that it was not specific enough in stating the time of offense. The case was passed for further consideration and in the meantime the accused is under bond of $100 for her appearance.

James Derosi, an Italian saloonist who has been in business in East Liverpool four months, admitted he had sold to a minor and was fined $25 and costs.

George Wurtzell, also of East Liverpool, charged with selling to a minor, pleaded not guilty to the six indictments against him and is under bond of $300.

Calvin Bower, of East Liverpool, also pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling to a minor, and is under bond of $200.

James Nelson, of Wellsville, waived an arraignment for selling on Sunday and his bond is $200.

William Savors, of Wellsville, whom there are three indictments for keeping open and selling on Sunday, pleaded not guilty and is under bond of $300.

Thomas Ford, of Wellsville, admitted he had kept open and sold on Sunday and was fined $50 and costs. Judge Hole, in pronouncing sentence said there is possibly some excuse for saloonists selling to minors and naturals occasionally when they are imposed upon, but there is no excuse for neglecting to note when the first day of the week comes around.

Peter Wallom, charged with interfering with electric light wires in Wellsville, pleaded not guilty and gave bond for $200.

Edward Bennett, of Lisbon, pleaded guilty to one indictment for selling cigarettes to a boy under 18. He was fined $15 and costs. Two other indictments against Bennett for the same of

A GREAT OIL WELL BACK OF EMPIRE

Flowing About 130 Barrels a Day And Causing Great Excitement.

Empire, October 13.—(Special.)—Oil excitement is at fever heat out at Sugar Grove, back two miles from Empire, on the farm of Rufus Wilcox. The excitement is due to the extraordinary flow of oil made by the well after being shot on Saturday last. Since that time the well has been making about 130 barrels every 24 hours.

Large bonuses are being offered by oil men anxious to get into the field. Those owning the adjacent farms are in a quandary what to do. They are afraid they won't ask enough, and thus the merry war goes on.

ENGINEERS' STRIKE HAS BEEN SETTLED

Agreement Reached Late This Afternoon and Men Go to Work Tomorrow.

WHERE SCALE IS SIGNED

One of the shortest strikes ever conducted in East Liverpool and successful from the unionists' standpoint, was brought to a close late this afternoon, when terms were agreed upon between the manufacturing potters and the members of the International Union of Steam Engineers, whereby the scale of the union will be universally signed.

The fight, which was inaugurated at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, was for recognition of the union. This the factory owners at first refused to do, but have now reconsidered. The scale as originally presented has been changed slightly, but still provides for everything asked by the union in the beginning. The committee originally appointed by the manufacturers' association has refused to treat with the men.

Other interested factory owners asked for a conference with the strikers this morning, and it was granted. At that time the altered proposition was presented by the manufacturers, and taken back to the union at a meeting this afternoon. There it was ratified, and the committee instructed to carry the findings to the potters' association in session in the postoffice block at 3 o'clock.

The engine rooms of a few plants are presided over by men who are not members of the International, and therefore are still being operated. When the trouble was inaugurated an effort was made to ascertain whether or not the engineers could expect the support of the Brotherhood. At the headquarters of the latter organization it was learned that no official support could possibly be given, owing to existing agreements with the manufacturers.

There are 11 members of the organization known as the National Association of Stationary Engineers now in the city, and it is from them the strikers say they are receiving the hardest knocks. The association is purely an educational one, and its members are pledged by the constitution to refrain from entering any movement having for its object the demanding of more wages or better conditions. They are not permitted to take part in any controversy with their employers, and the clause is being carried out to the letter in the present instance.

These men, the strikers say, have steadily refused to join the International, and are of course at work. In case the union is victorious and the members succeed in enforcing the provisions of the first section of the scale which calls for the employment of only engineers affiliated with the International, it is probable these N. A. S. E. men will be taken into the bona fide union.

There is a phase of the present strike which has not yet been generally discussed, but promises to have an airing in every local in the city. The question is that involving the duty of one unionist toward the other, and will undoubtedly find its way to the central labor union and probably to the American Federation of Labor. The International Union of Steam Engineers is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. So is the American Federation of Musicians. Both of these organizations have branches in this city. The former is

A CHILD TERRIBLY HURT BY EXPLODING TORPEDO

STRUCK RAILWAY TORPEDO WITH A HATCHET

Ignorant of its destructiveness, believing it to be only a producer of loud noise, little Lillie Clunk, the 10-year-old daughter of Frank Clunk, a kiln hand employed in the glost end at the George C. Murphy pottery, seized a hatchet yesterday afternoon at about 1 o'clock and struck, with all the force she possessed, a torpedo, the kind used as a warning on railroads. As a result she lies at her home in Newell, opposite the city, in an extremely critical condition.

The injured child, accompanied by her sister, Olive, aged 4, and a DeBee girl, was at play when the trio were attracted to the torpedo. Some say that they found it on the railroad track which runs close by their home, but the father stated this morning that the explosive was discovered by the children in a woodshed at the rear of the home. At any rate, after finding the torpedo, Lillie, knowing that it would make fun for them all to destroy it, proposed that they get a hatchet and smash it.

All agreed and the miniature bombshell was placed on a large chunk of coal. Lillie then took the hatchet and while her playmates were standing in joyful anticipation of hearing "a great big noise" she raised her little arm and innocently struck the torpedo.

With a crash that could be heard or blocks the shell burst and immediately following the happiness of the trio changed to that of utter fright, now involved in a strike, and it is claimed by the members that a man belonging to the musical union is now at work, and what is more, refuses steadily to go out.

This man is said by the strikers to have antagonized the union at every turn, and not only refused to affiliate with the engineers' union, but remains at work in spite of the influence brought to bear by the strikers. It is an old contention among the unionists of this city that every member of the musicians' union should be connected with the trades union in which he earns his livelihood. In many instances this has been disregarded, but in regard to the present case the engineers say they are determined to bring the matter to a head. No definite plan has been decided upon, but it is certain the question will be brought to the attention of the Trades and Labor Council, and may be carried to the highest tribunal, which is the American Federation of Labor.

It is the opinion of those interested in the labor movement in this city that the sooner the musicians' question is settled once for all the better it will be for the cause in East Liverpool. There has been more or less trouble of this character ever since the musicians have been organized, and it is likely a decision will be asked from the American Federation of Labor.

WILL OF DR. DODD

East Palestine Clergyman Left All His Estate to His Widow If She Does Not Marry.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—The will of the late Samuel T. Dodd, D. D., of East Palestine, has been filed for probate, and application set for a hearing next Saturday. He leaves all his property to his widow during her life or until she marries, she losing all interest in the estate in the latter event. On her death or marriage the property is to be sold and the proceeds divided equally among her children and Mr. Dodd's children by his first wife.

The estate includes properties in Rochester, Pa., Alliance, East Palestine, Bethany, W. Va., and in Missouri. As soon as litigation over the West Virginia and Missouri properties is adjusted the executrix is authorized to sell them and place the money on interest for final distribution. The will is dated as executed without bond.

Lillie having fallen backward to the ground severely wounded in at least three places on her body. In agony undecipherable the little girl writhed while her companions, being unable to realize the enormity of her injuries, stood as if dumfounded. The cries of the injured one soon brought a crowd of older people, however, to the scene and only a glance by them was needed to comprehend the situation.

Bleeding from a number of wounds on the head, one in the left breast, another bad bruise in the right side caused by contact from some blunt missile, and one on her left lower limb, the girl was carried into the house, where she continued her piteous outbursts. Those around her quickly prepared to dress the wounds, but they soon discovered that the child had been so badly hurt that only a physician could properly attend her. Consequently Mr. Clunk was telephoned to and upon his arrival home he at once summoned Dr. George E. Lewis, of Chester.

The physician cleansed to a great extent the powder burnt openings in the flesh and relieved her misery as much as possible, and he stated that unless blood poisoning sets in she will not necessarily die. The case is one very hard to diagnose, the flesh being lacerated in an awful manner. If the torn parts can be totally cleansed the girl has a good chance for recovery, but if not, it is thought she will lose her life. Recover or not, she will always be marked by the gash on her face.

HER SUFFERINGS END PEACEFULLY

Mrs. James H. Goodwin Died at Clifton Springs, N. Y., This Morning.

A MUCH HONORED LADY

The entire community was keenly shocked this afternoon when the sad news reached the city of the death of Mrs. Mary L. Goodwin, widow of the late James H. Goodwin, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., where she had been taking treatment in a sanitarium for months. The direct cause of Mrs. Goodwin's death was the result of an operation performed on Saturday, October 3.

Mrs. Goodwin had been a sufferer, almost an invalid, for years, and was taken to Clifton Springs early last summer. After a course of treatment, the best to be procured in the country, and after her physical condition had improved sufficient to warrant it, the physicians at the sanitarium decided to subject the sufferer to an operation. Upon the date set for the ordeal the members of the family arrived at her bedside and all were joyful when she revived from its effects.

Mrs. Goodwin commenced to improve rapidly and on last Saturday, her sons, John S. and Charles F., were so confident of her ultimate recovery that they returned to their homes in this city. They received a telegram yesterday afternoon stating that their mother had developed a sinking spell and both left on the first train for her bedside. They arrived in time to see her alive, the death angel claiming her at 9 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Alice Gilmore, her only daughter, was also at the bedside.

Relatives of Mrs. Goodwin in this city were not prepared this afternoon to announce the day and hour of the funeral, but the remains, accompanied by the three surviving children, will arrive in the city some time tomorrow and the funeral will be held at the home of John S. Goodwin, East Fifth street. Rev. Dr. Pratt, pastor of the First M. E. church, of which Mrs.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW BUILDING COMPLETED.

The new building to take the place of the one destroyed by fire at the Ironside fire brick works of the Standard Brick company has just been completed. The new structure is 50 feet by 80 feet, two stories high, is of frame construction and is like the original building, which was also new, having been completed but two months before the fire occurred. The first floor is taken up with the brick machinery and the upper one is used for a drying room. The engine and boilers are housed in a separate building. It is understood none of the machinery was injured to any great extent. This, however, has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and is now in readiness again for operation.

POTTERS LEAVING.

Potters continue to leave the city for Cameron, Coshocton, Crooksville and other cities where plants are being placed in operation. During the past few weeks 50 potters and their families have departed, and this condition will prevail until all those who accepted out-of-town jobs are gone. The city is not the loser to any great extent, as the places of the departing ones are easily filled. In spite of the exodus desirable houses, particularly small ones, are difficult to find and the demand is in excess of the supply. Many people who had to take just what was at hand when they reached the city are taking advantage of the situation by finding more desirable quarters.

FELL IN A KILN.

William Arb, one of the kilnmen at the Burford plant, was painfully injured late yesterday afternoon and will be confined to his home for a number of days. Arb was placing the top sagger on the bung when he lost his balance and fell from the stairs to the bottom of the kiln, a distance of about

While badly bruised and stunned there were no bones broken and Arb was taken to his home in the patrol, while medical aid was being summoned. Dr. Hobbs cared for the injuries, which consist of a number of contusions and bruises about the shoulders and breast.

DECORATORS WORKING.

The decorating departments of the local plants will in most instances be the last affected by the strike of the engineers. The operatives will be compelled to stop, however, if the strike continues for any length of time. Those in the decorating departments had been enjoying the best run of work in several months and most of them were sorry to see an interruption. The fall season is by far the best for the decorators, owing to the great demand for all decorated lines as holiday gifts.

BREWER STORY REVIVED.

The story is again revived at Tiffin that Col. Albert Brewer, formerly a wealthy potter, who was supposed to have died and been buried last May, is not dead. The whole story was published in the News Review months ago. Brewer, at the time of his reported death, was awaiting trial for killing Luther Hershey, a farm hand, in a quarrel. It is alleged that a corpse was substituted and that Brewer is living in some distant region. His friends take no stock in the tale.

KILNDRAWERS' DISPUTE.

Owing to a dispute between the kilndrawers and Manager Menor, at the Union, one of the kilns, partly drawn, was allowed to remain over Sunday, the men refusing to finish the work under the terms offered them. The difficulty may be submitted to the arbitration board for settlement. The dispute has occasioned a loss of time in several other departments.

NOVELTIES IN JARS.

Porcelain cracker jars have become quite a fad and several local plants have made a special effort to offer attractive designs. The jars for the most part afford a wide range for decoration and some of the designs are really meritorious. A great run on them will be experienced from now until the holidays.

ANARCHISTS CLASH WITH POLICE

Many Sentenced to Imprisonment, Including Their Leader.

San Juan, Oct. 13.—Governor Hunt returned from Ponce, where he attended a banquet in celebration of the extension of American railways in the island. He was everywhere received with demonstrations of confidence and esteem. During the governor's absence the anti-American socialists and anarchists had a clash with the police on the plaza of this city. Forty arrests were made and many of the prisoners were convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment, including the anarchist, Conde, who was recently convicted of insulting the American flag.

Americans here are particularly incensed at the carrying of black and red flags and a craped American flag by a mob Sunday as an incitement to disorder.

Conde delivered a very offensive harangue, in which he approved of the mob resorting to bloodshed if necessary.

The Americans demanded the punishment of all the dangerous socialists and are overwhelming Governor Hunt with assurances of support in a vigorous campaign to uphold law and order. They urge that an immediate death blow be given to anarchy.

Eye Witness of Kishinev Horrors.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 13.—After a journey of six weeks, Mrs. Esther Steinberg and her three children, who were hidden in the cellar of a Christian home for three days during the Kishinev massacre in Russia, have arrived in Des Moines to join Mr. Steinberg. Mrs. Steinberg brought pictures taken after the worst of the massacre and confirms all of the stories of horror. She says the reports were mild compared with the awful facts. She saw a woman with a spike driven into her skull, women disemboweled and hot pitch poured into their wounds, and men and women slashed and crushed and left lying in the streets.

Schwab Will Appear as Witness.

New York, Oct. 13.—Attorney Guthrie, who is representing Charles M. Schwab at the inquest in the recent investigation of the affairs of the United States Shipbuilding company, has not yet fully recovered from the injuries received while riding a few days ago and at a conference between the counsel in the case a postponement until Wednesday was decided upon. Announcement also was made that Mr. Guthrie had agreed to produce Mr. Schwab as a witness whenever required without the necessity of serving a process directing him to attend.

Lowered Automobile Record.

London, Oct. 13.—The Hon. C. S. Rolls, officially timed, lowered the world's kilometer record at the duke of Portland's private park, using a specially built 110-horse power machine. His time was 29.25 seconds.

Cuba's imports in the calendar year

1902 were less than in any preceding year since the war. Her exports were, however, greater, reaching for the first time an excess over imports. The share of this trade which the United States has secured, both in imports and in exports, has been declining during the period. These significant facts appear in a report on Commercial

Cuba published in the last number of the government summary of statistics.

They serve to emphasize more than ever the importance of favorable action by congress at the coming special session upon the reciprocity treaty with Cuba.

The latest street car accident emphasizes the necessity of impressing upon the minds of both old and young the fact that moving street cars are dangerous and should be avoided rather than run after.

"To talk tariff revision at this time

man Dalzell, of Pittsburg. The Republican majority in congress is likely to endorse the sentiment almost unanimously.

Morgan says he was not to receive a rake-off from the sale of the Bathlehem steel mill. A large number of other gentlemen who are common-supposed to be in positions to know say he was. But perhaps a transaction in which a mere $30,000,000 or $40,

000,000 was involved was so small that it slipped from Mr. Morgan's memory.

President Roosevelt's cordial commendation of Senator Hanna must be disappointing to those Democrats who have been harping upon an imaginary breach between the two.

The voters of Ohio are making up their minds that Tom Johnson deserves nothing at their hands and will make his defeat decisive.

Tom L. Johnson denies that he is a socialist, but he does not deny that he believes in Henry Georgeism, and that is socialism.

The oriental skies will doubtless be clearer after the war cloud passes. The world is hoping it may pass without bursting.

It looks as if the Pittsburg ball players have been too much afflicted with the pride which goeth before a fall.

New Castle, Pa., with 35,000 inhabitants, pays its mayor $1,000 a year, and is getting ashamed to own it.

"Rube" Waddell is on the stage.

Hitherto he has proved a bad actor

when off the diamond.

Bryan threatens another visit to Ohio. It might pay Johnson to pay

Mrs. John H. Young.

Mrs. John H. Young, of Beaver Falls, died at St. John's hospital in Allegheny last evening at 8 o'clock. She had been ill for eight months and was taken to the hospital for an operation yesterday. She did not recover from the operation. She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mrs. Frank Spousler, Miss Myrtle Young and Miss Thalia Young, all of Beaver Falls. She leaves two sisters and a brother in East Liverpool, Mrs. Elizabeth Larkins, Mrs. John S. Wilson and John Fowler, of the East End. The funeral will be held Thursday at 3 p. m. at Beaver Falls; interment at Freedom.

D. V. Dunlap.

Mrs. Frank McIntosh and her daughter, Miss Della, left this morning for Alliance to attend the funeral of D. V. Dunlap, who died Sunday evening after a long illness. Mr. Dunlap was 85 years of age and was a highly respected resident of the city in which he died. Besides Mrs. McIntosh, of this city; Mrs. Emaline Baker, of Cleveland; Mrs. Dr. R. A. Roach, of Alliance; Mrs. R. A. Dunlap, of Carrollton, and Milton Dunlap, of East Liverpool, survive.

James Campbell.

Mrs. John C. Owen, of Sixth street, has received word of the death of her father, James Campbell, at Burton on Trent, England. He is 82 years old and is survived by 12 children, two of whom are living in this country. Mrs. John C. Owen, of this city, and Mrs. John W. Morgan, of Trenton, N. J.

IMPROVED APPEARANCE OF BANK BUILDING

The Citizens' National Bank Has Some Artistic Work Done on Its Windows.

Every ready and noticeably zealous to add improvements to the general appearance of their already beautiful apartments on Washington street, the officials of the Citizens' National bank are now having the elegant plate glass facing the street beautified by artistic lettering in gold. The work is being done by A. Judson McCain, the well known sign painter.

Passersby are all attracted by the improvement and all agree that its beautifying effect was wonderful, the tint of gold corresponding admirably with the surrounding adornment. The letters compose the words: "Citizens' National Bank" in the first line; "Capital Stock, $100,000," second line; "Surplus, $50,000," third line, and "United States Depository" the fourth line.

Blending perfectly as they do, the letters embellish the artistic surroundings and will catch the eye of every one passing.

AT THE THEATER

The attraction announced for next Saturday night is the powerful Russian melodrama, "For Her Sake," which has already had one very successful season, and now comes to us in an entirely new dress, having been rewritten and novel and effective situations added. The present prominence of the czar's government in the Chinese business tends to arouse interest in plays dealing with Russian military life, and this of itself will doubtless assure large audiences during the coming engagement.

At the Grand tonight that charming pastoral play, "York State Folks," which made such a favorable impression with those who were fortunate enough to witness it at its last visit, will be presented with the same great cast and magnificent scenery. "York State Folks" without doubt is the best play of its kind that has ever been offered, and it is a play that is destined to have a long and successful career.

"When the Bell Tolls," which will be given at the Grand on Friday night. One of the most effective scenes in this successful production is a completely darkened room in which the entire action of a stirring episode takes place in the condensed, but brilliant ray of a bicycle lantern. This effect is original in "When the Bell Tolls." The play is full of novel features and the plot is intensely interesting.

In old Georgia, land of cotton and the luscious watermelon, is situated the romantic story, "The Old Plantation." A series of stirring dramatic situations and startling climaxes, combined with the strongest of heart interest, are the features of this beautiful play. At the Grand opera house Thursday evening.

Quinlan & Wall's minstrels gave a fine show to a crowded house at the Grand last evening. It was full of originality and fun and delightful from start to finish. The singing was excellent and the special acts furnished refreshing novelties. Jimmy Wall's topical song made a great hit. About 40 members of the order of Eagles attended in a body.

MRS. UHLWARM IS NOT FOUND

Report of Her Being Seen in East End Leads to Diligent Search.

MANY ARE IN THE HUNT

Efforts Thus Far Futile But the Searchers Are Greatly Encouraged and Hope to Find the Unfortunate Woman Alive.

Through the long hours of last night the Columbian park neighborhood was searched by the anxious relatives of Mrs. Max Uhlwarm, who has been strangely missing from her home near Ralston's crossing since Saturday night. The search was instituted at the park through a clue developed at the East End fire station and while it proved fruitless last night the searchers did not lose heart and with augmented forces returned to the work this morning.

The clue was obtained by Captain Terrence through the conversation of some callers at the fire station. They mentioned the fact that on Sunday night Will Price and "Cooney" Good-ballet, the crew on an east bound street car, had to remove a woman from the track. While no accurate description was given, Captain Terrence connected the incident with the disappearance of Mrs. Uhlwarm.

A short time later this theory was strengthened by the statement of two well known young men of the East End, Ira Farrell and John Arnold. They were sitting on a stone wall near the park at about 9 o'clock Sunday night, when they saw a woman walking eastward along the street car track. As she passed beneath an electric light they could see that she wore a red wrapper and a plaid shawl. Her appearance aroused their curiosity and they observed her more closely. One of them recognized her to be a woman whom he had seen in the neighborhood of Ralston's crossing. He was not personally acquainted with Mrs. Uhlwarm, however.

The husband and relatives of the missing woman were notified of this clue and immediately started to work on it. While the belief had been strong during the first few days of her absence that Mrs. Uhlwarm, while suffering from dementia, had sought death in the waters of the Ohio, the later clue has altered this belief and it is now the belief and the hope that she is somewhere in the vicinity of Columbian park.

The searchers last night encountered many difficulties, owing to the darkness and it was impossible for them to get over a great deal of territory. The lanterns they carried were of small assistance and had Mrs. Uhlwarm's dementia taken this turn, the lights would have warned her of the approach of searchers. The distress of the husband, Max Uhlwarm, is growing greater every hour. Now that there is hope that she is still alive, he will prosecute the search fever without a moment's delay, realizing that every hour of her roaming through the woods will add to her illness.

Mr. Uhlwarm, his brother and Theodore and Henry Konig, who formed the original searching party, were joined this morning by quite a number of potters from the East End plants. The searchers will first search through the Columbian park neighborhood and the territory north of Pennsylvania avenue. The nature of the ground is such as to afford many hiding places. The territory will be extended as rapidly as possible as Mrs. Uhlwarm has had time, since she was seen Sunday night, to get many miles away.

A report this afternoon that Mrs. Uhlwarm had been found could not be confirmed. At a late hour the searchers had not returned.

WELLSVILLE

AN OIL STRIKE NEAR HAMMONDSVILLE

George A. Frink, of Wellsville, has a Promising Well and Will Drill More.

George A. Frink, of this city, has struck a good grade of oil on his farm near Hammondsville and now has a well producing about 10 barrels a day with prospects of becoming a 20 barrel producer. This well was drilled in last Saturday evening at a depth of 365 feet in salt sand. Mr. Frink states that the well is also producing a strong head of gas and he is satisfied that he has made a good find.

This is the second well that has been drilled in on the Frink farm, the first well having proven a slight producer. Mr. Frink will probably drill the new well into the Berea sand, as he has made a good showing in drilling into the salt sand. A pipe line runs within three-fourths of a mile of his farm and will be extended to the new well at once.

Within a short time Mr. Frink intends to drill in several new wells in the same vicinity of this producer and the prospects are that these will also make a good showing.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Will Engage City Council's Attention At An Adjourned Meeting This Evening.

The adjourned meeting of city council which was decided upon at the meeting last Tuesday, will be held this evening, and judging from the amount of unfinished business left over from the meeting last week and the amount of new business which has come up since, a lengthy session is looked for. Among other important matters, the city clerk will probably dig up the old ordinance providing for the zoning and otherwise improving of Highland avenue, an ordinance which was tabled by council some time ago, for some unknown reason. An effort will be made to put this ordinance through at once so that the paving can be done before the extreme cold weather sets in. This ordinance no doubt will meet with the approval of all of the councilmen, as it provides that each property owner on the street shall pay $2 per front foot for the paving of his property. This property owners have already agreed to, and have further urged the promotion of the improvement.

NATURE'S OWN CURE

Hymel Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hymel was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known. This remedy is breathed through the Hymel Inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hymel. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other disease and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hymel not only kills the germs in the throat and nose, but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It frees the mucous membrane from poisonous mucus and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1. and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hymel for several weeks' treatment.

Will Reed has so much faith in the merit of Hymel that he agrees to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

DEATH DUST Roaches.

A big black roach, is a big, mean nuisance; and the sooner they are driven out or killed, the better. They not only eat food and spoil infinitely more than they eat, but they destroy many fine things, such as book covers, etc. Numerous are the ways and means employed to rid premises and places of them but without permanent result.

The very best thing to kill roaches is Death Dust.

It kills them in their tracks before they reach their haunts. Sprinkle it freely about the places they are seen. They breathe it and DIE. Just what every good housekeeper wants them to do.

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD

Holds a Short Session And Acts on the Question of Gas Connections.

The board of public service held a short session this morning and instructed the clerk to issue permits to all parties desiring to make gas connections with residences. It also instructed him to pay a bill of $64 for a lawn mower for use in the cemetery. The board authorized the building of a bridge in the West End from Maple avenue to Clark avenue, extending over McQueen's run. This is an improvement which has long been needed.

The clerk was instructed to forward to council an itemized statement of the expenses of refitting the postoffice room in the city building and this statement will be presented to council at the meeting this evening. The board adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

Funeral of Mrs. Golden.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia A. Golden, who died at her home on Fifteenth street last Sunday evening, was held at the late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. W. C. Prewitt, pastor of the Christian church, of which she was a member, officiated and was assisted by Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church. Burial took place in Spring Hill cemetery.

Funeral This Afternoon.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Haines, who died at her home on Nevada street early yesterday morning, was held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the late home. Rev. W. C. Prewitt, pastor of the Christian church, of which she was a prominent member, officiated. Interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery.

No Quorum Present.

On account of the lack of a quorum, the board of education failed to get together last evening, their regular meeting night, and no meeting was held. There was considerable business on hand, and it is believed that a special meeting will be called within a few days to dispose of this business.

HARD'S

SOUTH SIDE

WILL CONTINUE WITH PROSPECTING

JOHN WEBSTER WILL THOROUGHLY TEST THE OIL FIELDS.

Has Secured a Lease on 350 Acres and Engaged a Driller.

Becoming weary at what he characterizes the unnecessary dilly-dally of the members of the company and feeling certain there is something to be gained by the further development of the field, John Webster, one of the most progressive citizens of Chester, has determined to take up the prospecting where it was left off by the Chester Oil and Gas company, and will begin drilling in the territory at once.

Mr. Webster did his best to interest the members of the company in the further investigation of the land leased by the company some time ago, but his efforts were without result. Last week he went to the old Hadley farm, southeast of Chester, and spent some time in securing leases. When the task was finished it was learned he had secured the right to prospect on about 350 acres of land. It is Mr. Webster's intention to give the territory a thorough test and work will begin at once. Expert Hyte has been engaged to do the drilling and will move the drilling apparatus to the ground this week.

The oil rig and other drilling apparatus which has been in use at the Enoch Allison farm, near Chester, was removed yesterday and will be placed in position at the James Murray property in Chester at once. Stewart Bros. did the drilling at the Allison well and it came in a gusher. It is thought Mr. Allison will have sufficient gas for his private needs, and with that idea uppermost he has purchased the casing that was in use at the well and will connect his residence and outbuilding with the well without delay. Mr. Murray, who will experiment right in Chester, is an old oil man, and will pursue the experiments in his own locality with the sole purpose of obtaining a sufficient supply of gas to meet the demands of the fine new establishment he proposes to erect there.

George Howells and Al McDonald left Chester this morning for a prospecting trip in the vicinity of Hookstown. These men are known to be vitally interested in the oil and gas business, and it is presumed that they will have taken up leases on several hundred acres of land before returning to Chester.

Sale of Chester Grocery.

According to the decision of the court, the Chester Grocery company's possessions will be sold to the highest bidder this afternoon. The establishment is one of the oldest in the town, and as long as it was under the control of George A. Ayner, was one of the most prosperous in the community. Within the past few months, however, it has been in the possession of several different people and its prestige and importance has been on the wane. There are known to be a number of bids already on file, and the controversy will be spirited.

SHREWD WORK DONE BY A DETECTIVE

Conclusive Evidence Said to Have Been Gathered Against Toronto Saloon Men.

New Cumberland, October 14.—(Special.)—The latest developments in the arrest and holding for the grand jury of Joe Pisco, the Toronto saloon keeper, is that a United States detective and three or four assistants, who are Slav and Italian linguists, have been in New Cumberland and vicinity for about two weeks and have so completely worked up their case that they have evidence sufficient to make conviction sure. Their method of securing testimony was to send a telephone message from here for a quart of whisky to the saloon keeper at Toronto, and when it was delivered a ronto was given in payment and the man, to secure his money, indorsed the check and it was secured by the detective.

There does not seem to be a shadow of a chance to get out of it, the evidence is so conclusive. Before it is all over there will be others drawn into it, as some speakies are said to have jumped at the bait. When court convenes next month there will be a hot time.

JOHN CONSIDINE IS FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Highway Robbery in Stealing H. O. Sampsell's Money.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—

The case of Ohio against John Considine, of East Liverpool, charged with highway robbery, came on for trial before a jury late yesterday afternoon. A verdict of guilty was returned just before court adjourned. Considine's attorney, H. E. Grosshans, of East Liverpool, gave notice of a motion for a new trial, and the court deferred passing sentence until that matter is decided.

Considine was found guilty as charged of having forcibly taken $22 from H. O. Sampsell, a collector for the Pittsburgh Fraternal League. The robbery took place on July 7 last along the C. & P. railroad tracks near the C. C. Thompson pottery in East Liverpool. According to Sampsell's story the witness stand he is a collector for a Pittsburgh insurance company and on the afternoon of the robbery had business in the East End, East Liverpool. He said he stopped at a spring along the railroad and was comparing the figures in his account book and the amount of cash he had on hand. He was about to return a roll of money to his pocketbook when he was suddenly seized from behind and his assailant shouted fiercely: "Drop that."

Sampsell said he was so frightened that he relaxed his grip on the bills, and turning saw Considine start to run with the money. Sampsell called for help and gave chase and a couple of young men, Edward Kelly and Joseph Gwinn, attracted by Sampsell's cries, overhauled Considine at a tree the 200 or 300 yards distant and held him until the patrol wagon and several officers arrived and took him in charge.

Sampsell said he had never seen Considine before the robbery, and that he had not been drinking. The testimony of the witnesses, Kelly and Gwinn, Officer Bryan and Lettie Wick-gram, proprietress of the National house, showed that the two men had been much in each others company on the day of the robbery, had been drinking and were intoxicated. Kelly and Gwinn had seen the men together in an apparently intoxicated condition but a few minutes before Sampsell's cries attracted them to a point from which they saw Considine commit the robbery. Seventeen dollars of the money taken by the thief was recovered and returned to Sampsell. Considine was in the employ of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad grading contractors, who have been working in the vicinity of East Liverpool, and had borne a good reputation, although somewhat addicted to drink.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE HAVE ORGANIZED

Division Formed in This City and Officers Chosen—Meeting Tonight.

Landmark division, Sons of Temperance, was organized, at the First Christian church last evening. There were 43 charter members. The charter will remain open until December 1. The officers elected and installed for the new organization are as follows:

Worthy patriarch, L. C. Nease; worthy associate, Miss Jesse Cathoun; superintendent of young people, Miss Maude Steele; recording secretary, Miss Mary Willshaw; assistant recording secretary, Miss Laura Willshaw; financial secretary, Mrs. J. B. Rowe; treasurer, Miss Estella Barker; chaplain, A. G. Baxter; conductor, W. T. Ashbaugh; assistant conductor, George H. Wagner; inside sentinel, William Hoyt; outside sentinel, George Harrison.

The first session of the division will be held tonight in the Sunday school room of the First Methodist Protestant church. Many new members will be added at this meeting. At the close of the business session the national division officers will serve a banquet to the new division.

The Grand Session of Northeastern Ohio will probably be held in this city on December 1, at which time Most Worthy Patriarch of the National Division William H. Williams, of Lynn, Mass., will be present.

boy was lying across the south rail and it was evident that the wheels of both trucks had passed over his limbs.

The news of the awful accident reached the Young home before the party carrying the maimed body. Mrs. Young seemed to realize that her loved one's injuries were mortal, faint and for a time was in a very critical condition. The blow taxed her powers of endurance to the very utmost, while the other members of the family were distracted with grief. The scene at the home was most pitiable. Mrs. Marshall and Hendershot arrived at the house in a short time to assist in caring for the lad's wounds. The examination of the three physicians showed that the left leg had been run over and almost severed at three places, just above the ankle, below the knee and near the hip. The right leg was almost severed at two places, both below the knee. From the very first the physicians saw that the lad was beyond aid and that his clinging strength would not permit of this necessary operation. The left limb, which was terribly mangled, was removed. The lad then showed evidences of collapse and a short time after the end came.

The lad was conscious until the physicians administered an anesthetic and talked to the sorrowing relatives at his side. He realized that death was near and tried to comfort his weeping mother. Through most of the night the distracted mother sat at the bed and there she was found today when the many sorrowing neighbors and friends called to express their sympathy. The boy was greatly loved in his home and a favorite with all. The funeral services will be held Thursday, the arrangements to be announced later.

BRANNON ON TRIAL FOR POCKET PICKING

Sensational Robbery on a Street Car in This City the Cause of the Suit.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—James P. Brannon is on trial today for picking the pocket of Joseph Pierce, of Wellsville, in East Liverpool. Several witnesses have been examined. They testified that the robbery took place in a street car at the Diamond in East Liverpool on the evening of August 18, Brannon securing $27, which Pierce afterward recovered.

When Pierce was boarding the car Brannon jostled him and inside the car he detected Brannon in the act of robbing him. A scuffle ensued. B. L. Chandler, of East Liverpool, one of the witnesses, tried to help overpower Brannon. The latter threw his hat from the car and started to run out at the front. He escaped, but was soon apprehended by the police. The money was found hidden in the hat thrown from the car.

Goodwin, president of the Goodwin Pottery company, and the oldest member of the Goodwin family, who died in 1896, she moved to East Liverpool and lived here ever since. She was the mother of but three children, John S. and Charles F. Goodwin, both of this city, and Mrs. Alice Gilmore, of New York.

Mrs. Goodwin was a good, Christian woman and was widely known for her kind and loving disposition. To her family she was ever kind and devoted and in their hour of irreparable sorrow the sympathy of all will be with them.

SALARIES AND FEES

OF COUNTY OFFICERS

Columbus, October 13.—(Special.)—

Itemized statements showing the fees and salaries received by county officials for the year ending the first Monday in September are now being filed with the auditor of state by the county auditors. The report filed by Auditor J. Frank Adams, of Columbiana county, shows the fees and salaries of that county average about the same as those of other counties approximately the same in size. The net fees and salaries of the officers of Columbiana county, after deducting clerk hire, for the year were as follows:

Recorder, $3,085; sheriff, $4,067.61; clerk of courts, $3,852; prosecuting attorney, $3,094.96; probate judge, $2,309; county commissioners, W. K. George $1,331.80, Chris Bowman $1,398.69, Eden Reeder $1,245.79; treasurer, $3,655.15; auditor, $4,212.

The office of auditor pays best, with that of the sheriff a close second. These reports should be in the first week in October, but less than half of the auditors have complied.

MAD DOG TERRORIZES RIVER FRONT DISTRICT

THE VICIOUS BRUTE FINALLY SLAUGHTERED

Running amuck, biting at everything and everybody within its range, a dog known to hundreds of local people by the name of Rex, undoubtedly possessed of rabies, spread the wildest terror along the river beach, between Union street and Broadway, for more than an hour this morning. The frenzied animal was finally killed but not until it had caused destruction to several of the canine family, torn the clothes from one person and thrown others almost into hysterics.

Thomas Beaver, who resides in a shanty boat at the foot of Union street, was the first intended victim of the mad brute. Mr. Beaver was sitting in his boat shortly after 9 o'clock when he was surprised to see Rex, owned by his brother, Charles, who lives only a short distance farther up the beach, rush onto his boat and make a dash at another dog lying near the door.

Mr. Beaver did not realize at first that the dog was mad and dashing ran over to it with the intention of kicking it off on to the shore. He did land a blow with his foot on the dog's shoulder, which came dangerously near costing him his life. The animal, already suffering with the terrible and deadly disease, turned on Mr. Beaver and before he could escape grabbed him viciously by the trousers. Tenaciously the brute kept its hold and did not break away until it had wrenched the garment almost completely off.

While Mr. Beaver was engaged in this terrific battle other members of the family rushed to his assistance and all centered an attack on the dog finally succeeding in casting it on to the beach. Leaving this boat the animal started on another mad rush, heading for the boat of Charles Beaver. Arriving on this boat it made an attack on two little dogs, probably two months old. In a moment's time it had killed them both, grabbing them by their mouths and breaking their leads practically off. Another dog on the boat was next attacked and it was also bitten in several places, but not killed. Charles Beaver then rushed in and interfered sufficiently to get the attention of the dog turned toward other quarters.

Meantime scores of people in the vicinity were running to and fro, all at the highest pitch of excitement and all trying to provide a manner by which the animal could be dispatched. They were afraid, however, to get within its range and some one ran hastily to a telephone and summoned the police. Officers McDermott and Aufderheide answered the call but before their arrival Thomas Beaver had nerved himself to the extent of approaching the dog and with a revolver killed it.

The police learned this afternoon that the total number of dogs bitten by the mad brute is not less than nine and before evening all will be killed. It is said that every other dog in the neighborhood will be dispatched also, the belief being that all are infected with the disease.

BRIGHT YOUNG LIFE WAS CRUSHED OUT

Carr Young Dies as Result of Being Run Over by a Street Car.

TRIED TO GET ON IN FRONT

Carr, a bright little 12-year-old lad, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of First avenue, was run over by street car No. 22, Conductor Wellington and Motorman Stanley, of the East Liverpool line, and died two hours later. The terrible accident occurred at 7 o'clock last evening near the intersection of First with Pennsylvania avenue, within 100 yards of the lad's home.

Car No. 22 was bound east and had just left the Mulberry street switch. At that point to where the accident occurred it was but a short distance, and is not likely that a full speed had been attained. Following the dangerous and foolhardy habit of hundreds of lads, the little fellow attempted to jump aboard the car at the front vestibule. He stood on the south side of the car, which, east bound, placed the lad vestibule towards him. The lad caught the handle bar, but in trying to swing his body onto the car must have stumbled, for instead of reaching there he was thrown under the wheels. Not until he felt the wheels passing over the legs did Motorman Stanley, according to his own statement, know anything was amiss. Even then he did not suspect the true state of affairs, though he turned off the power stopped the car. By the time the car was brought to a stop several people saw the boy drop from the car and he was cruelly hurt. One of the bystanders hastened to the home of W. E. Mowen, a short distance from Dr. Mowen reached the spot where the body had been moved. The man was conscious and realized that he was dangerously hurt. It was so at the spot that Dr. Mowen lighted a match to look at the wounds. The Lisbon, October 13.—(Special).—George C. Gibson, of Rogers, and Miss Alice M. De Bee, of East Liverpool, have been granted a marriage license.

MANGLED REMAINS FOUND ON RAILWAY

Albert Martin, Former Well Known Newspaper Man, Run Over by Train.

A MAN OF GREAT ABILITY

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special).—Another fatality occurred here, presumably last evening. Albert W. H. Martin, of Lisbon, being cut to pieces by a Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western railroad train.

The mangled remains were found scattered along the railroad track near the lower tile works, a mile or two east of Lisbon. Thomas Crawford, who was on his way to work about 7 o'clock this morning made the discovery. Probably two trains had passed over the body before it was found.

Mr. Martin was last seen about 5 p. m., when he was starting for Kimble's dam, east of town, to spend the night fishing. He is supposed to have been run over by the incoming passenger train about an hour later, or the local freight still later. The denials of this morning prevented the crew of the early east bound passenger train seeing evidence of the accident.

The remains were scattered along the track for 40 or 50 yards in front of the office of the sewer pipe plant. They were scarcely recognizable. They were taken to Ellis' undertaking establishment after being viewed by Coroner D. J. Jones. An inquest will be held this evening.

Martin was 57 years old and a native of West Virginia. A few years ago he was a well known newspaper man in this county, coming from East Liverpool to Lisbon in 1890 as the first correspondent of the county dailies. He reported the famous Marlatt murder trial. Later he succeeded Ed A. King as editor of the Buckeye State, holding the position several years. Afterward he represented the county papers at different times, but retired from newspaper work several years ago. Before locating in East Liverpool he worked on Pittsburg dailies. He was a capable man, having graduated from a Pennsylvania college, in which he was afterward an instructor for several years.

At the outbreak of the civil war he was living in West Virginia. Although too young to enlist he saw service in the union army as a camp attaché in the regiment to which his father belonged. He was captain of J. B. Morgan camp No. 76, Sons of Veterans, of Lisbon, and the camp will attend his funeral in a body.

Mr. Martin leaves a wife and four children, Harry, Carl, Emma and Amy, all of Lisbon.

Criminal Court Deals With a Number of Violators of the Law.

SALOON MEN ARRAIGNED

A Few Are Fined And a Number Placed Under Bond for Hearing. Stock Exchange Case—Crusade Against Cigarette Selling.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special).—A large number of criminal cases were disposed of at a session of court yesterday afternoon.

John Allmon, of East Liverpool, who has been in jail charged with the non-support of his five minor children, was permitted to change his former plea to that of guilty. Evidence before the grand jury showed that Allmon has not contributed materially to the support of his family since he and his wife separated five years ago, after having lived together 10 years, although he is temperate and industrious and earns good wages. Allmon promised to do better in consideration of which Judge Hole passed the case to give Allmon an opportunity to get a bond of $1,000, which will secure a suspension of the severe penalty attaching to such offenses. It was stated in Allmon's behalf that his offense was largely due to ignorance of the law, the prisoner being extremely illiterate and unable to either read or write.

Frank A. Tremaine, of East Liverpool, pleaded not guilty to a charge of conducting a bucket shop and is held to court in $500 bond.

William Haessley, of Hanoverton, pleaded not guilty to the two counts of an indictment for forging and uttering or putting in circulation a note for $300. The note was dated Hanoverton April 1, 1893, and was drawn up in favor of J. B. Speidel and was signed by William Joseph and Abraham Haessley. The accused is held to court under $500 bond.

Cyrus, John and George Newhouse, father and two sons of Elkrun township, waived arraignment on a charge of assault and battery, pleaded not guilty and are held to court under bond of $100 each.

James Sharp, an East Liverpool habitual drunkard, got several saloonists in that city into trouble for furnishing liquor to him. For this offense Ben Schar got $30 and costs; Jacob Seitz $25 and costs; Charles Hayden $40 and costs, and John Kountz $30 and costs.

In the case of Mrs. Cornelius Smith, of East Liverpool, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, the defendant's attorney moved the indictment be quashed on the ground that it was not specific enough in stating the time of offense. The case was passed for further consideration and in the meantime the accused is under bond of $100 for her appearance.

James Derosi, an Italian saloonist who has been in business in East Liverpool four months, admitted he had sold to a minor and was fined $25 and costs.

George Wurtzell, also of East Liverpool, charged with selling to a minor, pleaded not guilty to the six indictments against him and is under bond of $300.

Calvin Bower, of East Liverpool, also pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling to a minor, and is under bond of $200.

James Nelson, of Wellsville, waived an arraignment for selling on Sunday and his bond is $200.

William Savors, of Wellsville, whom there are three indictments for keeping open and selling on Sunday, pleaded not guilty and is under bond of $300.

Thomas Ford, of Wellsville, admitted he had kept open and sold on Sunday and was fined $60 and costs.

Judge Hole, in pronouncing sentence, said there is possibly some excuse for saloonists selling to minors and habituals occasionally when they are imposed upon, but there is no excuse for neglecting to note when the first day of the week comes around.

Peter Wallom, charged with interfering with electric light wires in Wellsville, pleaded not guilty and gave bond for $200.

Edward Bennett, of Lisbon, pleaded guilty to one indictment for selling cigarettes to a boy under 18. He was fined $15 and costs. Two other indictments against Bennett for the same offense.

A GREAT OIL WELL BACK OF EMPIRE

Flowing About 130 Barrels a Day And Causing Great Excitement.

Empire, October 13.—(Special).—Oil excitement is at fever heat out at Sugar Grove, back two miles from Empire, on the farm of Rufus Wilcox. The excitement is due to the extraordinary flow of oil made by the well after being shot on Saturday last. Since that time the well has been making about 130 barrels every 24 hours.

Large bonuses are being offered by oil men anxious to get into the field. Those owning the adjacent farms are in a quandary what to do. They are afraid they won't ask enough, and thus the merry war goes on.

ENGINEERS' STRIKE HAS BEEN SETTLED

WHERE SCALE IS SIGNED

One of the shortest strikes ever conducted in East Liverpool and successful from the unionists' standpoint, was brought to a close late this afternoon, when terms were agreed upon between the manufacturing potters and the members of the International Union of Steam Engineers, whereby the scale of the union will be universally signed.

The fight, which was inaugurated at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, was for recognition of the union. This the factory owners at first refused to do, but have now reconsidered. The scale as originally presented has been changed slightly, but still provides for everything asked by the union in the beginning. The committee originally appointed by the manufacturers' association has refused to treat with the men.

Other interested factory owners asked for a conference with the strikers this morning, and it was granted. At that time the altered proposition was presented by the manufacturers, and taken back to the union at a meeting this afternoon. There it was ratified, and the committee instructed to carry the findings to the potters' association in session in the postoffice block at 3 o'clock.

The engine rooms of a few plants are presided over by men who are not members of the International, and therefore are still being operated. When the trouble was inaugurated an effort was made to ascertain whether or not the engineers could expect the support of the Brotherhood. At the headquarters of the latter organization it was learned that no official support could possibly be given, owing to existing agreements with the manufacturers.

There are 11 members of the organization known as the National Association of Stationary Engineers now in the city, and it is from them the strikers say they are receiving the hardest knocks. The association is purely an educational one, and its members are pledged by the constitution to refrain from entering any movement having for its object the demanding of more wages or better conditions. They are not permitted to take part in any controversy with their employers, and the clause is being carried out to the letter in the present instance.

These men, the strikers say, have steadily refused to join the International, and are of course at work. In case the union is victorious and the members succeed in enforcing the provisions of the first section of the scale which calls for the employment of only engineers affiliated with the International, it is probable these N. A. S. E. men will be taken into the bona fide union.

There is a phase of the present strike which has not yet been generally discussed, but promises to have an airing in every local in the city. The question is that involving the duty of one unionist toward the other, and will undoubtedly find its way to the central labor union and probably to the American Federation of Labor. The International Union of Steam Engineers is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. So is the American Federation of Musicians. Both of these organizations have branches in this city. The former is

STRUCK RAILWAY TORPEDO WITH A HATCHET

Ignorant of its destructiveness, believing it to be only a producer of loud noise, little Lillie Clunk, the 10-year-old daughter of Frank Clunk, a kiln hand employed in the glost end at the George C. Murphy pottery, seized a hatchet yesterday afternoon at about 1 o'clock and struck, with all the force she possessed, a torpedo, the kind used as a warning on railroads. As a result she lies at her home in Newell, opposite the city, in an extremely critical condition.

The injured child, accompanied by her sister, Olive, aged 4, and a DeBee girl, was at play when the trio were attracted to the torpedo. Some say that they found it on the railroad track which runs close by their home, but the father stated this morning that the explosive was discovered by the children in a woodshed at the rear of the home. At any rate, after finding the torpedo, Lillie, knowing that it would make fun for them all to destroy it, proposed that they get a hatchet and smash it.

All agreed and the miniature bomb-hell was placed on a large chunk of coal. Lillie then took the hatchet and while her playmates were standing in joyful anticipation of hearing "a great big noise" she raised her little arm and innocently struck the torpedo.

With a crash that could be heard for blocks the shell burst and immediately following the happiness of the trio changed to that of utter fright, now involved in a strike, and it is claimed by the members that a man belonging to the musical union is now at work, and what is more, refuses steadily to go out.

This man is said by the strikers to have antagonized the union at every turn, and not only refused to affiliate with the engineers' union, but remains at work in spite of the influence brought to bear by the strikers. It is an old contention among the unionists of this city that every member of the musicians' union should be connected with the trades union in which he earns his livelihood. In many instances this has been disregarded, but in regard to the present case the engineers say they are determined to bring the matter to a head. No definite plan has been decided upon, but it is certain the question will be brought to the attention of the Trades and Labor Council, and may be carried to the highest tribunal, which is the American Federation of Labor.

It is the opinion of those interested in the labor movement in this city that the sooner the musicians' question is settled once for all the better it will be for the cause in East Liverpool. There has been more or less trouble of this character ever since the musicians have been organized, and it is likely a decision will be asked from the American Federation of Labor.

HER SUFFERINGS END PEACEFULLY

Mrs. James H. Goodwin Died at Clifton Springs, N. Y., This Morning.

A MUCH HONORED LADY

The entire community was keenly shocked this afternoon when the sad news reached the city of the death of Mrs. Mary L. Goodwin, widow of the late James H. Goodwin, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., where she had been taking treatment in a sanitarium for months. The direct cause of Mrs. Goodwin's death was the result of an operation performed on Saturday, October 3.

Mrs. Goodwin had been a sufferer, almost an invalid, for years, and was taken to Clifton Springs early last summer. After a course of treatment, the best to be procured in the country, and after her physical condition had improved sufficient to warrant it, the physicians at the sanitarium decided to subject the sufferer to an operation. Upon the date set for the ordeal the members of the family arrived at her bedside and all were joyful when she revived from its effects.

Mrs. Goodwin commenced to improve rapidly and on last Saturday, her sons, John S. and Charles F., were so confident of her ultimate recovery that they returned to their homes in this city. They received a telegram yesterday afternoon stating that their mother had developed a sinking spell and both left on the first train for her bedside. They arrived in time to see her alive, the death angel claiming her at 9 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Alice Gilmore, her only daughter, was also at the bedside.

Relatives of Mrs. Goodwin in this city were not prepared this afternoon to announce the day and hour of the funeral, but the remains, accompanied by the three surviving children, will arrive in the city some time tomorrow and the funeral will be held at the home of John S. Goodwin, East Fifth street. Rev. Dr. Pratt, pastor of the First M. E. church, of which Mrs.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW BUILDING COMPLETED.

The new building to take the place of the one destroyed by fire at the Ironside brick works of the Standard Brick company has just been completed. The new structure is 50 feet by 80 feet, two stories high, is of frame construction and is like the original building, which was also new, having been completed but two months before the fire occurred. The first floor is taken up with the brick machinery and the upper one is used for a drying room. The engine and boilers are housed in a separate building. It is understood none of the machinery was injured to any great extent. This, however, has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and is now in readiness again for operation.

POTTERS LEAVING.

Potters continue to leave the city for Cameron, Coshocton, Crooksville and other cities where plants are being placed in operation. During the past few weeks 50 potters and their families have departed, and this condition will prevail until all those who accepted out-of-town jobs are gone. The city is not the loser to any great extent, as the places of the departing ones are easily filled. In spite of the exodus desirable houses, particularly small ones, are difficult to find and the demand is in excess of the supply. Many people who had to take just what was at hand when they reached the city are taking advantage of the situation by finding more desirable quarters.

FELL IN A KILN.

William Arb, one of the kilnmen at the Burford plant, was painfully injured last yesterday afternoon and will be confined to his home for a number of days. Arb was placing the top sagger on the bung when he lost his balance and fell from the stairs to the bottom of the kiln, a distance of about

While badly bruised and stunned there were no bones broken and Arb was taken to his home in the patrol, while medical aid was being summoned. Dr. Hobbs cared for the injuries, which consist of a number of contusions and bruises about the shoulders and breast.

DECORATORS WORKING.

The decorating departments of the local plants will in most instances be the last affected by the strike of the engineers. The operatives will be compelled to stop, however, if the strike continues for any length of time. Those in the decorating departments had been enjoying the best run of work in several months and most of them were sorry to see an interruption. The fall season is by far the best for the decorators, owing to the great demand for all decorated lines as holiday gifts.

BREWER STORY REVIVED.

The story is again revived at Tiffin that Col. Albert Brewer, formerly a wealthy potter, who was supposed to have died and been buried last May, is not dead. The whole story was published in the News Review months ago. Brewer, at the time of his reported death, was awaiting trial for killing Luther Hershey, a farm hand, in a quarrel. It is alleged that a corpse was substituted and that Brewer is living in some distant region. His friends take no stock in the tale.

KILNDRAWERS' DISPUTE.

Owing to a dispute between the kilndrawers and Manager Menor, at the Union, one of the kilns, partly drawn, was allowed to remain over Sunday, the men refusing to finish the work under the terms offered them. The difficulty may be submitted to the arbitration board for settlement. The dispute has occasioned a loss of time in several other departments.

NOVELTIES IN JARS.

Porcelain cracker jars have become quite a fad and several local plants have made a special effort to offer attractive designs. The jars for the most part afford a wide range for decoration and some of the designs are really meritorious. A great run on them will be experienced from now until the holidays.

ANARCHISTS CLASH WITH POLICE
 Many Sentenced to Imprisonment, Including Their Leader.
 San Juan, Oct. 13.—Governor Hunt returned from Ponce, where he attended a banquet in celebration of the extension of American railways in the island. He was everywhere received with demonstrations of confidence and esteem. During the governor's absence the anti-American socialists and anarchists had a clash with the police on the plaza of this city. Forty arrests were made and many of the prisoners were convicted and sentenced to six months' imprisonment, including the anarchist, Conde, who was recently convicted of insulting the American flag.

Americans here are particularly incensed at the carrying of black and red flags and a craped American flag by a mob Sunday as an incitement to disorder. Conde delivered a very offensive harangue, in which he approved of the mob resorting to bloodshed if necessary.
 The Americans demanded the punishment of all the dangerous socialists and are overwhelming Governor Hunt with assurances of support in a vigorous campaign to uphold law and order. They urge that an immediate death blow be given to anarchy.
Eye Witness of Kishinev Horrors.
 Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 13.—After a journey of six weeks Mrs. Esther Steinberg and her three children who were hidden in the cellar of a Christian home for three days during the Kishinev massacre in Russia, have arrived in Des Moines to join Mr. Steinberg. Mrs. Steinberg brought pictures taken after the worst of the massacre and confirms all of the stories of horror. She says the reports were mild compared with the awful facts. She saw a woman with a spike driven into her skull, women disemboweled and hot pitch poured into their wounds, and men and women slashed and crushed and left lying in the streets.
 Schwab Will Appear as Witness.
 New York, Oct. 13.—Attorney Gurrie, who is representing Charles M. Schwab at the hearing in the recent investigation of the affairs of the United States Shipbuilding company, has not yet fully recovered from the injuries received while riding a few days ago and at a conference between the counsel in the case a postponement until Wednesday was decided upon. Announcement also was made that Mr. Guthrie had agreed to produce Mr. Schwab as a witness when over required without the necessity of serving a process directing him to attend.

 Lowered Automobile Record.
 London, Oct. 13.—The Hon. C. S. Rolls, officially timed, lowered the world's kilometer record at the duke of Portland's private park, using a specially built 110-horse power machine. His time was 26 2/5 seconds.

Cuba's imports in the calendar year 1902 were less than in any preceding year since the war.

Her exports were, however, greater, reaching for the first time an excess over imports.

The share of this trade which the United States has secured, both in imports and in exports, has been declining during the period.

These significant facts appear in a report on Commercial Cuba published in the last number of the government summary of statistics.

They serve to emphasize more than ever the importance of favorable action by congress at the coming special session upon the reciprocity treaty with Cuba.

The latest street car accident emphasizes the necessity of impressing upon the minds of both old and young the fact that moving street cars are dangerous and should be avoided rather than run after.

"To talk tariff revision at this time is to talk nonsense," says Congressman Dalzell, of Pittsburg. The Republican majority in congress is likely to endorse the sentiment almost unanimously.

Morgan says he was not to receive a rake-off from the sale of the Bethlehem steel mills. A large number of other gentlemen who are commonly supposed to be in positions to know say he was. But perhaps a transaction in which a mere $30,000,000 or $40,000,000 was involved was so small that it slipped from Mr. Morgan's memory.

President Roosevelt's cordial commendation of Senator Hanna must be disappointing to those Democrats who have been harping upon an imaginary breach between the two.

The voters of Ohio are making up their minds that Tom Johnson deserves nothing at their hands and will make his defeat decisive.

Tom L. Johnson denies that he is a socialist, but he does not deny that he believes in Henry Georgeism, and that is socialism.

The oriental skies will doubtless be clearer after the war cloud passes. The world is hoping it may pass without bursting.

It looks as if the Pittsburg ball players have been too much afflicted with the pride which goeth before a fall.

New Castle, Pa., with 35,000 inhabitants, pays its mayor $1,000 a year, and is getting ashamed to own it.

"Rube" Waddell is on the stage. Hitherto he has proved a bad actor when off the diamond.

Bryan threatens another visit to Ohio. It might pay Johnson to pay him to stay away.

IMPROVED APPEARANCE OF BANK BUILDING

The Citizens' National Bank Has Some Artistic Work Done on Its Windows.

Every ready and noticeably zealous to add improvements to the general appearance of their already beautiful apartments on Washington street, the officials of the Citizens' National bank are now having the elegant plate glass facing the street beautified by artistic lettering in gold. The work is being done by A. Judson McCain, the well known sign painter.

Passersby are all attracted by the improvement and all agree that its beautifying effect was wonderful, the tint of gold corresponding admirably with the surrounding adornment. The letters compose the words: "Citizens' National Bank" in the first line; "Capital Stock, $100,000," second line; "Surplus, $50,000," third line, and "United States Depository" the fourth line.

Blending perfectly as they do, the letters embellish the artistic surroundings and will catch the eye of every one passing.

AT THE THEATER

The attraction announced for next Saturday night is the powerful Russian melodrama, "For Her Sake," which has already had one very successful season, and now comes to us in an entirely new dress, having been rewritten and novel and effective situations added. The present prominence of the czar's government in the Chinese business tends to arouse interest in plays dealing with Russian military life, and this of itself will doubtless assure large audiences during the coming engagement.

At the Grand tonight that charming pastoral play, "York State Folks," which made such a favorable impression with those who were fortunate enough to witness it at its last visit, will be presented with the same great cast and magnificent scenery. "York State Folks" without doubt is the best play of its kind that has ever been offered, and it is a play that is destined to have a long and successful career.

"When the Bell Tolls," which will be given at the Grand on Friday night. One of the most effective scenes in this successful production is a completely darkened room in which the entire action of a stirring episode takes place in the condensed, but brilliant ray of a bicycle lantern. This effect is original in "When the Bell Tolls." The play is full of novel features and the plot is intensely interesting.

In old Georgia, land of cotton and the luscious watermelon, is situated the romantic story, "The Old Plantation." A series of stirring dramatic situations and startling climaxes, combined with the strongest of heart interest, are the features of this beautiful play. At the Grand opera house Thursday evening.

Quinlan & Wall's minstrels gave a fine show to a crowded house at the Grand last evening. It was full of originality and fun and delightful from start to finish. The singing was excellent and the special acts furnished refreshing novelties. Jimmy Wall's topical song made a great hit. About 40 members of the order of Eagles attended in a body.

MRS. UHLWARM IS NOT FOUND

Report of Her Being Seen in East End Leads to Diligent Search.

MANY ARE IN THE HUNT

Efforts Thus Far Futile But the Searchers Are Greatly Encouraged and Hope to Find the Unfortunate Woman Alive.

Through the long hours of last night the Columbian park neighborhood was searched by the anxious relatives of Mrs. Max Uhlwarm, who has been strangely missing from her home near Ralston's crossing since Saturday night. The search was instituted at the park through a clue developed at the East End fire station and while it proved fruitless last night the searchers did not lose heart and with augmented forces returned to the work this morning.

The clue was obtained by Captain Terrence through the conversation of some callers at the fire station. They mentioned the fact that on Sunday night Will Price and "Cooney" Goodballet, the crew on an east bound street car, had to remove a woman from the track. While no accurate description was given, Captain Terrence connected the incident with the disappearance of Mrs. Uhlwarm.

A short time later this theory was strengthened by the statement of two well known young men of the East End, Ira Farrell and John Arnold. They were sitting on a stone wall near the park at about 9 o'clock Sunday night, when they saw a woman walking eastward along the street car track. As she passed beneath an electric light they could see that she wore a red wrapper and a plaid shawl. Her appearance aroused their curiosity and they observed her more closely. One of them recognized her to be a woman whom he had seen in the neighborhood of Ralston's crossing. He was not personally acquainted with Mrs. Uhlwarm, however.

The husband and relatives of the missing woman were notified of this clue and immediately started to work on it. While the belief had been strong during the first few days of her absence that Mrs. Uhlwarm, while suffering from dementia, had sought death in the waters of the Ohio, the later clue has altered this belief and it is now the belief and the hope that she is somewhere in the vicinity of Columbian park.

The searchers last night encountered many difficulties, owing to the darkness and it was impossible for them to get over a great deal of territory. The lanterns they carried were of small assistance and had Mrs. Uhlwarm's dementia taken this turn, the lights would have warned her of the approach of searchers. The distress of the husband, Max Uhlwarm, is growing greater every hour. Now that there is hope that she is still alive, he will prosecute the search fever without a moment's delay, realizing that every hour of her roaming through the woods will add to her illness.

Mr. Uhlwarm, his brother and Theodore and Henry Konig, who formed the original searching party, were joined this morning by quite a number of potters from the East End plants. The searchers will first search through the Columbian park neighborhood and the territory north of Pennsylvania avenue. The nature of the ground is such as to afford many hiding places. The territory will be extended as rapidly as possible as Mrs. Uhlwarm has had time, since she was seen Sunday night, to get many miles away.

A report this afternoon that Mrs. Uhlwarm had been found, could not be confirmed. At a late hour the searchers had not returned.

fense were nollled.

William J. Frazier, pleaded guilty to a like offense, but a fine of $25 was suspended during good behavior. It was represented in his behalf that the lad had sold cigarette tobacco innocently while in charge of Alonzo Riddle's cigar stand, the proprietor having gone away several months ago without giving the boy instructions.

Joe Lococo, against whom were four indictments for selling cigarettes, pleaded not guilty and was placed under bond of $100.

Regarding these cases, Prosecutor Brookes said the cigarette habit had grown to such proportions in Lisbon that the grand jury decided upon harsh measures to stop the pernicious practice.

In the case of Edward Crawford, jointly indicted with Roddy McAllister for the theft of $19 from Gus Zelle, a Salem saloonist, Crawford was permitted to change his plea to guilty. He has been in jail five weeks and Judge Hole sentenced him to 30 days more. McAllister, who was apprehended Saturday night, waived an arraignment and entered a plea of not guilty. He is in jail and his bond was fixed at $100. The evidence showed these men were in Zelle's saloon while the proprietor was away, and when the boy's attention was diverted stole the money that had been taken in that day from a cupboard. Crawford and his companion were seen in the street with the money and their lavish expenditure of change led to their detection and the arrest of Crawford, who said his home was in Pittsburg and that he had been in the employ of the McGinty Construction company, which is extending the Stark Electrical railway.

Barbara Barth, of East Liverpool, charged with assault and battery, waived arraignment, pleaded not guilty and is held to court in a bond of $100.

Howard Pickering, who was implicated with Nick Murray and others in the theft of several bottles of whiskey from a car in East Liverpool, got 30 days in jail. The stolen whiskey had been consigned to D. A. Strayer. Had the evidence shown that Pickering and his companion broke into the car they would have got at least five years in the penitentiary.

Clarence Sharp, a Wellsville saloonist, charged with selling on Sunday, pleaded not guilty and his case will be up for a hearing next week.

John Roessler, of Salem, charged with selling liquor in a prohibition township, was arraigned this morning, pleaded not guilty and was placed under $100 bond for his appearance.

WELLSVILLE

THE OLD RELIABLE

AN OIL STRIKE
NEAR HAMMONDSVILLE

George A. Frink, of Wellsville, Has a Promising Well and Will Drill More.

George A. Frink, of this city, has struck a good grade of oil on his farm near Hammondsville and now has a well producing about 10 barrels a day with prospects of becoming a 20 barrel producer. This well was drilled in last Saturday evening at a depth of 365 feet in salt sand. Mr. Frink states that the well is also producing a strong head of gas and he is satisfied that he has made a good find.

This is the second well that has been drilled in on the Frink farm, the well having proven a slight producer. Mr. Frink will probably drill the new well into the Berea sand, as he has made a good showing in drilling into the salt sand. A pipe line runs within three-fourths of a mile of his farm and will be extended to the new well at once.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Will Engage City Council's Attention At An Adjourned Meeting This Evening.

The adjourned meeting of city council which was decided upon at the meeting last Tuesday, will be held this evening, and judging from the amount of unfinished business left over from the meeting last week and the amount of new business which has come up since, a lengthy session is looked for. Among other important matters, the city clerk will probably dig up the old ordinance providing for the paving and otherwise improving of Highland avenue, an ordinance which was tabled by council some time ago, for some unknown reason. An effort will be made to put this ordinance through at once so that the paving can be done before the extreme cold weather sets in. This ordinance no doubt will meet with the approval of all of the councilmen, as it provides that each property owner on the street will pay $2 per front foot for the cost of putting his property. This property owners have already agreed to, and have further urged the promotion of the improvement.

NATURE'S OWN CURE

Hymel Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hymel was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known. This remedy is breathed through the Hymel Inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hymel. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other diseases and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hymel not only kills the germs in the throat and nose, but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It frees the mucous membrane from poisonous mucus and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1, and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hymel for several weeks' treatment.

Will Reed has so much faith in the merit of Hymel that he agrees to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

DEATH DUST
Roaches.

A big black roach, is a big, mean nuisance; and the sooner they are driven out or killed, the better. They not only eat food and spoil infinitely more than they eat, but they destroy many fine things, such as book covers, etc. Numerous are the ways and means employed to rid premises and places of them but without permanent result.

The very best thing to kill roaches is Death Dust.

It kills them in their tracks before they reach their haunts. Sprinkle it freely about the places they are seen. They breathe it and DIE. Just what every good housekeeper wants them to do.

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD

Holds a Short Session And Acts on the Question of Gas Connections.

The board of public service held a short session this morning and instructed the clerk to issue permits to all parties desiring to make gas connections with residences. It also instructed him to pay a bill of $64 for a lawn mower for use in the cemetery.

The board authorized the building of a bridge in the West End from Maple avenue to Clark avenue, extending over McQueen's run. This is an improvement which has long been needed.

The clerk was instructed to forward to council an itemized statement of the expenses of refitting the postoffice room in the city building and this statement will be presented to council at the meeting this evening. The board adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

Funeral of Mrs. Golden.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia A. Golden, who died at her home on Fifteenth street last Sunday evening, was held at the late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. W. C. Burial took place in Spring Hill cemetery.

Funeral This Afternoon.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Haines, who died at her home on Nevada street early yesterday morning, was held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the late home. Rev. W. C. Prewitt, pastor of the Christian church, of which she was a prominent member, officiated. Interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery.

No Quorum Present.

On account of the lack of a quorum, the board of education failed to get together last evening, their regular meeting night, and no meeting was held. There was considerable business on hand, and it is believed that a special meeting will be called within a few days to dispose of this business.

WILL CONTINUE WITH PROSPECTING

JOHN WEBSTER WILL THOROUGHLY TEST THE OIL FIELDS.

Has Secured a Lease on 350 Acres and Engaged a Driller.

Becoming weary at what he characterizes the unnecessary dilly-dally of the members of the company and feeling certain there is something to be gained by the further development of the field, John Webster, one of the most progressive citizens of Chester, has determined to take up the prospecting where it was left off by the Chester Oil and Gas company, and will begin drilling in the territory at once.

Mr. Webster did his best to interest the members of the company in the further investigation of the land leased by the company some time ago, but his efforts were without result. Last week he went to the old Hadley farm, southeast of Chester, and spent some time in securing leases. When the task was finished it was learned he had secured the right to prospect on about 350 acres of land. It is Mr. Webster's intention to give the territory a thorough test and work will begin at once. Expert Hyte has been engaged to do the drilling and will move the drilling apparatus to the ground this week.

The oil rig and other drilling apparatus which has been in use at the Enoch Allison farm, near Chester, was removed yesterday and will be placed in position at the James Murray property in Chester at once.

Stewart Bros. did the drilling at the Allison well and it came in a gasser. It is thought Mr. Allison will have sufficient gas for his private needs, and with that idea uppermost he has purchased the casing that was in use at the well and will connect his residence and outbuilding with the well without delay. Mr. Murray, who will experiment right in Chester, is an old oil man, and will pursue the experiments in his own locality with the sole purpose of obtaining a sufficient supply of gas to meet the demands of the fine new establishment he proposes to erect there.

George Howells and Al McDonald left Chester this morning for a prospecting trip in the vicinity of Hookstown. These men are known to be vitally interested in the oil and gas business, and it is presumed that they will have taken up leases on several hundred acres of land before returning to Chester.

Sale of Chester Grocery.

According to the decision of the court, the Chester Grocery company's possessions will be sold to the highest bidder this afternoon. The establishment is one of the oldest in the town, and as long as it was under the control of George A. Ayner, was one of the most prosperous in the community. Within the past few months, however, it has been in the possession of several different people and its prestige and importance has been on the wane. There are known to be a number of bids already on file, and the controversy will be spirited.

SHREWD WORK DONE
BY A DETECTIVE

Conclusive Evidence Said to Have Been Gathered Against Toronto Saloon Men.

New Cumberland, October 14.—(Special.)—The latest developments in the arrest and holding for the grand jury of Joe Fisco, the Toronto saloon keeper, is that a United States detective and three or four assistants, who are Slav and Italian linguists, have been in New Cumberland and vicinity for about two weeks and have so completely worked up their case that they have evidence sufficient to make conviction sure. Their method of securing testimony was to send a telephone message from here for a quart of whisky to the saloon keeper at Toronto, and when it was delivered a check was given in payment and the man, to secure his money, indorsed the check and it was secured by the detective.

There does not seem to be a shadow of a chance to get out of it, the evidence is so conclusive. Before it is all over there will be others drawn into it, as some speakasies are said to have jumped at the bait. When court convenes next month there will be a hot time.

BANK OPENING

Cashier Allison Formally Announces That It Will Take Place Thursday.

In order that the residents of Chester may know that the directors of the First National bank of Chester proposes to open its doors for business on Thursday morning, the following circular has been issued and is today being distributed throughout the town:

"Opening: First National bank, Chester, W. Va.; the citizens of Chester are cordially invited to call at our banking house on Thursday, October 15, to attend the opening of our new bank; bank will be open on that date from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. O. O. Allison, cashier."

JOHN CONSIDINE IS FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Highway Robbery in Stealing H. O. Sampsell's Money.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—

The case of Ohio against John Considine, of East Liverpool, charged with highway robbery, came on for trial before a jury late yesterday afternoon. A verdict of guilty was returned just before court adjourned. Considine's attorney, H. E. Grosshans, of East Liverpool, gave notice of a motion for a new trial, and the court deferred passing sentence until that matter is decided.

Considine was found guilty as charged of having forcibly taken $22 from H. O. Sampsell, a collector for the Pittsburg Fraternal League. The robbery took place on July 7 last along the C. & P. railroad tracks near the C. C. Thompson pottery in East Liverpool. According to Sampsell's story on the witness stand he is a collector for a Pittsburg insurance company and on the afternoon of the robbery had business in the East End, East Liverpool. He said he stopped at a spring along the railroad and was comparing the figures in his account book and the amount of cash he had on hand. He was about to return a roll of money to his pocketbook when he was suddenly seized from behind and his assailant shouted fiercely: "Drop that."

Sampsell said he was so frightened that he relaxed his grip on the bills, and turning saw Considine start to run with the money. Sampsell called for help and gave chase and a couple of young men, Edward Kelly and Joseph Gwinn, attracted by Sampsell's cries, overhauled Considine at a distance of 200 or 300 yards and held him until the patrol wagon and several officers arrived and took him in charge.

Sampsell said he had never seen Considine before the robbery, and that he had not been drinking. The testimony of the witnesses, Kelly and Gwinn, Officer Bryan and Lettie Wickensham, proprietress of the National house, showed that the two men had been much in each other's company on the day of the robbery, had been drinking and were intoxicated. Kelly and Gwinn had seen the men together in an apparently intoxicated condition but a few minutes before Sampsell's cries attracted them to a point from which they saw Considine commit the robbery. Seventeen dollars of the money taken by the thief was recovered and returned to Sampsell. Considine was in the employ of the Chas. A. Sims company, the railroad grading contractors, who have been working in the vicinity of East Liverpool, and had borne a good reputation, although somewhat addicted to drink.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE HAVE ORGANIZED

Division Formed in This City and Officers Chosen—Meeting Tonight.

Landmark division, Sons of Temperance, was organized, at the First Christian church last evening. There were 43 charter members. The charter will remain open until December 1. The officers elected and installed for the new organization are as follows:

Worthy patriarch, L. C. Nease; worthy associate, Miss Jesse Calhoun; superintendent of young people, Miss Maude Steele; recording secretary, Miss Mary Willshaw; assistant recording secretary, Miss Laura Willshaw; financial secretary, Mrs. J. B. Rowe; treasurer, Miss Estella Barker; chaplain, A. G. Baxter; conductor, W. T. Ashbaugh; assistant conductor, George H. Wagner; inside sentinel, William Hoyt; outside sentinel, George Harrison.

The first session of the division will be held tonight in the Sunday school room of the First Methodist Protestant church. Many new members will be added at this meeting. At the close of the business session the national division officers will serve a banquet to the new division.

The Grand Session of Northeastern Ohio will probably be held in this city on December 1, at which time Most Worthy Patriarch of the National Division William H. Williams, of Lynn, Mass., will be present.

FLOOD HAS SUBSIDED

Inundated Districts Coming to Realization of Extent of Devastation.

DAMAGE AMOUNTS TO MILLIONS

Hundreds Still Homeless and in Distress—No Additional Fatalities Reported—Traffic Resumed on Railroad Lines Entering New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—With the receding of the floods, reported from all quarters, Paterson, Passaic and the other water swept New Jersey towns are relieved of further peril and are beginning now to get a clear idea of the extent of the devastation.

In Paterson alone the damage to property is estimated at $2,000,000, without taking account of the loss in wages to the thousands who have been temporarily deprived of occupation by the shutting down of factories.

The water was reported to have fallen four feet below the highest mark and the only possible source of damage would be the bursting of the great water mains which were undermined by the flood. The distress continues great and fully 500 persons were still compelled to seek food and shelter in the army. No additional fatalities were reported throughout the day.

In Passaic the damage is estimated to be at least equal to that in Paterson.

Many adjacent villages were still under water, but with the falling of the waters all danger of a collapse of the great Dundee dam was declared to be past.

Traffic was resumed on all the railroad lines entering New York with the exception of the local service on the main line of the Erie. The milk famine in the city was broken by the arrival of the usual number of milk trains on the West Shore, New York Central and other roads.

NEWSPAPER WRITER DEAD.

Pioneer Resident of Wellsburg—Helped Organize State of West Virginia.

Wellsburg, W. Va., Oct. 13.—John Gabriel Jacob, a pioneer resident of Wellsburg, and one of the most widely known newspaper writers of the state, is dead at his home, Wellsburg, aged 71 years. On Saturday evening he was taken ill with pneumonia, and this, coupled, it is thought, with the shock of the death of his wife on Friday, Oct. 2, resulted in his own demise.

Mr. Jacob in 1848 took charge of the Wellsburg Herald, and through its columns during the troubled days before the war wielded an influence against slavery that was widely felt, bringing upon him the bitterest opposition among the slavery leaders. He was one of the strongest advocates for the making of a new state out of the western portion of Virginia and did much of the work of organizing the new state after its separation. He was a Republican in politics.

Situation Causes No Alarm.
Washington, Oct. 13.—At the Russian embassy the officials are not alarmed over the situation in the far east. The view held there is that neither Russia nor Japan desires war, though both may be making preparations to that end, and that there is really no question at issue which cannot be settled without recourse to arms, provided the negotiating parties are disposed to use diplomacy rather than the sword. The embassy has received no advices from St. Petersburg for more than two weeks.

Mahoning Valley Furnaces Closing.
Youngstown, O., Oct. 13.—In compliance with the agreement of the furnace operators to close down for the purpose of restricting the production of pig iron, the Laura furnace at Hazlet, owned by the Republic Iron and Steel company, closed down. Other furnaces in the Mahoning valley are making preparations to close and indications are that the agreement will be carried out to the letter.

Yellow Fever Increasing.
Laredo, Tex., Oct. 13.—During the past 24 hours there has been a larger number of yellow fever cases than on any day since the outbreak of the epidemic. A report from Nuevo Laredo, Mex., says that the condition of United States Consul Alfonso B. Garrett is much improved. Reports from Monterey covering the past week indicate that affairs have taken a serious turn.

Archbishop Near Death's Door.
Baltimore, Oct. 13.—Archbishop John Joseph Kain, of St. Louis, who is a patient at St. Agnes' sanitarium, was reported at midnight to be in a state of coma. His death is expected at any hour by those in attendance upon him.

Husband and Wife Go Gas Route.
Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13.—Bernard and Anna Schultz, husband and wife, committed suicide at their home by inhaling illuminating gas. Continued ill health is ascribed for the act.

Animal Trainer Boone Dead.
San Francisco, Oct. 13.—Colonel Daniel E. Boone, a celebrated circus manager and trainer of wild animals, is dead, after a long illness, aged 62 years. He was born in Kentucky.

Duck Hunter Shot.
Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 13.—George Dumas, aged 19 years, of Royaltown, was fatally shot while duck shooting in the Susquehanna river near his home.

REALM OF SPORTS

MUCH TALK OF A MATCH BETWEEN LOCAL HORSES

A Trial of Speed Between La France and Wood Girl Is Proposed.

There is considerable talk of a match between two local horses, La France, owned by Harrison Rinehart, and Wood Girl, owned by C. A. Smith. No definite arrangements have been made for the meet, but it is expected and wished that it will take place in Columbian park before the end of the month.

As is well known both horses are about the best of their class in the country, with Wood Girl slightly in the lead. Both have won some fast races and a match between them would give local lovers of horse flesh a grand opportunity of witnessing a heated contest.

La France made an excellent record at Johnstown last week and earlier in the season she demonstrated beyond a possible doubt just what she is worth.

Wood Girl is conceded to be the best mare in this section. Her backers say they will place her against anything in the 2:22 class and will stake their lives on her as a winner. A record of her victories has been published in the News Review.

Local sports would rather see a race between this pair of beauties than any other event that could be pulled off in the city. There are several reasons why it would be a great hit, but one in particular. All will remember the great race between Tewksbury, owned by C. A. Smith, and Redmond, owned by Harrison Rinehart. The horses were backed heavily and Redmond won in a walk. Sports say that the victory this year will be landed by the Smith horse and the backers of Wood Girl will be heavily on her, but it is the same with the admirers of La France, consequently the extraordinary interest.

BOWLING LEAGUE HAS BEEN FORMED

Four Teams Organized for Contests During the Winter Season.

Messrs. McDonald and Williams, purchasers of the Imperial bowling alley, Washington street, are arranging for some genuine sport for the coming winter. Realizing that interest in bowling will pick up greatly during the next few weeks, cool weather having that effect, the new managers have a plan by which they expect to start the sport as early as possible.

It will be recalled that last year a bowling league, consisting of a half dozen teams, played on the alleys regularly and that interest was undying. The new owners intend to profit by the experience of Charles Craig, from whom they bought the alley, and have already formed four teams and scheduled some games.

Each team is composed of five members as follows:
First Team—Carl Clark, captain; Otto Powell, Elmer Rose, Clyde Litton, Harry Logan.

Second Team—George Rigby, captain; Walter Durkee, Hartie Evan, itke, William Powell, Charles Glickner.

Third Team—William Kearns, captain; Frank Williams, Orlando Shultz, C. W. Rayl, Earl Brunt.

Fourth Team—Harry Wood, captain; W. H. Gass, Harry Treese, Ray Benck, Edwin Heddlston.

HIGH SCHOOLS WILL PLAY TOMORROW

Hundreds of Pupils, Wearing Blue and White, Will Cheer the Local Eleven.

Cheered by hundreds of loyal rooters, the East Liverpool High school football team will battle with the Wellsville High school eleven on the West End park gridiron tomorrow afternoon. If the day is fair hundreds of school boys and girls wearing the blue and white of the high school will be at the park to encourage their favorites. This is the return game, the local eleven having defeated Wellsville a short time ago by the score of 10 to 0.

To prevent the squabble that occurred at the first game over the attempt of the Wellsville team to play a number of "ringers," a sum of $10 has been posted by each side to be forfeited in case any bona fide members of the two high schools are played. One exception is made in favor of Wellsville, it having been agreed that Culbertson, objected to at the first game, is to play. Culbertson is one of the best players in this section weight considered, but he did not accomplish much in the Wellsville game.

Captain Mountford will lead in the same lineup, with the exception of Bridge, and unless Wellsville has

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice-President Milwaukee, Wis., Business Woman's Association, is another one of the million women who have been restored to health by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was married for several years and no children blessed my home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. He tried to cure me, but after experimenting for several months, my husband became disgusted, and one night when we noticed the testimonial of a woman who had been cured of similar trouble through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, he went out and bought a bottle for me. I used your medicine for three and one-half months, improving steadily in health, and in twenty-two months a child came. I cannot fully express the joy and thankfulness that is in my heart. Our home is a different place now, as we have something to live for, and all the credit is due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Yours very sincerely, Mrs. L. C. Glover, 614 Grove St., Milwaukee, Wis." Vice-President, Milwaukee Business Woman's Association.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

shown a great improvement in two weeks the locals will win. It is likely that Dr. McClure and Knox, the officials of the last game, will serve tomorrow.

ROVERS IN POSSESSION.

The West End Rovers have taken possession of the West End park for the foot ball season and will have a game there with some good team next Saturday. Games will be played there every Saturday until the close of the season and the latest teams in this section will be taken on. It will take the Rovers all of this week to recover from the Empire riot, although they will practice hard for Saturday's game.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Harry Pulliam says it was a banner year for base ball and that 25 per cent more people saw National league games than ever before.

Rev. I. J. Spence, of the Central Christian church at Lexington, preached to visiting horsemen, standing in a hay wagon in front of a hotel.

The champion fox terrier, Raby, foastguard, bred by the Duchess of Newcastle, was sold at London to a San Francisco breeder for nearly $2,000.

"Rube" Waddell, the well-known base ball pitcher, has just made his first appearance in Chicago as an actor. "The Stain of Guilt" is the drama and "Rube" appears in four acts in the role of a detective.

George Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., he champion light heavyweight boxer of the world, has left Chicago for San Francisco, in which city he is to box Fitzsimmons at the Yosemite Athletic club about the middle of November.

What You Ought To Know About Ohio Tax Laws

A DISCUSSION BY
LAWYER THORNDIKE AND FARMER PERKINS

NUMBER SIX (To Be Completed in Ten Numbers.)

OHIO'S INIQUITOUS TAX INQUISITOR LAW.

FARMER PERKINS—I should like to know something of Ohio's tax inquisitor law.

Lawyer Thorndike—When Mr. Alfred Kelley started the state on its wild goose chase after ad valorem taxation in 1846, it took till 1861 for the taxpayers to get on to the weakness of the law. Under the stimulus of the Kelley law, personality on the grand duplicate in Ohio, sprung from $40,352,496 in that year to $83,964,430 in the following year. It made increases from that year, yearly, to 1855, when it decreased from the previous year $14,000,000. In 1856 it decreased $43,000,000 from the previous year and increased $23,000,000 in 1857, but did not come back to former figures by $57,000,000. In 1858 it decreased $23,000,000 more, but increased $11,000,000 in 1859, but in 1860 it decreased $3,000,000 from the former year. The Kelley tonic had lost its effect, and in 1861 something had to be done.

On March 29, 1861, the law, which is the beginning of the tax inquisitor law, was passed. That law simply gave the auditor power to put on the duplicate, omitted personal property, in the year on which he found it was omitted, 58 Vol. O. L., 47. This is now the first part of section 2781 of the Revised Statutes. On May 11, 1878, 75 Vol. O. L., 457, the act was amended to go back four years, beginning in the year in which the investigation was made.

On April 14, 1886, 82 O. L., section 2781, was amended to extend the investigation back six years. This continued the law till April 14, 1893, 90 O. L., 233, when the act was amended in the interest of justice.

From 1861 to 1893 the law was read and construed so as to punish an offender thereunder in the inverse proportion to his property properly returned.

Farmer Perkins—That is a singular statement. Can you give an example of how the law would so operate?

Lawyer Thorndike—I will bring forward our quondam friends, John Doe and Richard Roe. John Doe for the money shall take the role of the honest man and Richard Roe that of the dishonest man. They shall be each operated on, under section 2781, Revised Statutes of Ohio, in the year 1891, for making false returns for taxation under section 2781, which have been made back to include the year 1886. We will assume that John Doe in the six years did wilfully and intentionally omit $100,000 of his credits, and that Richard Roe did in the same period omit $600 of credits, in the same manner, having returned credits to the amount of $100,000. We will assume that each should have returned $100,000 of credits and that all their other property, real and personal, was duly returned. We will assume that each resided in the same taxing district and that the rate of taxation in that district during the six years was uniformly 2 per cent.

The auditor has just previously concurred in the appointment of a tax inquisitor in his county, who is to receive 20 per cent of what he finds, or what the auditor finds for him. The auditor has in mind the 4 per centum he is to receive under section 1081, Revised Statutes; and the 5 per cent his friend, the treasurer, is to receive under section 2856, Revised Statutes, and these deductions lend zest to his impartial investigation. He is serving the third year of his second term, and has let Mr. Doe escape the previous five years, so he can obtain his 4 per centum for the whole period of six years.

At the end of five years the auditor makes up a tax bill against our friend, John Doe. He finds Doe should have returned $100,000 each year from 1886 to 1891, both years inclusive, but in fact he only returned $600 per year for the six years and paid 2 per cent taxes, or $12 per year, for six years. The auditor adds the 50 per cent for these years and makes the basis of his taxes for each year $150,900 at 2 per cent. This makes John Doe's tax bill $18,108, on which he had paid $72, which must be credited and his net tax bill is $18,036.

Now we will try Richard Roe. He was honest for $100,000, but dishonest as to $600, but his total returns should have been the same as his neighbor's, John Doe, in the same taxing district.

The auditor makes up for Richard Roe the same tax bill as against John Doe, who was one hundred times more guilty, and it is $18,108, but Richard Roe has paid $2,000 per year for six years on his $100,000 credits, and must have credit for what he has paid. This sum, $12,000, reduces his tax bill to $6,108, or about 23 per cent of what John Doe has against him, who, instead of being 66 2/3 per cent more guilty is one hundred times more guilty.

John Doe pays his penalty and tax bill, amounting to $18,036, and Roe his penalty and tax bill, amounting to $6,108, making a total of $24,144. Of this $24,144 the tax inquisitor gets $4,828, the auditor gets $958.70 and the treasurer gets $1,266.40, a total of $7,000.16 for collecting $24,144, which is 29 per cent of the amount collected.

Farmer Perkins—Is not this a suppositious case?

Lawyer Thorndike—No, it is a real one except as to amounts and rates of taxation. This construction of the law was sought to be enforced in Taylor vs. Musser, 55 O. S., 668, and the foregoing was claimed to be the proper interpretation of the law by one of the most distinguished lawyers of the state, and whose name is a household word.

Farmer Perkins—Suppose Doe should have returned $100,000 and did return $100,000. Under the same facts what would be Doe's tax bill, for the omission of one dollar each year for six years?

Lawyer Thorndike—It would be $6,006, of which the tax inquisitor would get $1,201.20, the auditor would get $240.24 and the treasurer would get $300.39 a total of $1,741.94 for collecting $6,006, which is 29 per cent of the amount collected.

Farmer Perkins—Is the construction of this law the same in each county of the state?

Lawyer Thorndike—No, I have given you the extreme construction which was contended for in the case referred to. In another county the penalty was only placed on the amount of omitted property, which is just. In a third county the penalty was only counted on the actual taxes which should have been paid.

The second construction was applied in Hamilton county, and the third in Clermont county.

Farmer Perkins—What was done in amending the law in 1893?

Lawyer Thorndike—It was amended so as to apply the penalty only to the amount omitted each year. The attention of the legislature was called to the awful construction of the law, claimed in the 55 O. S., and at once amended it. The same law, so amended, is now in force.

Farmer Perkins—As I see the case, the $100,000 Richard Roe had properly returned was used as a basis to punish him for the $600 omitted. Am I right in this view?

Lawyer Thorndike—You are.

Farmer Perkins—I turn to page 884 of the Ohio Statutes, 1902. "Additions to the tax duplicate upon information received from inquisitors." I find the whole amount paid inquisitors was $202,005.07, or 7 per cent of the taxes collected on their additions. I notice that twenty-four counties made no report of fees paid inquisitors, and ten counties are left out. How do you explain this?

Lawyer Thorndike—That report is valueless except as to the taxes added, which were $2,701,106.70. The tax inquisitors were entitled to 20 per cent of that, and no doubt got it—$540,221.34.

The county auditors were entitled to 4 per centum of the taxes collected, $108,044.26, and no doubt received it. The county treasurers were entitled to 5 per centum of the amount $125,055.32, and no doubt received it, or $77,320.92 for collecting $2,701,106.70. The total grand duplicate for Ohio for 1902 was $1,990,885.388. For the collection of this, county auditors and treasurers, the state auditor and state treasurer's office received $857,996.27, four and three-fifths per cent, while the tax inquisitors and county officers were entitled by law to receive $773,320.92 for collecting $2,701,106.70, or 29 per cent. The county auditors and treasurers in the entire state received as compensation the sum of $817,479.98 in 1902, and the tax inquisitors and their aids $773,320.92, or only $44,156.09 less than the county auditors and treasurers. A system which requires the legalized expenditure of $773,320.92 over and above that of the auditors and treasurers is necessarily rotten and corrupt. It is based on false ideas and theories and merits condemnation.

Many persons think the auditors and treasurers ought to collect all the taxes, but beside the $857,996.72 paid them to collect the taxes in 1902, $773,320.92 was authorized to be paid and no doubt was paid, to tax inquisitors.

Were the taxation amendment adopted the three-quarters of a million dollars paid tax inquisitors would be saved and go direct to the state or the counties.

Endorsed by the Democratic Party.

The Democratic party, assembled in state convention at Columbus, Aug. 26, 1903, endorsed the following proposed constitutional amendments:

1. Taxation—Providing for the classification of subjects for taxation.
2. Double Liability—Abolishing double liability for stockholders in Ohio corporations.

3. Legislative Districts—Providing that every county shall have at least one representative in the General Assembly.

It disapproved the proposed amendments to give the governor the power of veto, and for the classification of cities.

Lowell, Mass.

Erie, Pa., Oct. 13.—The auto cars entered in the New York-Pittsburgh endurance test made a quick, pleasant and uneventful run to this place from Buffalo. The 15 which got away were all housed in the official garage before dark in the afternoon. The order their arrival was as follows:
The one driven by F. B. Stearns, which made the run in about 4 hours and 50 minutes—the shortest time allowance—made the run of 94 miles allowance and made a perfect running record;
then those driven by Jay, Holcomb,
Winters, Gardner, Deming, Soules,
Pierce, Nutt, Wilkinson, Fetch, Rex,
Shupine, Whitcomb and Roberts.
Special orders were issued at the start by Referee Elkins, and their enforcement was insured by instructions issued by Superintendent of Observers Gillett, that no cars were to exceed a speed limit of 20 miles an hour.
This was intended to overcome a tendency towards speeding, and it had the desired effect.
The drivers of the two pilot cars, Winstor and Fred A. Nickerson, were arrested on their arrival for scattering confetti on the city streets. Harry Twin, secretary of the N. A. A. M., was in Mr. Nickerson's car and the constable insisted that he should accompany the others when they were brought before the mayor. When the matter was explained to the mayor he discharged the two operators and said that the arrest had been a mistake.

There will be no hill climbing nor brake contest as a climax to the automobile run from New York to Pittsburgh. This was decided upon after a conference by the members of the National Association of Manufacturers.
In view of the extraordinary conditions under which the competition cars have made the run, the association decided that in fairness to those who entered and succeeded thus far with cars the severe test should not take place after all the machines have already gone through.
The abandonment of the hill climbing and speed contests means that there will simply be a chase out the boulevard, an examination of the cars by a crowd of Pittsburgh enthusiasts, a series of entertainments, and then a whole year's talk concerning which car did the best work.
Buffalo, Oct. 13.—Three additional automobiles arrived here later in the evening, making a total of 18. They immediately resumed the run to Pittsburgh in an endeavor to overtake the leaders at Erie, Pa.

SCHOOLS OF CRIME
Chain Gang Prison System of South a Breeding-Place for Immorality.
MEN SOLD TO HIGHEST BIDDERS

Doctor Thirkield's Address Before
Evangelical Alliance at Cincinnati—
Convict Lease System Condemned
as Inhuman and Brutalizing.

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—Dr. W. P. Thirkield, corresponding secretary of the Methodist Freedman's Aid and Southern Educational society, in delivering the opening address of the Evangelical alliance, charged that the outrages of negroes in the south was due to the chain gang prison system. He said in part:
"Far be it from me to utter one word in extenuation of the unspeakable crime of which some black men are guilty. Let us keep in mind, however, that only about 20 per cent of the black men who are lynched have ever been charged with the unspeakable crime against the sacredness of womanhood. Let the black men bring in every influence to bear to make such crimes impossible. Let there be prompt executions of the law against this and all crimes of all men. Lynch law, however, is anarchy. It brings in the reign of barbarism. It brutalizes members of the mobs; it undermines government; it does not stop crime.
Maintained by Southern States.
"In estimating criminality among the black people we should keep in mind that since Appomattox nearly every southern state has maintained schools of crime—an organized institution for the training of criminals. This I charge against the convict lease system of the south. This system, with its thousands of victims, has been the cause of much of the outbreak in crime among black people, through its brutalizing and dehumanizing influence on thousands of negroes.
"Under this system both prison and prisoners are farmed out under the control of private corporations—sold to the highest bidder.
"To the lessee the body and soul of convicts are assigned. The motive of both state and lessee is not morals but money; not reformation, but exploitation of criminals for gain. It is crime turned into a source of revenue; the brawn and blood of criminals bartered for gain.
"Criminals Herded Together.
"Criminals are generally scattered in branch prisons—quartered in rude stockades without proper sanitation, food or clothing. The average life of these convicts is less than 10 years. Old and young are promiscuously chained and herded together. Even men and women are, in some camps, not separated. The warden of a state penitentiary protests in his report that 'under the present law and customs the penitentiary is the school of crime instead of being a reformatory institution.' Of the 50 boys under 18 nine-tenths of them leave prison much worse than when they come in.
"The outcome of the careful investigation of the convict lease system by the present governor of Georgia was a revelation of inhumanity, barbarity and shameful immorality. Much of it was unfit for the public press.
"In a period of two years over 100 of these convicts escaped from southern prisons. Think of 100 thieves, murderers, thugs, at large—lawless men roaming about in defiance of all law and order. Think of a system that has no reformatory element; no system to cure men of crime, but that educates young criminals in crime, and that, by its barbarity, brutalizes and dehumanizes men and sends out those that do not die under the horrors of the system to debauch and degrade society. From such criminals what wonder if there have come forth hundreds of moral monsters.
Graduates Criminals.
"Even at the late session of the prison congress in Atlanta visitors went to the city stockade where conditions are under the oversight of enlightened officials under the employ of the city. The element of gain is here eliminated, yet these humane people entered a public protest against the inhumanity and immorality of the present system even under these favorable conditions. The south should reform its present system, and thus stop the education of criminals. The present system is a sowing of the wind, and it is bound to reap the whirlwind.
"Over against the outcome of these schools of crime is the fact that of all the thousands of graduates from the Christian schools maintained by the benevolence of the north and south, not one graduate has ever been accused of the crime against the sacredness of womanhood."
Mr. Thirkield made a strong plea for the philanthropic and Christian people both of the south and north to join hands in educational and missionary efforts for the solution of this, the gravest problem of the races ever given any nation to solve.

It's Impure Blood.
"What is it?" asks the mother as she notices the smooth skin of her child marred by a red or pimply eruption. It is impure blood, and the child needs at once to begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best and surest remedy for impurity of the blood. It entirely eradicates the poisons which corrupt the blood and cause disease. It cures scrofula, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which are the direct result of impure blood. It enriches as well as purifies the blood.
"Dr. Pierce's medicine has not only benefited me greatly, but it has done wonders for my two sons," writes Mrs. M. H. Harkness, Oswego Co., N. Y. "Both had scrofula. I have lost two daughters in less than five years with consumption and scrofula. My eldest son was taken two or three years ago with hemorrhage from the lungs. It troubled him for over a year. He took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and has not had a hemorrhage in over a year. My younger son had scrofula and his neck had become thick and hard. He had since he commenced to take your medicine."
Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

SAVED BY POLICE.
Young Man Accused of Heinous Crime Narrowly Escapes Lynching.
Chicago, Oct. 13.—Arthur Warren, a young man living in the suburb of Berwyn, 12 miles from Chicago, had a narrow escape from lynching, and but for the efforts of two policemen it is possible that he would have been hanged to a telegraph pole.
Warren was accused of assaulting an 8-year-old girl. Acts of this kind have occurred several times at Berwyn within the last few nights and the crowd that pursued Warren was highly exasperated. He led them a chase of about a mile before he was caught and during the run the excitement of the crowd had increased.
When Warren was captured he was handled very roughly and a proposition to lynch him met with approval. Two policemen managed to get him away from the crowd and drag him into a grocery store, where they barred the door until assistance arrived from the police station. Warren, who required surgical attendance, was finally placed in a cell, although the crowd followed him all the way to the station trying to get at him.
Millionaire Dies in Poverty.
Omaha, Oct. 13.—Thomas Murray, until a few years ago rated a millionaire, and who made most of his fortune dealing in second-hand goods, died in a shack in the southern part of the city. Murray, who has lived in Omaha for 50 years, was a bachelor and was famous for his peculiarities and eccentricities. He built the first six-story brick building in the city, for which he burned his own brick, and was 12 years in its building. His second-hand store, which was known as the Old Curiosity Shop, contained almost everything known to junk lore. A great deal of his fortune was lost in real estate.
"Farmers' Trust" Incorporated.
Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13.—The Farmers' Co-operative Shipping association, commonly called the "farmers' trust," has legally entered the state of Nebraska, the secretary of state having received its incorporation papers. The capital stock is $200,000, and the purpose of the association is to handle grain and live stock and to eliminate the middlemen. It is planned to build a number of elevators in this state and to absorb the other co-operative companies now doing business in Nebraska.
Constantinople at World's Fair.
St. Louis, Oct. 13.—The contract for the construction of the Constantinople concession at the world's fair, showing a part of the Stamboul district, was awarded. The concession is to represent a street in Stamboul paved with brick and for a part of the distance arcaded. The court in the center is to be used for an open-air theater.
Ball Game Postponed.
Boston, Oct. 13.—The Boston-Pittsburgh baseball game scheduled for Monday, in the championship series, was postponed on account of rain.

GET OUT EVERY VOTE.
Only Danger Is Among the Republican Stay-at-Homes.
As Important as Any Presidential Election, as Urgent Upon Everyone —Over a Hundred Thousand More Ohio Republicans Can Be Brought Out.

The nearer that election day approaches the more certain it becomes that just one thing transcends in importance every other consideration of the campaign. That is that the Republicans of Ohio shall get out a full vote on the 3d of November.
In the close counties and districts, where the contest increases in intensity as the time for voting comes around, the danger in this respect diminishes in proportion to the fierceness of the fight. But in the districts and counties that are more or less one-sided either way, there is always a tendency to fall short of a full vote. Earliest strife over local offices may increase the number of voters at the polls, but there still remains a considerable class of citizens who neglect their responsibilities of suffrage except at a presidential election.
What are the Republicans of Ohio; what are the Republicans of your district; what are the Republicans of your county; what are the Republicans of your town; what are the Republicans of your precinct and sub-district, going to do on election day? Twenty per cent of the Republicans of this state failed to turn out to vote at all both last year and year before. For Governor Nash in 1901, for Secretary Laylin in 1902, the total vote was 107,000 short of the vote for McKinley in 1900. There is not a thing anywhere to show that these men are other than Republicans now, just as they were two years ago. All that has been lacking is their presence at the polls.
This year's election is as important as a presidential election. It means Ohio's support of President Roosevelt, or Ohio's repudiation of him. Any material reduction in the Republican plurality will be claimed by the opposition throughout the nation as a verdict against Roosevelt and all the Republican policies. It will be seized as a reason for putting Johnson forward as the man of men to lead the Democratic party in the presidential campaign. Johnson does not need to defeat Herrick. He needs only to make inroads upon Herrick's majority. None but stay-at-homes among the Republicans can thus play into Johnson's hands. Every stay-at-home vote is a vote to help Johnson.
Still stronger is the case as to the United States senator. No McKinley man should absent himself from the polls when McKinley's closest friend, personally and politically, is assailed as Senator Hanna has been with the virulence of personal bitterness. Anything to beat Mark Hanna has been the Johnson war cry. Hanna's defeat would be hailed beyond anything else as a knock-out blow to the Republican cause from his party prominence and public service. None but stay-at-homes can defeat him. The more full the vote, the greater Herrick's majority, the more certain Hanna's election, and the more complete the crushing of Johnsonism and all that it means.
Get out the vote; every Republican vote in every voting precinct of Ohio.

You tax the kidneys, overwork them. They can't keep up the continued strain.
The back gives out—it aches and pains.
Urinary troubles set in.
Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.
East Liverpool people tell you how they act.
Mr. William Anderson, of 305 Lisbon street, says: "During the civil war I enlisted and served three years in the Forty-second Infantry. From the exposure during the war I attribute the severe aching and weakness in the loins and muscular rheumatism of recent years which all seemed to center in my kidneys. In the morning when first getting up I was very dizzy until I had moved around for a time and my nervous system became affected, causing fluttering and fullness around the heart. Seeing an advertisement in the paper I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy and took them. A few doses gave me relief. The improvement was gradual and continued as the medicine got thoroughly into my system. I firmly believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will in every case as they did in mine, prove the justness of the claims made for them."

ITS NAME IS ITS FAME
LIFE PLANT

THE greatest of all known remedies for the positive cure of all diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BLOOD. It is nature's own remedy and acts in accordance with her laws.
Do you suffer with INDIGESTION—are you distressed after eating—does a torpid liver make you feel miserable—out of sorts—at variance with the world? Do the kidneys fail to perform their duty, giving backache and general lassitude? Are you all worn out?
LIFE PLANT will relieve quickly and cure permanently—no disappointment—no failure—it has cured thousands of others—it will cure you.

Rev. A. R. Merchant, Pastor M. E. church at Freeport, O., writes under date July 10, 1930:
I take pleasure, and do not hesitate to recommend Life Plant as an excellent remedy for Liver and Kidney difficulties. Mrs. Merchant desires to bear testimony to the healing virtues of Life Plant, as a sure and certain remedy for Rheumatism.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND DIABETES NEWS

San Francisco, Oct. 8, 1933.
To the People of Ohio:
As San Francisco druggists personally acquainted with the facts we are asked to certify to you the curability of chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes, and however unreasonable it may seem to you, yet such is the fact. Up to a year ago we never heard of a genuine case of chronic Bright's Disease or Diabetes recovering. Now it is a common occurrence in this city. A great discovery has undoubtedly been made. Many prominent people here have recovered and every one of us whose names are appended hereto have either had recoveries among our customers or have genuine chronic cases now recovering. And the percentage of efficiency seems to be very high, for there are very few failures. Yours, etc.,

Procrastination the Thief of Time.

Shake off its Devil Fish Tenacles which are binding you and buy that home now that you have been intending to for these many seasons.

We describe below 7 propositions out of 300. If none of these suit you, call at our office and inquire of the 293 others. We can suit your case. Try us.

$1450

A nice, well ordered and well kept house of 4 rooms and a kitchen. Two stories, slate roof, good cellar, front porch, gas and city water. Nice lot situated on a pleasant street in a good neighborhood. We would like $450 down, balance monthly.

$1650

A new, not yet occupied 5 room house, just fresh from the builder. Rooms are large. Lot fronts 40 feet and is 100 feet deep. A drilled well 90 feet deep with never failing water standing 65 feet deep, equipped with pump. The house has a good cellar, front, side and rear porches and is roofed with slate. Situated 6 minutes out the north side car line, in a very pleasant locality. Terms right to a good party.

$950

A three room, one story and basement house on Lisbon street, water and gas, paved street and sidewalk. Three minutes walk from street car line. $200 down, balance monthly.

$2650

House of seven rooms and bath, pantry, cellar and furnace. Two stories, slate roof, front portico, and city water. The rooms are large. A good frame two story slate roof carriage barn, 16x32. Two lots making 60x130. A fine view obtained and one of the prettiest locations on the Ohio river. Worth more money, but owner lives out of town and is tired of renting. Will sell for $200 down, balance monthly.

$3100 This house is well located, within a few minutes walk of the business center. It is so near that you would work is grained. The roof is slated with Pennsylvania black slate. Never has been occupied and hence is new, clean and fresh. First payment $600, balance in easy installments.

T-R-E-R-N-I-T-H-T-E-P-E-C-N-E

The above letters put properly together spells out a phrase used in this ad. For the first correct solution we give a prize of $2.00. For the tenth a prize of $1 and for the last $2.00. Competition open to all under 18 years, closes Oct. 15. Prizes awarded Oct. 17. All answers must be made on postal card. A A A

Located within 5 minutes walk of the Diamond. A new six room house, grained in oak throughout; modern in all respects, having electric lights, bath, wash stand, w. c. hot and cold water, sliding doors, halls, gas and cellar. Never has been occupied and has been completed about one not think of paying a street car fare to get to it even if the cars passed the door. It contains seven rooms and a finished attic; is wired for electric lights, has city water and gas, sanitary sewers, a well appointed bath room containing bath tub, wash stand and w. c., dining room, parlor and hall connected with sliding doors. BRIGHT YOUNG LIFE WAS CRUSHED OUT boy was lying across the south rail and it was evident that the wheels of both trucks and passed over his limbs.

The news of the awful accident reached the Young home before the party carrying the maimed body. Mrs. Young seemed to realize that her loved one's injuries were mortal, fainted and for a time was in a very critical condition. The blow taxed her powers of endurance to the very utmost, while the other members of the family were distracted with grief. The scene at the home was most pitiable.

Drs. Marshall and Hendershot arrived at the house in a short time to assist in caring for the lad's wounds. The examination of the three physicians showed that the left leg had been run over and almost severed at three places, just above the ankle, below the knee and near the hip. The right leg was almost severed at two places, both below the knee. From the very first the physicians saw that the lad was beyond aid and that his ebbing strength would not permit of the necessary operation. The left limb, which was terribly mangled, was removed. The lad then showed evidences of collapse and a short time after the end came.

The lad was conscious until the physicians administered an anesthetic and talked to the sorrowing relatives at his side. He realized that death was near and tried to comfort his weeping mother. Through most of the night the distracted mother sat at the bed and there she was found today when the many sorrowing neighbors and friends called to express their sympathy. The boy was greatly loved in his home and a favorite with all.

BRANNON ON TRIAL FOR POCKET PICKING

Sensational Robbery on a Street Car in This City the Cause of the Suit.

Lisbon, October 12.—(Special.)—James P. Brannon is on trial today for picking the pocket of Joseph Pierce, of Wellsville, in East Liverpool. Several witnesses have been examined. They testified that the robbery took place in a street car at the Diamond in East Liverpool on the evening of August 18, Brannon securing $37, which Pierce afterward recovered.

When Pierce was boarding the car Brannon jostled him and inside the car he detected Brannon in the act of robbing him. A scuffle ensued. B. L. Chandler, of East Liverpool, one of the witnesses, tried to help overpower Brannon. The latter threw his hat from the car and started to run out at the front. He escaped, but was soon apprehended by the police. The money was found hidden in the hat thrown from the car.

HER SUFFERINGS

END PEACEFULLY

Goodwin was a devout member, will likely officiate.

Mrs. Goodwin was formerly Miss Mary L. Bryant. She was born in Wooster, O., where her parents resided until their death. Upon her marriage to James H. Goodwin, president of the Goodwin Pottery company, and the oldest member of the Goodwin family, who died in 1896, she moved to East Liverpool and lived here ever since. She was the mother of but three children, John S. and Charles F. Goodwin, both of this city, and Mrs. Alice Gilmore, of New York.

Mrs. Goodwin was a good, Christian woman and was widely known for her kind and loving disposition. To her family she was ever kind and devoted, and in their hour of irreparable sorrow the sympathy of all will be with them.

SALARIES AND FEES OF COUNTY OFFICERS

Receipts for Those in This County for the Year Ending in September.

Columbus, October 15.—(Special.)—Itemized statements showing the fees and salaries received by county officials for the year ending the first Monday in September are now being filed with the auditor of state by the county auditors. The report filed by Auditor J. Frank Adams, of Columbiana county, shows the fees and salaries of that county average about the same as those of other counties approximately the same in size. The net fees and salaries of the officers of Columbiana county, after deducting clerk hire, for the year were as follows:

Recorder, $3,085; sheriff, $4,007.61; clerk of courts, $3,852; prosecuting attorney, $5,094.96; probate judge, $2,300; county commissioners, W. K. George, $1,331.80, Chris Bowman, $1,398.69, Eden Reader, $1,245.79; treasurer, $3,655.15; auditor, $4,212.

The office of auditor pays best, with that of the sheriff a close second. These reports should be in the first week in October, but less than half of the auditors have complied.

MAD DOG TERRORIZES RIVER FRONT DISTRICT

THE VICIOUS BRUTE FINALLY SLAUGHTERED

Running amuck, biting at everything and everybody within its range, a dog known to hundreds of local people by the name of Rex, undoubtedly possessed of rabies, spread the wildest terror along the river beach, between Union street and Broadway, for more than an hour this morning. The frenzied animal was finally killed but not until it had caused destruction to several of the canine family, torn the clothes from one person and thrown others almost into hysterics.

Thomas Beaver, who resides in a shanty boat at the foot of Union street, was the first intended victim of the mad brute. Mr. Beaver was sitting in his boat shortly after 9 o'clock when he was surprised to see Rex, owned by his brother, Charles, who lives only a short distance farther up the beach, rush onto his boat and make a dash at another dog lying near the door.

Mr. Beaver did not realize at first sight that the dog was mad and dashing ran over to it with the intention of kicking it off on to the shore. He did land a blow with his foot on the dog's shoulder, which came dangerously near costing him his life. The animal, already suffering with the terrible and deadly disease, turned on Mr. Beaver and before he could escape grabbed him viciously by the trousers. Tenaciously the brute kept its hold and did not break away until it had wrenched the garment almost completely off.

While Mr. Beaver was engaged in this terrific battle other members of the family rushed to his assistance and all centering an attack on the dog finally succeeded in casting it on to the beach. Leaving this boat the animal started on another mad rush, heading for the boat of Charles Beaver. Arriving on this boat it made an attack on two little dogs, probably two months old. In a moment's time it had killed them both, grabbing them by their mouths and breaking their leads practically off. Another dog on the boat was next attacked and it was also bitten in several places, but not killed. Charles Beaver then rushed in and interfered sufficiently to get the attention of the dog turned toward other quarters.

Meantime scores of people in the vicinity were running to and fro, all at the highest pitch of excitement and all trying to provide a manner by which the animal could be dispatched. They were afraid, however, to get within its range and some one ran hastily to a telephone and summoned the police. Officers McDermott and Aufderheide answered the call but before their arrival Thomas Beaver had nerved himself to the extent of approaching the dog and with a revolver killed it.

The police learned this afternoon that the total number of dogs bitten by the mad brute is not less than nine and before evening all will be killed. It is said that every other dog in the neighborhood will be dispatched also, the belief being that all are infected with the disease.

BRIGHT YOUNG LIFE WAS CRUSHED OUT

TRIED TO GET ON IN FRONT

Carr, a bright little 12-year-old lad, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of First avenue, was run over by street car No. 22, Conductor Welling, and Motorman Stanley, of the East Liverpool line, and died two hours later. The terrible accident occurred at 7 o'clock last evening near the intersection of First with Pennsylvania avenue, within 100 yards of the lad's home.

Car No. 22 was bound east and had just left the Milberry street switch. From that point to where the accident occurred is but a short distance, and it is not likely that a full speed had been attained. Following the dangerous and foolhardy habit of hundreds of lads, the little fellow attempted to jump aboard the car at the front vestibule. He stood on the south side of the car, which, east bound, placed the closed vestibule towards him.

The lad caught the handle bar, but in trying to swing his body onto the step must have stumbled, for instead of reaching there he was thrown under the wheels. Not until he felt the jar of the wheels passing over the boys' legs did Motorman Stanley, according to his own statement, know that anything was amiss. Even then he did not suspect the true state of affairs, though he turned off the power and stopped the car. By the time the car was brought to a stop several people, who saw the boy drop from the car, were at his side and could see that he was cruelly hurt. One of the bystanders hastened to the home of Dr. W. E. Mowen, a short distance away. Dr. Mowen reached the spot before the body had been moved. The lad was conscious and realized that he was dangerously hurt. It was so dark at the spot that Dr. Mowen lighted a match to look at the wounds. The

COUNTY NOMINATIONS MADE AT A MEETING IN THIS CITY.

The Convention Attended By About 20 Members—List of Nominees.

Members of the Socialist party to the number of about 20 held a convention last night in their hall on West Market street and placed a county ticket in the field. A full ticket was nominated, most of the candidates being residents of this city. The number present did not represent the strength of the party locally and there was no opposition to any of the candidates.

The meeting was called to order by J. G. Boring, who is the presiding secretary of the party here. A motion to have the committee appointed to name the county ticket prevailed. The committee presented the following names after a few minutes' deliberations:

For Representative—E. J. Smith, of East Liverpool.

For Treasurer—F. W. Pennington, of East Liverpool.

For Sheriff—Joseph Davidson, of Wellsville.

For Commissioner—A. J. Powell, of East Liverpool.

The convention reaffirmed its allegiance to the platform of the party. An active campaign in behalf of the candidates and the party will be made. Several campaign speeches will be arranged.

WM. H. DEIDRICK SUES FOR HIS SALARY

Claims That $2,500 Is Due for Services at Salineville Pottery.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—William H. Deidrick has filed suit here against the Dresden China company, of Salineville, asking judgment for $2,500, alleged to be due him as salary for services as president and general manager for the company for the 10 months ending October 1. Walter B. Hill is his attorney.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—George C. Gibson, of Rogers, and Miss Alice M. De Bee, of East Liverpool, have been granted a marriage license.

MANGLED REMAINS FOUND ON RAILWAY

Albert Martin, Former Well Known Newspaper Man, Run Over by Train.

A MAN OF GREAT ABILITY

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—Another fatality occurred here, presumably last evening, Albert W. H. Martin, of Lisbon, being cut to pieces by a Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western railroad train.

The mangled remains were found scattered along the railroad track near the lower tile works, a mile or two east of Lisbon. Thomas Crawford, who was on his way to work about 7 o'clock this morning made the discovery. Probably two trains had passed over the body before it was found.

Mr. Martin was last seen about 5 p. m., when he was starting for Kimble's dam, east of town, to spend the night fishing. He is supposed to have been run over by the incoming passenger train about an hour later, or the local freight still later. The dense fog this morning prevented the crew of the early east bound passenger train seeing evidence of the accident.

The remains were scattered along the track for 40 or 50 yards in front of the office of the sewer pipe plant. They were scarcely recognizable. They were taken to Eells' undertaking establishment after being viewed by Coroner D. J. Jones. An inquest will be held this evening.

Martin was 57 years old and a native of West Virginia. A few years ago he was a well known newspaper man in this county, coming from East Liverpool to Lisbon in 1890 as the first correspondent of the county dailies. He reported the famous Marlatt murder trial. Later he succeeded Ed A. King as editor of the Buckeye State, holding the position several years. Afterward he represented the county papers at different times, but retired from newspaper work several years ago. Before locating in East Liverpool he worked on Pittsburg dailies. He was a capable man, having graduated from a Pennsylvania college, in which he was afterward an instructor for several years.

At the outbreak of the civil war he was living in West Virginia. Although too young to enlist he saw service in the union army as a camp attaché in the regiment to which his father belonged. He was captain of J. B. Morgan camp No. 76, Sons of Veterans, of Lisbon, and the camp will attend his funeral in a body.

Mr. Martin leaves a wife and four children, Harry, Carl, Emma and Amy, all of Lisbon.

Criminal Court Deals With a Number of Violators of the Law.

SALOON MEN ARRAIGNED

A Few Are Fined and a Number Placed Under Bond for Hearing. Stock Exchange Case—Crusade Against Cigarette Selling.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—A large number of criminal cases were disposed of at a session of court yesterday afternoon.

John Allmon, of East Liverpool, who has been in jail charged with the non-support of his five minor children, was permitted to change his former plea to that of guilty. Evidence before the grand jury showed that Allmon has not contributed materially to the support of his family since he and his wife separated five years ago, after having lived together 10 years, although he is temperate and industrious and earns good wages. Allmon promised to do better in consideration of which Judge Hole passed the case to give Allmon an opportunity to get a bond of $1,000, which will secure a suspension of the severe penalty attaching to such offenses. It was stated in Allmon's behalf that his offense was largely due to ignorance of the law, the prisoner being extremely illiterate and unable to either read or write.

Frank A. Tremaine, of East Liverpool, pleaded not guilty to a charge of conducting a bucket shop and is held to court in $500 bond.

William Haessley, of Hanoverton, pleaded not guilty to the two counts of an indictment for forging and uttering or putting in circulation a note for $300. The note was dated Hanoverton April 1, 1893, and was drawn up in favor of J. B. Speidel and was signed by William, Joseph and Abraham Haessley. The accused is held to court under $500 bond.

Cyrus, John and George Newhouse, father and two sons of Elkrum township, waived arraignment on a charge of assault and battery, pleaded not guilty and are held to court under bond of $100 each.

James Sharp, an East Liverpool habitual drunkard, got several saloonists in that city into trouble for furnishing liquor to him. For this offense Ben Schar got $30 and costs; Jacob Seitz $25 and costs; Charles Hayden $40 and costs, and John Kountz $30 and costs.

In the case of Mrs. Cornelius Smith, of East Liverpool, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, the defendant's attorney moved the indictment be quashed on the ground that it was not specific enough in stating the time of offense. The case was passed for further consideration and in the meantime the accused is under bond of $100 for her appearance.

James Derosi, an Italian saloonist who has been in business in East Liverpool four months, admitted he had sold to a minor and was fined $25 and costs.

George Wurtzell, also of East Liverpool, charged with selling to a minor, pleaded not guilty to the six indictments against him and is under bond of $300.

Calvin Bower, of East Liverpool, also pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling to a minor, and is under bond of $200.

James Nelson, of Wellsville, waived an arraignment for selling on Sunday and his bond is $200.

William Savors, of Wellsville, whom there are three indictments for keeping open and selling on Sunday, pleaded not guilty and is under bond of $300.

Thomas Ford, of Wellsville, admitted he had kept open and sold on Sunday and was fined $50 and costs.

Judge Hole, in pronouncing sentence, said there is possibly some excuse for saloonists selling to minors and nativists occasionally when they are imposed upon, but there is no excuse for neglecting to note when the first day of the week comes around.

Peter Wallom, charged with interfering with electric light wires in Wellsville, pleaded not guilty and gave bond for $200.

Edward Bennett, of Lisbon, pleaded guilty to one indictment for selling cigarettes to a boy under 16. He was fined $15 and costs. Two other indictments against Bennett for the same offense were also returned.

A GREAT OIL WELL BACK OF EMPIRE

Flowing About 130 Barrels a Day And Causing Great Excitement.

Empire, October 13.—(Special.)—Oil excitement is at fever heat out at Sugar Grove, back two miles from Empire, on the farm of Rufus Wilcox. The excitement is due to the extraordinary flow of oil made by the well after being shot on Saturday last. Since that time the well has been making about 130 barrels every 24 hours.

Large bonuses are being offered by oil men anxious to get into the field. Those owning the adjacent farms are in a quandary what to do. They are afraid they won't ask enough, and thus the merry war goes on.

ENGINEERS' STRIKE HAS BEEN SETTLED

WHERE SCALE IS SIGNED

One of the shortest strikes ever conducted in East Liverpool and successful from the unionists' standpoint, was brought to a close late this afternoon, when terms were agreed upon between the manufacturing potters and the members of the International Union of Steam Engineers whereby the scale of the union will be universally signed.

The fight, which was inaugurated at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, was for recognition of the union. This the factory owners at first refused to do, but have now reconsidered. The scale as originally presented has been changed slightly, but still provides for everything asked by the union in the beginning. The committee originally appointed by the manufacturers' association has refused to treat with the men.

Other interested factory owners asked for a conference with the strikers this morning, and it was granted. At that time the altered proposition was presented by the manufacturers, and taken back to the union at a meeting this afternoon. There it was ratified, and the committee instructed to carry the findings to the potters' association in session in the postoffice block at 3 o'clock.

The engine rooms of a few plants are presided over by men who are not members of the International, and therefore are still being operated. When the trouble was inaugurated an effort was made to ascertain whether or not the engineers could expect the support of the Brotherhood. At the headquarters of the latter organization it was learned that no official support could possibly be given, owing to existing agreements with the manufacturers.

There are 11 members of the organization known as the National Association of Stationary Engineers now in the city, and it is from them the strikers say they are receiving the hardest knocks. The association is purely an educational one, and its members are pledged by the constitution to refrain from entering any movement having for its object the demanding of more wages or better conditions. They are not permitted to take part in any controversy with their employers, and the clause is being carried out to the letter in the present instance.

These men, the strikers say, have steadily refused to join the International, and are of course at work. In case the union is victorious and the members succeed in enforcing the provisions of the first section of the scale which calls for the employment of only engineers affiliated with the International, it is probable these N. A. S. E. men will be taken into the bona fide union.

There is a phase of the present strike which has not yet been generally discussed, but promises to have an airing in every local in the city. The question is that involving the duty of one unionist toward the other, and will undoubtedly find its way to the central labor union and probably to the American Federation of Labor. The International Union of Steam Engineers is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. So is the American Federation of Musicians. Both of these organizations have branches in this city. The former is

STRUCK RAILWAY TORPEDO WITH A HATCHET

Ignorant of its destructiveness, believing it to be only a producer of loud noise, little Lillie Clunk, the 10-year-old daughter of Frank Clunk, a kiln hand employed in the glost end at the George C. Murphy pottery, seized a hatchet yesterday afternoon at about 1 o'clock and struck, with all the force she possessed, a torpedo, the kind used as a warning on railroads. As a result she lies at her home in Newell, opposite the city, in an extremely critical condition.

The injured child, accompanied by her sister, Olive, aged 4, and a DeBee girl, was at play when the trio were attracted to the torpedo. Some say that they found it on the railroad track which runs close by their home, but the father stated this morning that the explosive was discovered by the children in a woods at the rear of the home. At any rate, after finding the torpedo, Lillie, knowing that it would make fun for them all to destroy it, proposed that they get a hatchet and smash it.

All agreed and the miniature bombshell was placed on a large chunk of coal. Lillie then took the hatchet and while her playmates were standing in joyful anticipation of hearing "a great big noise" she raised her little arm and innocently struck the torpedo.

now involved in a strike, and it is claimed by the members that a man belonging to the musical union is now at work, and what is more, refuses steadily to go out.

This man is said by the strikers to have antagonized the union at every turn, and not only refused to affiliate with the engineers' union, but remains at work in spite of the influence brought to bear by the strikers. It is an old contention among the unionists of this city that every member of the musicians' union should be connected with the trades union in which he earns his livelihood. In many instances this has been disregarded, but in regard to the present case the engineers say they are determined to bring the matter to a head. No definite plan has been decided upon, but it is certain the question will be brought to the attention of the Trades and Labor Council, and may be carried to the highest tribunal, which is the American Federation of Labor.

It is the opinion of those interested in the labor movement in this city that the sooner the musicians' question is settled once for all the better it will be for the cause in East Liverpool. There has been more or less trouble of this character ever since the musicians have been organized, and it is likely a decision will be asked from the American Federation of Labor.

WILL OF DR. DODD

East Palestine Clergyman Left All His Estate to His Widow If She Does Not Marry.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—The will of the late Samuel T. Dodd, D. D., of East Palestine, has been filed for probate, and application set for a hearing next Saturday. He leaves all his property to his widow during her life or until she marries, she losing all interest in the estate in the latter event. On her death or marriage the property is to be sold and the proceeds divided equally among her children and Mr. Dodd's children by his first wife.

The estate includes properties in Rochester, Pa., Alliance, East Palestine, Bethany, W. Va., and in Missouri. As soon as litigation over the West Virginia and Missouri properties is adjusted the executor is authorized to sell them and place the money on interest for final distribution. The widow is named as executrix without bond.

Lillie having fallen backward to the ground severely wounded in at least three places on her body. In agony indescribable the little girl writhed while her companions, being unable to realize the enormity of her injuries, stood as if dumfounded. The cries of the injured one soon brought a crowd of older people, however, to the scene and only a glance by them was needed to comprehend the situation.

Bleeding from a number of wounds on the head, one in the left breast, another bad bruise in the right side caused by contact from some blunt missile, and one on her left lower limb, the girl was carried into the house, where she continued her piteous outbursts. Those around her quickly prepared to dress the wounds, but they soon discovered that the child had been so badly hurt that only a physician could properly attend her. Consequently Mr. Clunk was telephoned to and upon his arrival home he at once summoned Dr. George E. Lewis, of Chester.

The physician cleansed to a great extent the powder burnt openings in the flesh and relieved her misery as much as possible, and he stated that unless blood poisoning sets in she will not necessarily die. The case is one very hard to diagnose, the flesh being lacerated in an awful manner. If the torn parts can be totally cleansed the girl has a good chance for recovery, but if not, it is thought she will lose her life. Recover or not, she will always be marked by the gash on her face.

HER SUFFERINGS END PEACEFULLY

Mrs. James H. Goodwin Died at Clifton Springs, N. Y., This Morning.

A MUCH HONORED LADY

The entire community was keenly shocked this afternoon when the sad news reached the city of the death of Mrs. Mary L. Goodwin, widow of the late James H. Goodwin, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., where she had been taking treatment in a sanitarium for months. The direct cause of Mrs. Goodwin's death was the result of an operation performed on Saturday, October 3.

Mrs. Goodwin had been a sufferer, almost an invalid, for years, and was taken to Clifton Springs early last summer. After a course of treatment, the best to be procured in the country, and after her physical condition had improved sufficient to warrant it, the physicians at the sanitarium decided to subject the sufferer to an operation. Upon the date set for the ordeal the members of the family arrived at her bedside and all were joyful when she revived from its effects.

Mrs. Goodwin commenced to improve rapidly and on last Saturday, her sons, John S. and Charles F., were so confident of her ultimate recovery that they returned to their homes in this city. They received a telegram yesterday afternoon stating that their mother had developed a sinking spell and both left on the first train for her bedside. They arrived in time to see her alive, the death angel claiming her at 9 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Alice Gilmore, her only daughter, was also at the bedside.

Relatives of Mrs. Goodwin in this city were not prepared this afternoon to announce the day and hour of the funeral, but the remains, accompanied by the three surviving children, will arrive in the city some time tomorrow and the funeral will be held at the home of John S. Goodwin, East Fifth street. Rev. Dr. Pratt, pastor of the First M. E. church, of which Mrs. Goodwin was a member, will officiate. Continued on Eighth Page.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW BUILDING COMPLETED.

The new building to take the place of the one destroyed by fire at the Ironville fire brick works of the Standard Brick company has just been completed. The new structure is 50 feet by 80 feet, two stories high, is of frame construction and is like the original building, which was also new, having been completed but two months before the fire occurred. The first floor is taken up with the brick machinery and the upper one is used for a drying room. The engine and boilers are housed in a separate building. It is understood none of the machinery was injured to any great extent. This, however, has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and is now in readiness again for operation.

POTTERS LEAVING.

Potters continue to leave the city for Cameron, Coshocton, Crooksville and other cities where plants are being placed in operation. During the past few weeks 50 potters and their families have departed, and this condition will prevail until all those who accepted out-of-town jobs are gone. The city is not the loser to any great extent, as the places of the departing ones are easily filled. In spite of the exodus desirable houses, particularly small ones, are difficult to find and the demand is in excess of the supply. Many people who had to take just what was at hand when they reached the city are taking advantage of the situation by finding more desirable quarters.

FELL IN A KILN.

William Arb, one of the kilnmen at the Burford plant, was painfully injured late yesterday afternoon and will be confined to his home for a number of days. Arb was placing the top saucer on the bung when he lost his balance and fell from the stairs to the bottom of the kiln, a distance of about

While badly bruised and stunned there were no bones broken and Arb was taken to his home in the patrol, while medical aid was being summoned. Dr. Hobbs cared for the injuries, which consist of a number of contusions and bruises about the shoulders and breast.

DECORATORS WORKING.

The decorating departments of the local plants will in most instances be the last affected by the strike of the engineers. The operatives will be compelled to stop, however, if the strike continues for any length of time. Those in the decorating departments had been enjoying the best run of work in several months and most of them were sorry to see an interruption. The fall season is by far the best for the decorators, owing to the great demand for all decorated lines as holiday gifts.

BREWER STORY REVIVED.

The story is again revived at Tiffin that Col. Albert Brewer, formerly a wealthy potter, who was supposed to have died and been buried last May, is not dead. The whole story was published in the News Review months ago. Brewer, at the time of his reported death, was awaiting trial for killing Luther Hershey, a farm hand, in a quarrel. It is alleged that a corpse was substituted and that Brewer is living in some distant region. His friends take no stock in the tale.

KILNDRAWERS' DISPUTE.

Owing to a dispute between the kilndrawers and Manager Menor, at the Union, one of the kilns, partly drawn, was allowed to remain over Sunday, the men refusing to finish the work under the terms offered them. The difficulty may be submitted to the arbitration board for settlement. The dispute has occasioned a loss of time in several other departments.

NOVELTIES IN JARS.

Porcelain cracker jars have become quite a fad and several local plants have made a special effort to offer attractive designs. The jars for the most part afford a wide range for decoration and some of the designs are really meritorious. A great run on them will be experienced from now until the holidays.

ANARCHISTS' CLASH WITH POLICE

cluding Their Leader.

San Juan, Oct. 13.—Governor Hunt returned from Ponce, where he attended a banquet in celebration of the extension of American railways in the island. He was everywhere received with demonstrations of confidence and esteem. During the governor's absence the anti-American socialists and anarchists had a clash with the police on the plaza of this city. Forty arrests were made and many of the prisoners were convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment, including the anarchist, Conde, who was recently convicted of insulting the American flag.

Americans here are particularly incensed at the carrying of black and red flags and a craped American flag by a mob Sunday as an incitement to disorder. Conde delivered a very offensive harangue, in which he approved of the mob resorting to bloodshed if necessary.

The Americans demanded the punishment of all the dangerous socialists and are overwhelming Governor Hunt with assurances of support in a vigorous campaign to uphold law and order. They urge that an immediate death blow be given to anarchy.

Eye Witness of Kishinev Horrors.
Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 13.—After a journey of six weeks, Mrs. Esther Steinberg and her three children, who were hidden in the cellar of a Christian home for three days during the Kishinev massacre in Russia, have arrived in Des Moines to join Mr. Steinberg. Mrs. Steinberg brought pictures taken after the worst of the massacre and confirms all of the stories of horror. She says the reports were mild compared with the awful facts. She saw a woman with a spike driven into her skull, women disemboweled and hot pitch poured into their wounds, and men and women slashed and crushed and left lying in the streets.

Schwab Will Appear as Witness.
New York, Oct. 13.—Attorney Guthrie, who is representing Charles M. Schwab at the trial in the receivers' investigation of the affairs of the United States Shipbuilding company, has not yet fully recovered from the injuries received while riding a few days ago and at a conference between the counsel in the case a postponement until Wednesday was decided upon. Announcement also was made that Mr. Guthrie had agreed to produce Mr. Schwab as a witness when ever required without the necessity of serving a process directing him to attend.

Lowered Automobile Record.
London, Oct. 13.—The Hon. C. S. Rolls, officially timed, lowered the world's kilometer record at the Duke of Portland's private park, using a specially built 11-horse power machine. His time was 26.25 seconds.

EAST END

CITY OFFICIALS SEARCHING FOR A SEWER OUTLET

Complaints And Petitions of East End Property Owners Are Bringing Results.

City Engineer Kelly and Street Commissioner Dickey are seeking a solution to the weighty problem of an outlet for the proposed storm sewer asked for by the residents of St. George street. The lack of a sewerage system for the East End has been a serious drawback to its growth and has proved a great inconvenience, particularly in keeping the section in the proper sanitary condition. Both storm and sanitary sewers are greatly needed.

The sentiment of the majority of the people is favorable to the construction of all necessary sewers if the matter of an outlet could be determined. For a sanitary sewer the outlet would necessarily have to be placed below the water works intake. To accomplish this a trunk line of considerable length must be built. Considerable of the property along the line could not stand the cost of the improvement.

Quite a number of petitions from the East End property holders for storm sewers have been filed lately with city officials and yesterday the two officials above mentioned were surveying the territory and trying to locate the necessary outlets.

Fractured His Arm.

Harry Johnston a popular East End young man, roughed home yesterday from Beaver Falls in a very badly crippled condition as the result of a fall sustained last Saturday. Johnston had taken employment with a farmer, William Freedom, near Beaver Falls, and was put to work picking apples. He climbed to the top of a tree on a long ladder and a short time later, in endeavoring to reach the ground with a load of apples, the ladder broke, throwing him to the ground a distance of 20 feet. The force of the fall came on his left arm making a compound fracture near the left shoulder.

Missing Yet.

Ten years ago an East End girl put a needle between her lips while she hunted some thread, preparatory to threading it. Just then she sneezed and the needle was gone. She searched for it, but without results. Last week she felt a tingling sensation at the end of one of her fingers. Upon examination she discovered the point of a small object just above the surface of the skin. Procuring a pair of tweezers she pulled out a thorn she had accidentally run into her finger.

Oil Well Due in Today.

News from an oil well in the Turkey foot field, Hancock county, is being eagerly awaited by a number of East End people, who are financially interested in it. The well was started some months ago, considerable difficulty having been encountered in the drilling. The drillers sent word several days ago that they expected to reach the pay sand this week and later information is that the well should be in today.

Organizing at Mechanicstown.

District Deputy D. Frank White left yesterday afternoon for Mechanicstown, where he will continue the preparatory work in forming a Protected Home Circle lodge there. Mr. White has many relatives and friends there, having been born and reared in the neighborhood. He has secured more than the required number of charter members and the new organization will start off with excellent prospects.

Social a Success.

The social and entertainment given at P. M. C. hall last night by the Daughters of Liberty greatly pleased the many in attendance. An extensive program of musical and literary selections was rendered by popular home performers. The drama was particularly enjoyable. The characters were assumed by Dick McCain, Mollie Flick, Belle Easterday, Ida Betz and Patrick Bolan.

The Dixonville School.

School was held yesterday for the first time in the new Dixonville building and the attendance is unusually large. The new building affords many comforts and conveniences and the term promises to be very successful. The pupils are in charge of Miss Carrie Finney, a talented and popular young lady, who has shown unusual efficiency in school work.

Football Games This Week.

The Tiger Athletic club has arranged for another game, to be played Thursday with a down town colored team. The C. F. Armour team has been booked for a game Saturday. The Marines will play the Hill Top Tigers next Saturday. Several other games for East End teams will be arranged for this week.

Married Men Won.

The married men and single men of the Homer Laughlin China company played a game of base ball yesterday afternoon at the grounds near the plants, the married men winning by a score of 5 to 4. Several games will be played if the strike of the engineers continues to keep the men from work.

A Promising Well.

The oil well of the Ohio River Oil and Gas company on the farm of Mrs. Richard Laughlin at Ohioville was shot yesterday afternoon and gives promise of being good for 10 or 20 barrels a day.

Alcohol in Liquid Kidney Remedies Fatal to Children.

MRS. ANNE CAVANAUGH WAS LOW WITH KIDNEY DISEASE.

July 2, 1903, Mrs. Cavanaugh, of 2001 Aldrich Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., wrote: "My kidneys were clogged, causing swelling of the feet and dropsical conditions. I was so sick I was in bed at the time I first heard of Kidney-Wort Tablets. I tried them and they helped me within 24 hours; the backache, the heavy throbbing through my back and hips and the thick, high colored urine all left me before I had finished the second bottle of the Tablets. Two doctors told me that my case was incurable, but I was hopeful. I can take my oath that Kidney-Wort Tablets will cure kidney disease when nothing else in the world will, for I have tried every other great remedy there is. The Tablets I found very handy to take with me to my work, and I have never omitted a dose as I used to do when I had to go home to take the liquid remedies."

Stop the beginning of kidney and bladder weakness early in life. Bedwetting can be intelligently cured with Kidney-Wort Tablets. They are purely vegetable and absolutely harmless to the most delicate child. Look for "brick dust," milky or cloudy deposits in your been sold to the National Steel Casting company, a concern backed by Cleveland capital and capitalized at $150,000 under the laws of Delaware.

Rev. W. A. Williams, D. D., pastor of the Two Ridges church, has declined to accept a recent call to Pittsburgh. Rev. S. L. Boston, of the Third Presbyterian church of Steubenville, has also recently declined a call to a larger church.

A petition is in circulation down the river protesting against the proposed change of location of dam No. 11 of the Ohio river from the original site proposed, which is two miles below Wellsburg, to a point at almost the center of the town. The latter location would spoil the coal harbor.

SPEAKS WELL OF AMERICANS.

Alfred Mosely Honored Guest at Dinner Given by President Butler.

New York, Oct. 13.—President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia university, gave a dinner at Sherry's in honor of Alfred Mosely and the other members of the British educational commission who are visiting the United States to investigate the public school system.

Mr. Mosely spoke of the object of the commission and said he hoped and believed they would not be disappointed. He referred to the Californian, Gardiner Williams, who was made manager of the De Beers mine in South Africa, and James Seymour, of Chicago, who in the Boer war gave a rescue party that did gallant service. He spoke of Hammond, Jennings, Perkins and other Americans who, in South Africa, made so great an impression on Cecil Rhodes that the great financier recognized the claims of the United States and established many scholarships for lads of American birth. He concluded with the hope that the young men who go to British universities will help to build up a constructive policy of education.

Other speakers were Whitelaw Reid, William Jones, M. P., of the commission, and William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education.

Lake Shore Reducing Force.

Cleveland, Oct. 13.—At the headquarters of the Lake Shore road it was stated that probably not to exceed 400 men would be dismissed by that company as a result of the order sent out from New York to reduce the force of help in all shops on the Vanderbilt system wherever possible. One hundred and fifty of the 800 men employed in the Lake Shore shop at Collinwood were discharged and an equal number will probably be dismissed at the Elkhart, Ind., shops.

Convention Elects Officers.

Washington C. H., O., Oct. 13.—The national convention of the American Veterans of Foreign Service elected the following officers: President, James Romanis, Columbus; Secretary, T. F. Malloy, Columbus. There are 250,000 men eligible to membership and the work of establishing new camps will be prosecuted throughout the United States. A committee was appointed to arrange a mutual benefit plan.

Mail Pouch Robber Confesses.

Denver, Oct. 13.—Albert E. Bell, alias Crosby, alias Murray, the alleged mail pouch robber and forger, had a hearing before United States Commissioner Hinsdale. Bell is still confined to his bed and the commissioner visited him at St. Anthony's hospital, where the hearing was held. Bell confessed to robberies at Germantown, Pa., and Springfield, Ill., and his bond was placed at $10,000. He is unable to give the amount of bond required, and will be kept under guard until he is well enough to be taken to Philadelphia for trial.

Testing Government Bill of Fare.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The table class of Dr. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the agricultural department, composed of 12 young men selected for the purpose of testing the effect of salicylic acid and other preservatives upon food, began the second experiment of the series. The experiment will continue for eight months, during which time the men will be boarded at the expense of the government.

Big Trolley Consolidation.

Detroit, Oct. 13.—J. D. Hawks, one of the owners of the Detroit, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Jackson electric line, stated that a consolidation of all the electric lines between Detroit and Kalamazoo, a total of about 270 miles, has been practically effected. S. F. Angus, Mr. Hawks' partner, has just returned from New York, where he went on business connected with the merger.

Female Novelist Adjudged Insane.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Kate N. Cleary, of this city, writer of novels and short stories, was adjudged insane by a jury in Judge Carter's court and ordered placed in an asylum. The use of drugs to which she became addicted through the administration of morphine during a fever in 1894 is said to have unbalanced her mind.

Roosevelt's Old Ranch Sold.

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 13.—The old "Chimney Butte" ranch, made famous as the ranch established by Theodore Roosevelt, when he was a Bad Lands rattleman, has been sold by the Northern Pacific to Ferris Bros., of Medora. It was at this ranch that President Roosevelt wrote some of his entertaining western sketches.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods merchant, of Belleville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often reach fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

LANDOWNERS BEWARE

The Tom Johnson "Just Taxation" Hits You Hard.

DEFEAT IT AS IT DESERVES

"Vote For Your Homes—Vote the Straight Republican Ticket and Brand the Brazen Dragon of Single Tax With Everlasting Defeat."

Underground work for the deception of the people is a peculiar Johnson characteristic of the present campaign. Various devices are in operation in different sections of the state with the common purpose of misleading the voters. These are not read about in the larger talk of the campaign, but occasionally crop out, betraying the mischief that it is sought to inflict upon the people.

One notable illustration has just come to hand in a studied misstatement of the single-tax proposition, which is at the bottom of the entire Johnson campaign, yet is carefully kept out of his party platform this year. That misrepresentation consists in trying to persuade the farmers, who are most deeply interested, that the single tax is nothing but the relief from double taxation of both real estate and the mortgage upon it, which is required under the present antiquated constitution of Ohio. Relief from this is so necessary and just, that it has been self-evident to man of all parties, who have been ready long since to make any enactment that would accomplish the result, but for the bar of the state constitution.

No Tom Johnson was needed to secure this kind of single tax. If the state constitution would only permit it, but this is not Johnson's kind of single tax. What he does want, and declares to be the dearest object of his life is unmistakably defined in the following adopted official statement of the principle of the single tax on land values, as agreed upon by its advocates, and accredited to the authorship of Henry George himself:

"We assure that no tax should be levied on the products of labor. We are in favor of raising all public revenues for National, State, County and Municipal purposes by a single tax upon land values, irrespective of improvements, and all the obligations of all forms of direct and indirect taxation. The single tax can be instituted by the single and easy way of abolishing, one after another, all other taxes now levied, and commensurately increasing the tax on land values until we draw upon that one source for all expenses of government, the revenue being divided between local governments, state government and the general government. In assessment under the single tax all values created by individual use or improvement would be excluded and the only value taken into consideration would be the value attaching to the bare land."

This is the Henry George definition of the original and only Tom L. Johnson doctrine of just taxation. The Caldwell Journal truly says of it as follows:

"The above needs no explanation or interpretation. It is up to you, farmers, to decide in November whether the stocks, the money, the mortgages, the incorporations and the great combines of the State of Ohio shall be relieved of their taxation and the deficiency thus brought about be collected from an additional tax upon your lands."

"Will the voters of Noble county and the State of Ohio permit an unjust tax to be imposed upon their lands and at the same time exempt capital and every product of labor from taxation?"

"FARMERS, BEWARE! THE SINGLE TAX THEORY TOUCHES EVERY LAND OWNER AND LETS EVERYONE ELSE GO FREE. THAT IS WHY TOM JOHNSON WANTS IT."

"Farmers, are you willing to pay the tax that this state has heretofore been and is at the present time collecting from the capitalist and incorporations? If so, vote for Tom Johnson and his single tax hobby. But if you are not in favor of this autocratic demagogic, lay aside your politics and political prejudices this year, and, if you want to vote for your homes, your families, your schools and your societies, vote the straight Republican ticket and brand the brazen dragon of single tax with everlasting defeat."

Bookwalter was booked to preside at Johnson's Springfield meeting, but stayed in New York and sent no message. Instead, harmony was promoted by calling to the chair one of the few anti-Zimmerman men among Springfield Democrats.

THE SINGLE LAND TAX TAKES ALL THE LAND FOR PUBLIC USE IT IS SOCIALISM. IT IS JOHNSONISM.

Cuba's imports in the calendar year 1902 were less than in any preceding year since the war. Her exports were, however, greater, reaching for the first time an excess over imports. The share of this trade which the United States has secured, both in imports and in exports, has been declining during the period. These significant facts appear in a report on Commercial Cuba published in the last number of the government summary of statistics. They serve to emphasize more than ever the importance of favorable action by congress at the coming special session upon the reciprocity treaty with Cuba.

The latest street car accident emphasizes the necessity of impressing upon the minds of both old and young the fact that moving street cars are dangerous and should be avoided rather than run after.

"To talk tariff revision at this time is to talk nonsense," says Congressman Dalzell, of Pittsburg. The Republican majority in congress is likely to endorse the sentiment almost unanimously.

Morgan says he was not to receive a raise from the sale of the Bethlehem steel mill. A large number of other gentlemen who are commonly supposed to be in positions to know say he was. But perhaps a transaction in which a mere $20,000,000 or $40,000,000 was involved was so small that it slipped from Mr. Morgan's memory.

President Roosevelt's cordial commendation of Senator Hanna must be disappointing to those Democrats who have been harping upon an imaginary breach between the two.

The voters of Ohio are making up their minds that Tom Johnson deserves nothing at their hands and will make his defeat decisive.

Tom L. Johnson denies that he is a socialist, but he does not deny that he believes in Henry Georgeism, and that is socialism.

The oriental skies will doubtless be clearer after the war cloud passes. The world is hoping it may pass without bursting.

It looks as if the Pittsburg ball players have been too much afflicted with the pride which goeth before a fall.

New Castle, Pa., with 35,000 inhabitants, pays its mayor $1,000 a year, and is getting ashamed to own it.

"Rube" Waddell is on the stage. Hitherto he has proved a bad actor when off the diamond.

Bryan threatens another visit to Ohio. It might pay Johnson to pay him to stay away.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John H. Young.

Mrs. John H. Young, of Beaver Falls, died at St. John's hospital in Allegheny last evening at 8 o'clock. She had been ill for eight months and was taken to the hospital for an operation yesterday. She did not recover from the operation. She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mrs. Frank Spousler, Miss Myrtle Young and Miss Thalia Young, all of Beaver Falls. She leaves two sisters and a brother in East Liverpool, Mrs. Elizabeth Larkins, Mrs. John S. Wilson and John Fowler, of the East End. The funeral will be held Thursday at 3 p. m. at Beaver Falls; interment at Freedom.

D. V. Dunlap.

Mrs. Frank McIntosh and her daughter, Miss Della, left this morning for Alliance to attend the funeral of D. V. Dunlap, who died Sunday evening after a long illness. Mr. Dunlap was 85 years of age and was a highly respected resident of the city in which he died. Besides Mrs. McIntosh, of this city; Mrs. Emaline Baker, of Cleveland; Mrs. Dr. R. A. Roach, of Alliance; Dr. R. A. Dunlap, of Carrollton, and Milton Dunlap, of East Liverpool, survive.

James Campbell.

Mrs. John C. Owen, of Sixth street, has received word of the death of her father, James Campbell, at Burton on Trent, England. He is 82 years old and is survived by 12 children, two of whom are living in this country. Mrs. John C. Owen, of this city, and Mrs. John W. Morgan, of Trenton, N. J.

There's a World of Difference in DRUGS.

Drugs, more than anything else, permit of a wide range, between "PURE" and "POOR." It makes a vast difference in the effect of a prescription whether good or bad drugs are used in the compounding of the medicine. We use the very best drugs that we can get. Our drugs are always fresh and pure. Next in importance to the quality of the drugs used comes the manner in which the compounding is done. Our prescription clerks are all thoroughly experienced, fully competent pharmacists. Our prices are low, none lower for this grade of work.

IMPROVED APPEARANCE OF BANK BUILDING

The Citizens' National Bank Has Some Artistic Work Done on Its Windows.

Every ready and noticeable zeal to add improvements to the general appearance of their already beautiful apartments on Washington street, the officials of the Citizens' National bank are now having the elegant plate glass facing the street beautified by artistic lettering in gold. The work is being done by A. Judson McCain, the well known sign painter.

Passersby are all attracted by the improvement and all agree that its beautifying effect was wonderful, the tint of gold corresponding admirably with the surrounding adornment. The letters compose the words: "Citizens' National Bank" in the first line; "Capital Stock, $100,000," second line; "Surplus, $50,000," third line, and "United States Depository" the fourth line.

Blending perfectly as they do, the letters embellish the artistic surroundings and will catch the eye of every one passing.

AT THE THEATRE

The attraction announced for next Saturday night is the powerful Russian melodrama, "For Her Sake," which has already had one very successful season, and now comes to us in an entirely new dress, having been rewritten and novel and effective situations added. The present prominence of the czar's government in the Chinese business tends to arouse interest in plays dealing with Russian military life, and this of itself will doubtless assure large audiences during the coming engagement.

At the Grand tonight that charming pastoral play, "York State Folks," which made such a favorable impression with those who were fortunate enough to witness it at its last visit, will be presented with the same great cast and magnificent scenery. "York State Folks" without doubt is the best play of its kind that has ever been offered, and it is a play that is destined to have a long and successful career.

"When the Bell Tolls," which will be given at the Grand on Friday night. One of the most effective scenes in this successful production is a completely darkened room in which the entire action of a stirring episode takes place in the condensed, but brilliant ray of a bicycle lantern. This effect is original in "When the Bell Tolls." The play is full of novel features and the plot is intensely interesting.

In old Georgia, land of cotton and the luscious watermelon, is situated the romantic story, "The Old Plantation." A series of stirring dramatic situations and startling climaxes, combined with the strongest of heart interest, are the features of this beautiful play. At the Grand opera house Thursday evening.

Quinlan & Wall's minstrels gave a fine show to a crowded house at the Grand last evening. It was full of originality and fun and delightful from start to finish. The singing was excellent and the special acts furnished refreshing novelties. Jimmy Wall's topical song made a great hit. About 40 members of the order of Eagles attended in a body.

MRS. UHLWARM IS NOT FOUND

Report of Her Being Seen in East End Leads to Diligent Search.

MANY ARE IN THE HUNT

Efforts Thus Far Futile But the Searchers Are Greatly Encouraged and Hope to Find the Unfortunate Woman Alive.

Through the long hours of last night the Columbian park neighborhood was searched by the anxious relatives of Mrs. Max Uhlwarm, who has been strangely missing from her home near Ralston's crossing since Saturday night. The search was instituted at the park through a clue developed at the East End fire station and while it proved fruitless last night the searchers did not lose heart and with augmented forces returned to the work this morning.

The clue was obtained by Captain Terrence through the conversation of some callers at the fire station. They mentioned the fact that on Sunday night Will Price and "Cooney" Good-ballet, the crew on an east bound street car, had to remove a woman from the track. While no accurate description was given, Captain Terrence connected the incident with the disappearance of Mrs. Uhlwarm.

A short time later this theory was strengthened by the statement of two well known young men of the East End, Ira Farrell and John Arnold. They were sitting on a stone wall near the park at about 9 o'clock Sunday night, when they saw a woman walking eastward along the street car track. As she passed beneath an electric light they could see that she wore a red wrapper and a plaid shawl. Her appearance aroused their curiosity and they observed her more closely. One of them recognized her to be a woman whom he had seen in the neighborhood of Ralston's crossing. He was not personally acquainted with Mrs. Uhlwarm, however.

The husband and relatives of the missing woman were notified of this clue and immediately started to work on it. While the belief had been strong during the first few days of her absence that Mrs. Uhlwarm, while suffering from dementia, had sought death in the waters of the Ohio, the later clue has altered this belief and it is now the belief and the hope that she is somewhere in the vicinity of Columbian park.

The searchers last night encountered many difficulties, owing to the darkness and it was impossible for them to get over a great deal of territory. The lanterns they carried were of small assistance and had Mrs. Uhlwarm's dementia taken this turn, the lights would have warned her of the approach of searchers. The distress of the husband, Max Uhlwarm, is growing greater every hour. Now that there is hope that she is still alive, he will prosecute the search fever without a moment's delay, realizing that every hour of her roaming through the woods will add to her illness.

Mr. Uhlwarm, his brother and Theodore and Henry Konig, who formed the original searching party, were joined this morning by quite a number of potters from the East End plants. The searchers will first search through the Columbian park neighborhood and the territory north of Pennsylvania avenue. The nature of the ground is such as to afford many hiding places. The territory will be extended as rapidly as possible as Mrs. Uhlwarm has had time, since she was seen Sunday night, to get many miles away.

A report this afternoon that Mrs. Uhlwarm had been found could not be confirmed. At a late hour the searchers had not returned.

William J. Frazier, pleaded guilty to a like offense, but a fine of $25 was suspended during good behavior. It was represented in his behalf that the lad had sold cigarette tobacco innocently while in charge of Alonzo Riddle's cigar stand, the proprietor having gone away several months ago without giving the boy instructions.

Joe Lococo, against whom were four indictments for selling cigarettes, pleaded not guilty and was placed under bond of $100.

Regarding these cases, Prosecutor Brookes said the cigarette habit had grown to such proportions in Lisbon that the grand jury decided upon harsh measures to stop the pernicious practice.

In the case of Edward Crawford, jointly indicted with Roddy McAllister for the theft of $10 from Gus Zelle, a Salem saloonist, Crawford was permitted to change his plea to guilty. He has been in jail five weeks and Judge Hole sentenced him to 30 days more. McAllister, who was apprehended Saturday night, waived an arraignment and entered a plea of not guilty. He is in jail and his bond was fixed at $100. The evidence showed these men were in Zelle's saloon while the proprietor was away, and when the boy's attention was diverted stole the money that had been taken in that day from a cupboard. Crawford and his companion were seen in the street with the money and their lavish expenditure of change led to their detection and the arrest of Crawford, who said his home was in Pittsburg and that he had been in the employ of the McGinty Construction company, which is extending the Stark Electrical railway.

Barbara Barth, of East Liverpool, charged with assault and battery, waived arraignment, pleaded not guilty and is held to court in a bond of $100.

Howard Pickering, who was implicated with Nick Murray and others in the theft of several bottles of whiskey from a car in East Liverpool, got 30 days in jail. The stolen whiskey had been consigned to D. A. Strayer. Had the evidence shown that Pickering and his companion broke into the car they would have got at least five years in the penitentiary.

Clarence Sharp, a Wellsville saloonist, charged with selling on Sunday, pleaded not guilty and his case will be up for a hearing next week.

John Roessler, of Salem, charged with selling liquor in a prohibition township, was arraigned this morning, pleaded not guilty and was placed under $100 bond for his appearance.

WELLSVILLE

George A. Frink, of Wellsville, Has a Promising Well and Will Drill More.

George A. Frink, of this city, has struck a good grade of oil on his farm near Hammondsville and now has a well producing about 10 barrels a day with prospects of becoming a 20 barrel producer. This well was drilled in last Saturday evening at a depth of 365 feet in salt sand. Mr. Frink states that the well is also producing a strong head of gas and he is satisfied that he has made a good

This is the second well that has been drilled in on the Frink farm, the first well having proven a slight producer. Mr. Frink will probably drill the new well into the Berea sand, as it has made a good showing in drilling into the salt sand. A pipe line runs within three-fourths of a mile of his farm and will be extended to the new well at once.

Within a short time Mr. Frink intends to drill in several new wells in the same vicinity of this producer and the prospects are that these will also make a good showing.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Will Engage City Council's Attention At An Adjourned Meeting This Evening.

The adjourned meeting of city council which was decided upon at the meeting last Tuesday, will be held this evening and judging from the amount of unfinished business left over from the meeting last week and the amount of new business which has come up since, a lengthy session is looked for.

Among other important matters, the city clerk will probably dig up the old ordinance providing for the paving and otherwise improving of Highland avenue, an ordinance which was tabled by council some time ago, for some unknown reason. An effort will be made to put this ordinance through at once so that the paving can be done before the extreme cold weather sets in. This ordinance no doubt will meet with the approval of the councilmen, as it provides that each property owner on the street shall pay $2 per front foot for the paving of his property. This the property owners have already agreed to, and have further urged the promotion of the improvement.

NATURE'S OWN CURE

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known. This remedy is breathed through the Hyomei inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hyomei. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other disease and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hyomei not only kills the germs in the throat and nose, but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It frees the mucous membrane from poisonous microbes and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1. and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment.

Will Reed has so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that he agrees to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD

Holds a Short Session And Acts on the Question of Gas Connections.

The board of public service held a short session this morning and instructed the clerk to issue permits to all parties desiring to make gas connections with residences. It also instructed him to pay a bill of $64 for a lawn mower for use in the cemetery.

The board authorized the building of a bridge in the West End from Maple avenue to Clark avenue, extending over McQueen's run. This is an improvement which has long been needed.

The clerk was instructed to forward to council an itemized statement of the expenses of refitting the postoffice room in the city building and this statement will be presented to council at the meeting this evening. The board adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

Funeral of Mrs. Golden.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia A. Golden, who died at her home on Fifteenth street last Sunday evening, was held at the late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. W. C. Prewitt, pastor of the Christian church, of which she was a member, officiated and was assisted by Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church. Burial took place in Spring Hill cemetery.

Funeral This Afternoon.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Haines, who died at her home on Nevada street early yesterday morning, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the late home. Rev. W. C. Prewitt, pastor of the Christian church, of which she was a prominent member, officiated. Interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery.

No Quorum Present.

On account of the lack of a quorum, the board of education failed to get together last evening, their regular meeting night, and no meeting was held. There was considerable business on hand, and it is believed that a special meeting will be called within a few days to dispose of this business.

WILL CONTINUE WITH PROSPECTING

JOHN WEBSTER WILL THOROUGHLY TEST THE OIL FIELDS.

Has Secured a Lease on 350 Acres and Engaged a Driller.

Becoming weary at what he characterizes the unnecessary dilly-dally of the members of the company and feeling certain there is something to be gained by the further development of the field, John Webster, one of the most progressive citizens of Chester, has determined to take up the prospecting where it was left off by the Chester Oil and Gas company, and will begin drilling in the territory at once.

Mr. Webster did his best to interest the members of the company in the further investigation of the land leased by the company some time ago, but his efforts were without result. Last week he went to the old Hadley farm, southeast of Chester, and spent some time in securing leases. When the task was finished it was learned he had secured the right to prospect on about 350 acres of land. It is Mr. Webster's intention to give the territory a thorough test and work will begin at once. Expert Hyde has been engaged to do the drilling and will move the drilling apparatus to the ground this week.

The oil rig and other drilling apparatus which has been in use at the Enoch Allison farm, near Chester, was removed yesterday and will be placed in position at the James Murray property in Chester at once.

Stewart Bros. did the drilling at the Allison well and it came in a gasser. It is thought Mr. Allison will have sufficient gas for his private needs, and with that idea uppermost he has purchased the casing that was in use at the well and will connect his residence and outbuilding with the well without delay. Mr. Murray, who will experiment right in Chester, is an old oil man, and will pursue the experiments in his own locality with the sole purpose of obtaining a sufficient supply of gas to meet the demands of the fine new establishment he proposes to erect there.

George Howells and Al McDonald left Chester this morning for a prospecting trip in the vicinity of Hookstown. These men are known to be vitally interested in the oil and gas business, and it is presumed that they will have taken up leases on several hundred acres of land before returning to Chester.

Sale of Chester Grocery.

According to the decision of the court, the Chester Grocery company's possessions will be sold to the highest bidder this afternoon. The establishment is one of the oldest in the town, and as long as it was under the control of George A. Ayner, was one of the most prosperous in the community. Within the past few months, however, it has been in the possession of several different people and its prestige and importance has been on the wane. There are known to be a number of bids already on file, and the controversy will be spirited.

SHREWD WORK DONE BY A DETECTIVE

Conclusive Evidence Said to Have Been Gathered Against Toronto Saloon Men.

New Cumberland, October 14.—(Special.)—The latest developments in the arrest and holding for the grand jury of Joe Frisco, the Toronto saloon keeper, is that a United States detective and three or four assistants, who are Slav and Italian linguists, have been in New Cumberland and vicinity for about two weeks and have so completely worked up their case that they have evidence sufficient to make conviction sure. Their method of securing testimony was to send a telephone message from here for a quart of whisky to the saloon keeper at Toronto, and when it was delivered a check was given in payment and the man, to secure his money, indorsed the check and it was secured by the detective.

There does not seem to be a shadow of a chance to get out of it, the evidence is so conclusive. Before it is all over there will be others drawn into it, as some speakiesies are said to have jumped at the bait. When court convenes next month there will be a hot time.

BANK OPENING

JOHN CONSIDINE IS FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Highway Robbery in Stealing H. O. Sampsell's Money.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—

The case of Ohio against John Considine, of East Liverpool, charged with highway robbery, came on for trial before a jury late yesterday afternoon. A verdict of guilty was returned just before court adjourned. Considine's attorney, H. E. Grosshans, of East Liverpool, gave notice of a motion for a new trial, and the court deferred passing sentence until that matter is decided.

Considine was found guilty as charged of having forcibly taken $22 from H. O. Sampsell, a collector for the Pittsburgh Fraternal League. The robbery took place on July 7 last along the C. & P. railroad tracks near the C. C. Thompson pottery in East Liverpool. According to Sampsell's story on the witness stand he is a collector for a Pittsburgh insurance company and on the afternoon of the robbery had business in the East End, East Liverpool. He said he stopped at a spring along the railroad and was comparing the figures in his account book and the amount of cash he had on hand. He was about to return a roll of money to his pocketbook when he was suddenly seized from behind and his assailant shouted fiercely: "Drop that."

Sampsell said he was so frightened that he relaxed his grip on the bills, and turning saw Considine start to run with the money. Sampsell called for help and gave chase and a couple of young men, Edward Kelly and Joseph Gwinn, attracted by Sampsell's cries, overhauled Considine at a tree the 200 or 300 yards distant and held him until the patrol wagon and several officers arrived and took him in charge.

Sampsell said he had never seen Considine before the robbery, and that he had not been drinking. The testimony of the witnesses, Kelly and Gwinn, Officer Bryan and Lettie Wickram, proprietress of the National house, showed that the two men had been much in each others company on the day of the robbery, had been drinking and were intoxicated. Kelly and Gwinn had seen the men together in an apparently intoxicated condition but a few minutes before Sampsell's cries attracted them to a point from which they saw Considine commit the robbery. Seventeen dollars of the money taken by the thief was recovered and returned to Sampsell. Considine was in the employ of the Chas. A. Sims company, the railroad grading contractors, who have been working in the vicinity of East Liverpool, and had borne a good reputation, although somewhat addicted to drink.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE HAVE ORGANIZED

Division Formed in This City and Officers Chosen—Meeting Tonight.

Landmark division, Sons of Temperance, was organized at the First Christian church last evening. There were 43 charter members. The charter will remain open until December 1. The officers elected and installed for the new organization are as follows:

Worthy patriarch, L. C. Nease; worthy associate, Miss Jesse Calhoun; superintendent of young people, Miss Maude Steele; recording secretary, Miss Mary Willshaw; assistant recording secretary, Miss Laura Willshaw; financial secretary, Mrs. J. B. Rowe; treasurer, Miss Estella Barker; chaplain, A. G. Baxter; conductor, W. T. Ashbaugh; assistant conductor, George H. Wagner; inside sentinel, William Hoyt; outside sentinel, George Harrison.

The first session of the division will be held tonight in the Sunday school room of the First Methodist Protestant church. Many new members will be added at this meeting. At the close of the business session the national division officers will serve a banquet to the new division.

The Grand Session of Northeastern Ohio will probably be held in this city on December 1, at which time Most Worthy Patriarch of the National Division William H. Williams, of Lynn, Mass., will be present.

DEATH DUST Roaches.

A big black roach, is a big, mean nuisance; and the sooner they are driven out or killed, the better. They not only eat food and spoil infinitely more than they eat, but they destroy many fine things, such as book covers, etc. Numerous are the ways and means employed to rid premises and places of them but without permanent result.

The very best thing to kill roaches is Death Dust.

It kills them in their tracks before they reach their haunts. Sprinkle it freely about the places they are seen. They breathe it and DIE. Just what every good housekeeper wants them to do.

FLOOD HAS SUBSIDED

DAMAGE AMOUNTS TO MILLIONS

Hundreds Still Homeless and in Distress—No Additional Fatalities Reported—Traffic Resumed on Railroad Lines Entering New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—With the receding of the floods, reported from all quarters, Paterson, Passaic and the other water swept New Jersey towns are relieved of further peril and are beginning now to get a clear idea of the extent of the devastation.

In Paterson alone the damage to property is estimated at $2,000,000, without taking account of the loss in wages to the thousands who have been temporarily deprived of occupation by the shutting down of factories.

The water was reported to have fallen on four feet below the highest mark and the only possible source of damage would be the bursting of the great water mains which were undermined by the flood. The distress continues great and fully 500 persons were still compelled to seek food and shelter in the army. No additional fatalities were reported throughout the day.

In Passaic the damage is estimated to be at least equal to that in Paterson.

Many adjacent villages were still under water, but with the falling of the waters all danger of a collapse of the great Dundee dam was declared to be past.

Traffic was resumed on all the railroad lines entering New York with the exception of the local service on the main line of the Erie. The milk famine in the city was broken by the arrival of the usual number of milk trains on the West Shore, New York Central and other roads.

NEWSPAPER WRITER DEAD.

Pioneer Resident of Wellsburg—Helped Organize State of West Virginia.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 13.—John Gabriel Jacob, a pioneer resident of Wellsburg, and one of the most widely known newspaper writers of the state, is dead at his home, Wellsburg, aged 71 years. On Saturday evening he was taken ill with pneumonia, and this, coupled, it is thought, with the shock of the death of his wife on Friday, Oct. 2, resulted in his own demise.

Mr. Jacob in 1848 took charge of the Wellsburg Herald, and through its columns during the troubled days before the war, wielded an influence against slavery that was widely felt, bringing upon him the bitterest opposition among the slavery leaders. He was one of the strongest advocates for the making of a new state out of the western portion of Virginia and did much of the work of organizing the new state after its separation. He was a Republican in politics.

Situation Causes No Alarm.

Washington, Oct. 13.—At the Russian embassy the officials are not alarmed over the situation in the far east. The view held there is that neither Russia nor Japan desires war, though both may be making preparations to that end, and that there is really no question at issue which cannot be settled without recourse to arms, provided the negotiating parties are disposed to use diplomacy rather than the sword. The embassy has received no advices from St. Petersburg for more than two weeks.

Mahoning Valley Furnaces Closing.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 13.—In compliance with the agreement of the furnace operators to close down for the purpose of restricting the production of pig iron, the Laura furnace at Hazlet, owned by the Republic Iron and Steel company, closed down. Other furnaces in the Mahoning valley are making preparations to close and indications are that the agreement will be carried out to the letter.

Yellow Fever Increasing.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 13.—During the past 24 hours there has been a larger number of yellow fever cases than on any day since the outbreak of the epidemic. A report from Nuevo Laredo, Mex., says that the condition of United States Consul Alfonso B. Garrett is much improved. Reports from Monterey covering the past week indicate that affairs have taken a serious turn.

Archbishop Near Death's Door.

Baltimore, Oct. 13.—Archbishop John Joseph Kain, of St. Louis, who is a patient at St. Agnes' sanitarium, was reported at midnight to be in a state of coma. His death is expected at any hour by those in attendance upon him.

Husband and Wife Go Gas Route.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13.—Bernard and Anna Schuit, husband and wife, committed suicide at their home by inhaling illuminating gas. Continued ill health is ascribed for the act.

Animal Trainer Boone Dead.

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—Colonel Daniel E. Boone, a celebrated circus manager and trainer of wild animals, is dead after a long illness, aged 62 years. He was born in Kentucky.

Duck Hunter Shot.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 13.—George Burns, aged 19 years, of Royallton, was fatally shot while duck shooting in the Susquehanna river near his home.

REALM OF SPORTS

A Trial of Speed Between La France and Wood Girl Is Proposed.

There is considerable talk of a match between two local horses, La France, owned by Harrison Rinehart, and Wood Girl, owned by C. A. Smith. No definite arrangements have been made for the meet, but it is expected and wished that it will take place in Columbian park before the end of the month.

As is well known both horses are about the best of their class in the country, with Wood Girl slightly in the lead. Both have won some fast races and a match between them would give local lovers of horse flesh a grand opportunity of witnessing a heated contest.

La France made an excellent record at Johnstown last week and earlier in the season she demonstrated beyond a possible doubt just what she is worth.

Wood Girl is conceded to be the best mare in this section. Her backers say they will place her against anything in the 2:22 class and will stake their lives on her as a winner. A record of her victories has been published in the News Review.

Local sports would rather see a race between this pair of beauties than any other event that could be pulled off in the city. There are several reasons why it would be a great hit, but one in particular. All will remember the great race between Tewksbury, owned by C. A. Smith, and Redmond, owned by Harrison Rinehart. The horses were backed heavily and Redmond won in a walk. Sports say that the victory this year will be landed by the Smith horse and the backers of Wood Girl will be heavily on her, but it is the same as the admirers of La France, consequently the extraordinary interest.

BOWLING LEAGUE HAS BEEN FORMED

Four Teams Organized for Contests During the Winter Season.

Messrs. McDonald and Williams, purchasers of the Imperial bowling alley, Washington street, are arranging for some genuine sport for the coming winter. Realizing that interest in bowling will pick up greatly during the next few weeks, cool weather having that effect, the new managers have a plan by which they expect to start the sport as early as possible.

It will be recalled that last year a bowling league, consisting of a half dozen teams, played on the alleys regularly and that interest was undying. The new owners intend to profit by the experience of Charles Craig, from whom they bought the alley, and have already formed four teams and scheduled some games.

Each team is composed of five members as follows:

First Team—Carl Clark, captain; Otto Powell, Elmer Rose, Clyde Linton, Harry Logan.

Second Team—George Rigby, captain; Walter Durkee, Hartie Evanette, William Powell, Charles Gipner.

Third Team—William Kearns, captain; Frank Williams, Orlando Shultz, C. W. Ray, Earl Brunt.

Fourth Team—Harry Wood, captain; W. H. Gass, Harry Treese, Ray Bence, Edwin Heddlston.

Hundreds of Pupils, Wearing Blue and White, Will Cheer the Local Eleven.

Cheered by hundreds of loyal rooters, the East Liverpool High school football team will battle with the Westville High school eleven on the West End park gridiron tomorrow afternoon. If the day is fair hundreds of school boys and girls wearing the blue and white of the high school will be at the park to encourage their favorites. This is the return game, the local eleven having defeated Wellsville a short time ago by the score of 10 to 0.

To prevent the squabble that occurred at the first game over the attempt of the Wellsville team to play a number of "fingers," a sum of $10 has been posted by each side to be forfeited in case any bona fide members of the two high schools are played. One exception is made in favor of Wellsville, it having been agreed that Culbertson, objected to at the first game, is to play. Culbertson is one of the best players in this section, weight considered, but he did not accomplish much in the Wellsville game.

Captain Mountford will lead in the same lineup, with the exception of Bridge, and unless Wellsville has

The West End Rovers have taken possession of the West End park for the foot ball season and will have a game there with some good team next Saturday. Games will be played there every Saturday until the close of the season and the fastest teams in this section will be taken on. It will take the Rovers all of this week to recover from the Empire riot, although they will practice hard for Saturday's game.

What You Ought To Know About Ohio Tax Laws

A DISCUSSION BY

NUMBER SIX (To Be Completed in Ten Numbers).

OHIO'S INIQUITOUS TAX INQUISITOR LAW.

FARMER PERKINS—I should like to know something of Ohio's tax inquisitor law.

Lawyer Thorndike—When Mr. Alfred Kelley started the state on its wild goose chase after ad valorem taxation in 1846, it took till 1861 for the taxpayers to get on to the weakness of the law. Under the stimulus of the Kelley law, personality on the grand duplicate in Ohio, sprung from $49,552,496 in that year to $83,964,439 in the following year. It made increases from that year, yearly, to 1855, when it decreased from the previous year $14,000,000. In 1856 it decreased $43,000,000 from the previous year and increased $23,000,000 in 1857, but did not come back to former figures by $7,000,000. In 1858 it decreased $23,000,000 more, but increased $11,000,000 in 1859, but in 1860 it decreased $3,000,000 from the former year. The Kelley tonic had lost its effect, and in 1861 something had to be done.

On March 29, 1861, the law, which is the beginning of the tax inquisitor law, was passed. That law simply gave the auditor power to put on the duplicate, omitted personal property, in the year on which he found it was omitted, 58 Vol. O. L. 47. This is now the first part of section 2781 of the Revised Statutes. On May 11, 1878, 75 Vol. O. L. 457, the act was amended to go back four years, beginning in the year in which the investigation was made.

On April 14, 1886, 82 O. L. section 2781, was amended to extend the investigation back six years. This constituted the law till April 14, 1893, 90 O. L. 233, when the act was amended in the interest of justice.

From 1861 to 1893 the law was read and construed so as to punish an offender thereunder in the inverse proportion to his property properly returned.

Farmer Perkins—That is a singular statement. Can you give an example of how the law would so operate?

Lawyer Thorndike—I will bring forward our quarantined friends, John Doe and Richard Roe. John Doe for the money shall take the role of the honest man and Richard Roe that of the dishonest man. They shall be each operated on, under section 2781, Revised Statutes of Ohio. In the year 1891, for making false returns for taxation under section 2781, which have been made back to include the year 1886. We will assume that John Doe in the six years did wilfully and intentionally omit $100,000 of his credits, and that Richard Roe did in the same period omit $600 of credits, in the same manner, having returned credits to the amount of $100,000. We will assume that each should have returned $100,000 of credits and that all their other property, real and personal, was duly returned. We will assume that each resided in the same taxing district and that the rate of taxation in that district during the six years was uniformly 2 per cent.

The auditor has just previously concurred in the appointment of a tax inquisitor in his county, who is to receive 20 per cent of what he finds, or what the auditor finds for him. The auditor has in mind the 4 per centum he is to receive under section 1081, Revised Statutes; and the 5 per cent his friend, the treasurer, is to receive under section 2856, Revised Statutes, and these reflections lead zest to his impartial investigation. He is serving the third year of his second term, and has let Mr. Doe escape the previous five years, so he can obtain his 4 per centum for the whole period of six years.

At the end of five years the auditor makes up a tax bill against our friend, John Doe. He finds Doe should have returned $100,000 each year from 1886 to 1891, both years inclusive, but in fact he only returned $600 per year for the six years and paid 2 per cent taxes, or $12 per year, for six years. The auditor adds the 50 per cent for these years and makes the basis of his taxes for each year $150,900 at 2 per cent. This makes John Doe's tax bill $18,108, on which he had paid $72, which must be credited and his net tax bill is $18,036.

Now we will try Richard Roe. He was honest for $100,000, but dishonest as to $600, but his total returns should have been the same as his neighbor's, John Doe, in the same taxing district.

The auditor makes up for Richard Roe the same tax bill as against John Doe, who was one hundred times more guilty, and it is $18,108, but Richard Roe has paid $2,000 per year for six years on his $100,000 credits, and must have credit for what he has paid. This sum, $12,000, reduces his tax bill to $6,108, or about 33 per cent of what John Doe has paid him, who, instead of being 66 2/3 per cent more guilty is one hundred times more guilty.

John Doe pays his penalty and tax bill amounting to $18,036, and Roe his penalty and tax bill, amounting to $6,108, making a total of $24,144. Of this $24,144 the tax inquisitor gets $4,828, the auditor gets $393.76 and the treasurer gets $1,206.40, a total of $7,000.16 for collecting $24,144, which is 29 per cent of the amount collected.

Farmer Perkins—Is not this a supposition case?

Lawyer Thorndike—No, it is a real one except as to amounts and rates of taxation. This construction of the law was sought to be enforced in Taylor vs. Musser, 55 O. S. 658, and the foregoing was claimed to be the proper interpretation of the law by one of the most distinguished lawyers of the state, and whose name is a household word.

Farmer Perkins—Suppose Doe should have returned $100,000 and did return $100,000. Under the same facts what would be Doe's tax bill, for the omission of one dollar each year for six years?

Lawyer Thorndike—It would be $6,006, of which the tax inquisitor would get $1,201.20, the auditor would get $240.24 and the treasurer would get $300.39 a total of $1,741.94 for collecting $6,006, which is 29 per cent of the amount collected.

Farmer Perkins—Is the construction of this law the same in each county of the state?

Lawyer Thorndike—No, I have given you the extreme construction which was contended for in the case referred to. In another county the penalty was only placed on the amount of omitted property, which is just. In a third county the penalty was only counted on the actual taxes which should have been paid.

The second construction was applied in Hamilton county, and the third in Cermont county.

Farmer Perkins—What was done in amending the law in 1893?

Lawyer Thorndike—It was amended so as to apply the penalty only to the amount omitted each year. The attention of the legislature was called to the awful construction of the law, claimed in the 55 O. S., and at once amended it. The same law, so amended, is now in force.

Farmer Perkins—As I see the case, the $100,000 Richard Roe had properly returned was used as a basis to punish him for the $600 omitted. Am I right in this view?

Lawyer Thorndike—You are.

Farmer Perkins—I turn to page 884 of the Ohio Statistics, 1902. "Additions to the tax duplicate upon information received from inquisitors." I find the whole amount paid inquisitors was $202,005.97, or 7 per cent of the taxes collected on their additions. I notice that twenty-four counties made no report of fees paid inquisitors, and ten counties are left out. How do you explain this?

Lawyer Thorndike—That report is valueless except as to the taxes added, which were $2,701,106.70. The tax inquisitors were entitled to 20 per cent of that, and no doubt got it—$540,221.34.

The county auditors were entitled to 4 per centum of the taxes collected, $108,044.26, and no doubt received it. The county treasurers were entitled to 5 per centum of the amount, $125,055.32, and no doubt received it, or $773,320.92 for collecting $2,701,106.70, or 29 per cent. The county auditors and treasurers in the entire state received as compensation the sum of $817,479.98 in 1902, and the tax inquisitors and their aids $773,320.92, or only $14,156.09 less that the county auditors and treasurers. A system which requires the legalized expenditure of $773,320.90 over and above that of the auditors and treasurers is necessarily rotten and corrupt. It is based on false ideas and theories and merits condemnation.

Many persons think the auditors and treasurers ought to collect all the taxes, but beside the $857,996.77 paid them to collect the taxes in 1902, $773,320.92 was authorized to be paid and no doubt was paid, to tax inquisitors.

Were the taxation amendment adopted the three-quarters of a million dollars paid tax inquisitors would be saved and go direct to the state or the counties.

Endorsed by the Democratic Party.

The Democratic party, assembled in state convention at Columbus, Aug. 26, 1903, endorsed the following proposed constitutional amendments:

1. Taxation—Providing for the classification of subjects for taxation.

2. Double Liability—Abolishing double liability for stockholders in Ohio corporations.

3. Legislative Districts—Providing that every county shall have at least one representative in the General Assembly.

It disapproved the proposed amendments to give the governor the power of veto, and for the classification of cities.

Pure, rich blood means health and strength—thin, impure blood makes paleness, anemia, weakness, nervousness and disease.

One reason why Hagee's Cordial (of Lime and Soda) does so much good, in cases of nervousness, sleeplessness, indigestion, mal-assimilation, rheumatism, skin diseases, blotches and weakened conditions, is that it purifies and enriches the blood—feeding impoverished nerves, strengthening every organ and building good, sound flesh.

Hagee's Cordial contains all the good of cod liver oil. It is a thin, fluid cordial, pleasant to taste and smell.

Sold by all druggists. Prepared by Kathermon Chemical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

company the others when they were brought before the mayor. When the matter was explained to the mayor he discharged the two operators and said that the arrest had been a mistake.

There will be no hill climbing nor brake contest as a climax to the automobile run from New York to Pittsburgh. This was decided upon after a conference by the members of the National Association of Manufacturers. In view of the extraordinary conditions under which the competition cars have made the run, the association decided that in fairness to those who entered and succeeded thus far with cars the severe test should not take place after all the machines have already gone through.

The abandonment of the hill climbing and speed contests means that there will simply be a chase out the boulevard, an examination of the cars by a crowd of Pittsburgh enthusiasts, a series of entertainments, and then a whole year's talk concerning which car did the best work.

Buffalo, Oct. 13.—Three additional automobiles arrived here later in the evening, making a total of 18. They immediately resumed the run to Pittsburgh in an endeavor to overtake the leaders at Erie, Pa.

SCHOOLS OF CRIME

Chain Gang Prison System of South a Breeding-Place for Immorality.

MEN SOLD TO HIGHEST BIDDERS

Doctor Thirkield's Address Before
Evangelical Alliance at Cincinnati—
Convict Lease System Condemned
as Inhuman and Brutalizing.

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—Dr. W. P. Thirkield, corresponding secretary of the Methodist Freedman's Aid and Southern Educational society, in delivering the opening address of the Evangelical alliance, charged that the outrages of negroes in the south was due to the chain gang prison system. He said in part:

"Far be it from me to utter one word in extenuation of the unspeakable crime of which some black men are guilty. Let us keep in mind, however, that only about 20 per cent of the black men who are lynched have ever been charged with the unspeakable crime against the sacredness of womanhood. Let the black men bring in every influence to bear to make such crimes impossible. Let there be prompt executions of the law against this and all crimes of all men. Lynch law, however, is an anarchy. It brings in the reign of barbarism. It brutalizes members of the mob; it undermines government; it does not stop crime."

Maintained by Southern States.

"In estimating criminality among the black people we should keep in mind that since Appomattox nearly every southern state has maintained schools of crime—an organized institution for the training of criminals. This I charge against the convict lease system of the south. This system, with its thousands of victims, has been the cause of much of the outbreak in crime among black people, through its brutalizing and dehumanizing influence on thousands of negroes."

"Under this system both prison and prisoners are farmed out under the control of private corporations—sold to the highest bidder."

"To the lessee the body and soul of convicts are assigned. The motive of both state and lessee is not morals but money; not reformation, but exploitation of criminals for gain. It is crime turned into a source of revenue; the brawn and blood of criminals bartered for gain."

Criminals Herded Together.

"Criminals are generally scattered in branch prisons—quartered in rude stockades without proper sanitation, food or clothing. The average life of these convicts is less than 10 years. Old and young are promiscuously chained and herded together. Even men and women are, in some camps, not separated. The warden of a state penitentiary protests in his report that 'under the present law and customs the penitentiary is the school of crime instead of being a reformatory institution.' Of the 50 boys under 18 nine-tenths of them leave prison much worse than when they come in."

"In a period of two years over 100 of these convicts escaped from southern prisons. Think of 100 thieves, murderers, thugs, at large—lawless men roaming about in defiance of all law and order. Think of a system that has no reformatory element; no system to cure men of crime, but that educates young criminals in crime, and that, by its barbarity, brutalizes and dehumanizes men and sends out those that do not die under the horrors of the system to debauch and degrade society. From such criminals what wonder if there have come forth hundreds of moral monsters."

Graduates Criminals.

"Even at the late session of the prison congress in Atlanta visitors went to the city stockade where conditions are under the oversight of enlightened officials under the employ of the city. The element of gain is here eliminated, yet these humane people entered a public protest against the inhumanity and immorality of the present system even under these favorable conditions. The south should reform its present system, and thus stop the education of criminals. The present system is a sowing of the wind, and it is bound to reap the whirlwind."

"Over against the outcome of these schools of crime is the fact that of all the thousands of graduates from the Christian schools maintained by the benevolence of the north and south, not one graduate has ever been accused of the crime against the sacredness of womanhood."

Mr. Thirkield made a strong plea for the philanthropic and Christian people both of the south and north to join hands in educational and missionary efforts for the solution of this heaviest problem of the races ever given any nation to solve.

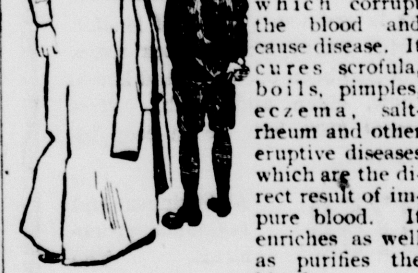

It's Impure Blood.

"What is it?" asks the mother as she notices the smooth skin of her child marred by a red or pimply eruption. It is impure blood, and the child needs at once to begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best and surest remedy for impurity of the blood. It entirely eradicates the poisons which corrupt the blood and cause disease. It cures scrofula, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which are the direct result of impure blood. It enriches as well as purifies the blood.

"Dr. Pierce's medicine has not only benefited me greatly, but it has done wonders for my two sons," writes Mrs. M. Hartrick, of Denison, Oswego Co., N. Y. "Both had scrofula. I have lost two daughters in less than five years with consumption and scrofula. My eldest son was taken from three years ago with hemorrhage from the lungs. It troubled him for over a year. He took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and has not had a hemorrhage since. A sore on his neck, had two lumps, but has not had any since he commenced to take your medicine."

SAVED BY POLICE.

Young Man Accused of Heinous Crime
Narrowly Escapes Lynching.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Arthur Warren, a young man living in the suburb of Berwyn, 12 miles from Chicago, had a narrow escape from lynching, and but for the efforts of two policemen it is possible that he would have been hanged to a telegraph pole.

Warren was accused of assaulting an 8-year-old girl. Acts of this kind have occurred several times at Berwyn within the last few nights and the crowd that pursued Warren was highly exasperated. He led them a chase of about a mile before he was caught and during the run the excitement of the crowd had increased.

When Warren was captured he was handled very roughly and a proposition to lynch him met with approval. Two policemen managed to get him away from the crowd and drag him into a grocery store, where they barred the door until assistance arrived from the police station. Warren, who required surgical attendance, was finally placed in a cell, although the crowd followed him all the way to the station trying to get at him.

MILLIONAIRE DIES IN POVERTY.

Omaha, Oct. 13.—Thomas Murray, until a few years ago rated a millionaire, and who made most of his fortune dealing in second-hand goods, died in a shack in the southern part of the city. Murray, who has lived in Omaha for 50 years, was a bachelor and was famous for his peculiarities and eccentricities. He built the first six-story brick building in the city, for which he burned his own brick, and was 12 years in its building. His second-hand store, which was known as the Old Curiosity Shop, contained almost everything known to junk lore. A great deal of his fortune was lost in real estate.

"Farmers' Trust" Incorporated.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13.—The Farmers' Co-operative Shipping association, commonly called the "farmers' trust," has legally entered the state of Nebraska, the secretary of state having received its incorporation papers. The capital stock is $200,000, and the purpose of the association is to handle grain and live stock and to eliminate the middlemen. It is planned to build a number of elevators in this state and to absorb the other co-operative companies now doing business in Nebraska.

Constantinople at World's Fair.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—The contract for the construction of the Constantinople concession at the world's fair, showing a part of the Stamboul district, was awarded. The concession is to represent a street in Stamboul paved with brick and for a part of the distance arcaded. The court in the center is to be used for an open air theater.

Ball Game Postponed.

Boston, Oct. 13.—The Boston-Pittsburgh baseball game scheduled for Monday, in the championship series, was postponed on account of rain.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES

The United States supreme court convened for the October term.

The call for the extraordinary session of congress to meet Nov. 9 will be issued probably on Oct. 20.

Assistant Attorney General Robb, of the postoffice department, has gone to Cincinnati to attend the trial of D. V. Miller, former assistant attorney in the office of the assistant attorney general.

Justice and Mrs. McKenna announce the engagement of their daughter, Isabel, to Pitts Duffield, of New York, a son of General Harry Duffield, of Detroit. No date has been set for the wedding.

Kyrle Bollew presented his new play from Hornung's stories, "Raffles, the Amateur Cracksman," for the first time in Washington before a large audience, including many notabilities of the capital.

GET OUT EVERY VOTE.

Only Danger Is Among the Republican Stay-at-Homes.

As Important as Any Presidential Election, as Urgent Upon Everyone—Over a Hundred Thousand More Ohio Republicans Can Be Brought Out.

The nearer that election day approaches the more certain it becomes that just one thing transcends in importance every other consideration of the campaign. That is that the Republicans of Ohio shall get out a full vote on the 3d of November.

In the close counties and districts, where the contest increases in intensity as the time for voting comes around, the danger in this respect diminishes in proportion to the fierceness of the fight. But in the districts and counties that are more or less undecided either way, there is always a tendency to fall short of a full vote. Earnest strife over local offices may increase the number of voters at the polls, but there still remains a considerable class of citizens who neglect their responsibilities of suffrage except at a presidential election.

What are the Republicans of Ohio; what are the Republicans of your district; what are the Republicans of your county; what are the Republicans of your town; what are the Republicans of your precinct and sub-precinct, going to do on election day? Twenty per cent of the Republicans of this state failed to turn out to vote at all both last year and year before. For Governor Nash in 1901, for Secretary Laylin in 1902, the total vote was 107,000 short of the vote for McKinley in 1900. There is not a thing anywhere to show that these men are other than Republicans now, just as they were two years ago. All that has been lacking is their presence at the polls.

This year's election is as important as a presidential election. It means Ohio's support of President Roosevelt, or Ohio's repudiation of him. Any material reduction in the Republican plurality will be claimed by the opposition throughout the nation as a verdict against Roosevelt and all the Republican policies. It will be seized as a reason for putting Johnson forward as the man of men to lead the Democratic party in the presidential campaign. Johnson does not need to defeat Herrick. He needs only to make inroads upon Herrick's majority. None but stay-at-homes among the Republicans can thus play into Johnson's hands. Every stay-at-home vote is a vote to help Johnson.

Still stronger is the case as to the United States senator. No McKinley man should absent himself from the polls when McKinley's closest friend, personally and politically, is assailed as Senator Hanna has been with the virulence of personal bitterness. Anything to beat Mark Hanna has been the Johnson war cry. Hanna's defeat would be hailed beyond anything else as a knock-out blow to the Republican cause from his party prominence and public service. None but stay-at-homes can defeat him. The more full the vote, the greater Herrick's majority, the more certain Hanna's election, and the more complete the crushing of Johnsonism and all that it means.

Get out the vote; every Republican vote in every voting precinct of Ohio.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND DIABETES NEWS

San Francisco, Oct. 8, 1903.

To the People of Ohio:

As San Francisco druggists personally acquainted with the facts we are asked to certify to you the curability of chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes, and however unreasonable it may seem to you, yet such is the fact. Up to a year ago we never heard of a genuine case of chronic Bright's Disease or Diabetes recovering. Now it is a common occurrence in this city. A great discovery has undoubtedly been made. Many prominent people here have recovered and every one of us whose names are appended hereto have either had recoveries among our customers or have genuine chronic cases now recovering. And the percentage of efficiency seems to be very high, for there are very few failures. Yours, etc.

BACK GIVES OUT

Plenty of East Liverpool Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys, overwork them. They can't keep up the continued strain.

The back gives out—it aches and pains.

Urinary troubles set in.

Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

East Liverpool people tell you how they act.

Mr. William Anderson, of 305 Lisbon street, says: "During the civil war I enlisted and served three years in the Forty-second Infantry. From the exposure during the war I attribute the severe aching and weakness in the loins and muscular rheumatism of recent years which all seemed to center in my kidneys. In the morning when first getting up I was very dizzy until I had moved around for a time and my nervous system became affected, causing fluttering and fullness around the heart. Seeing an advertisement in the paper I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy and took them. A few doses gave me relief. The improvement was gradual and continued as the medicine got thoroughly into my system. I firmly believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will in every case as they did in mine, prove the justness of the claims made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents a box. Foster Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

LIFE PLANT

THE greatest of all known remedies for the positive cure of all diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BLOOD. It is nature's own remedy and acts in accordance with her laws.

Do you suffer with INDIGESTION—are you distressed after eating—does a torpid liver make you feel miserable—out of sorts—at variance with the world? Do the kidneys fail to perform their duty, giving backache and general lassitude? Are you all worn out?

LIFE PLANT will relieve quickly and cure permanently—no disappointment—no failure—it has cured thousands of others—it will cure you.

Rev. J. B. Merchant, Pastor M. E. church at Prepat, O., writes under date July 10, 1900: "I take pleasure, and do not hesitate to recommend Life Plant as an excellent remedy for Liver and Kidney difficulties. Mrs. Merchant desires to bear testimony to the healing virtues of Life Plant, as a sure and certain remedy for Rheumatism."

Procrastination the Thief of Time.

Shake off its Devil Fish Tenacles which are binding you and buy that home now that you have been intending to for these many seasons. We describe below 7 propositions out of 300. If none of these suit you, call at our office and inquire of the 293 others. We can suit your case. Try us.

$1450 A nice, well ordered and well kept house of 4 rooms and a kitchen. Two stories, slate roof, good cellar, front porch, gas and city water. Nice lot situated on a pleasant street in a good neighborhood. We would like $450 down, balance monthly.

$1650 A new, not yet occupied 5 room house, just fresh from the builder. Rooms are large. Lot fronts 40 feet and is 100 feet deep. A drilled well 90 feet deep with never failing water standing 65 feet deep, equipped with pump. The house has a good cellar, front, side and rear porches and is roofed with slate. Situated 6 minutes out the north side car line, in a very pleasant locality. Terms right to a good party.

$950 A three room, one story and basement house on Lisbon street, water and gas, paved street and sidewalk. Three minutes walk from street car line. $200 down, balance monthly.

$2650 House of seven rooms and bath, pantry, cellar and furnace. Two stories, slate roof, front porch, and city water. The rooms are large. A good frame two story slate roof carriage barn, 16x32. Two lots making 60x130. A fine view obtained and one of the prettiest locations on the Ohio river. Worth more money, but owner lives out of town and is tired of renting. Will sell for $200 down, balance monthly.

$3100 This house is well located, within a few minutes walk of the business center. It is so near that you would work is gained. The roof is slated with Pennsylvania black slate. Never has been occupied and hence is new, clean and fresh. First payment $600, balance in easy installments.

$3750 A business and residence proposition. The building is two stories with finished attic; cellar under whole house. There are six large living rooms and a well arranged and equipped bath room which contains a bath tub, wash stand and w. c., hot and cold water, gas in every room. There is a high ceiling store room 20x30 with a fine glass front. It is located on the corner of two residence streets within 5 minutes walk of the Diamond; no hill to climb. Very favorably located for a residence and store. It will bring $38 per month rent. Thus yielding 13 per cent per year and will pay for itself in 8 years. A good thing, and we ought to keep it ourselves but it is our business to sell property. $750 cash down will give you possession, after that its income will pay us the balance and you will own it free from all claims in less than 8 years. It is easy to make money when you know how. This offer is one of the "hows."

Goodwin was a devout member, will likely officiate.

Mrs. Goodwin was formerly Miss Mary L. Bryant. She was born in Wooster, O., where her parents resided until their death. Upon her marriage to James H. Goodwin, president of the Goodwin Pottery company, and the oldest member of the Goodwin family, who died in 1896, she moved to East Liverpool and lived here ever since. She was the mother of but three children, John S. and Charles J. Goodwin, both of this city, and Mrs. Alice Gilmore, of New York.

Mrs. Goodwin was a good, Christian woman and was widely known for her kind and loving disposition. To her family she was ever kind and devoted, and in their hour of irreparable sorrow the sympathy of all will be with them.

Reported Killing Disproved.

Delaware, O., Oct. 13.—Rev. F. L. Johnson, of this city, has received word disproving the report that Rev. C. W. Kennedy, a young missionary from this city, had been killed by boxers in China. Rev. Kennedy is now at Otaru, Japan, engaged in mission work.

Financial Worry Caused Suicide.

Columbus, O., Oct. 13.—Hugo Schultz, manager of the Terry Engraving company, committed suicide by hanging himself in the engraving plant. Worry over financial matters was the probable cause. He was 32 years old and unmarried and came from Chicago.

Bears Letter from Czar.

Rome, Oct. 13.—Prince Dolgorouky, grand marshal of the Russian court, has arrived at Pisa bearing an autograph letter from the czar to King Victor Emmanuel. He will be received by the king at the royal shooting lodge of San Rosore, three miles from Pisa.

BRIGHT YOUNG LIFE

boy was lying across the south rail and it was evident that the wheels of both trucks had passed over his limbs.

The news of the awful accident reached the Young home before the party carrying the maimed body. Mrs. Young seemed to realize that her loved one's injuries were mortal, faint and for a time was in a very critical condition. The blow taxed her powers of endurance to the very utmost, while the other members of the family were distracted with grief. The scene at the home was pitiable.

Drs. Marshall and Hendershot arrived at the house in a short time to assist in caring for the lad's wounds. The examination of the three physicians showed that the left leg had been run over and almost severed at three places, just above the ankle, below the knee and near the hip. The right leg was almost severed at two places, both below the knee. From the very first the physicians saw that the lad was beyond aid and that his clinging strength would not permit of the necessary operation. The left limb, which was terribly mangled, was removed. The lad then showed evidences of collapse and a short time after the end came.

The lad was conscious until the physicians administered an anesthetic and talked to the sorrowing relatives at his side. He realized that death was near and tried to comfort his weeping mother. Through most of the night the distracted mother sat at the bier and there she was found today when the many sorrowing neighbors and friends called to express their sympathy. The boy was greatly loved in his home and a favorite with all.

The funeral services will be held Thursday, the arrangements to be announced later.

BRANNON ON TRIAL FOR POCKET PICKING

Sensational Robbery on a Street Car in This City the Cause of the Suit.

Lisbon, October 13.—(Special.)—James P. Brannon is on trial today for picking the pocket of Joseph Pierce, of Wellsville, in East Liverpool. Several witnesses have been examined. They testified that the robbery took place in a street car at the Diamond in East Liverpool on the evening of August 18, Brannon securing $37, which Pierce afterward recovered.

When Pierce was boarding the car Brannon jostled him and inside the car he detected Brannon in the act of robbing him. A scuffle ensued. B. L. Chandler, of East Liverpool, one of the witnesses, tried to help overpower Brannon. The latter threw his hat from the car and started to run out at the front. He escaped, but was soon apprehended by the police. The money was found hidden in the hat thrown from the car.
